STARTING TOUR OF VALLEY. Ready to board an Allegheny Airlines plane Sunday afternoon at Greater Pittsburgh Airport, this group includes district men helping direct a three-day tour of the Ohio Valley area for industrialists, financiers, rail and utility executives and writers which got under way yesterday at Marietta and will end Tuesday afternoon in East Liverpool. In the front row, from left, are Walter L. Myers Jr., of Steubenville, executive manager of the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council; Albert E. Redman of Columbus, industrial development director of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, and John D. Zook. The second row, from left, includes: Walter A. Durkin, industrial development director of the Monongahela Power Co.; E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager of the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, Clayton A. Gill of the Pittsburgh office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., and T. Fred Edwards, president of the local Chamber. A group of approximately 120 started an upriver cruise this morning aboard the excursion boat Chaperon to see the valley's industrial potential.

Group Begins River Tour In Valley Region

Industrial Leaders, Financiers Will See Potential Of District

Preparing to take a first-hand look at booming new industry and even greater potential in the Upper Ohio Valley region, 40 representatives of some of the nation's leading industries, rail and utility concerns and financial houses shoved off today from Marietta for a two-day river cruise that will end Tuesday afternoon in East Liverpool.

Along with about 80 others from Marietta, Parkersburg and other downriver communities, the 40 guests are traveling aboard the excursion boat Chaperon in a tour arranged by the six-county Upper Ohio Valley Development Council.

Along the way, they will be entertained with calliope music and river lore and given data on the postward growth along the Ohio from Pittsburgh to Parkersburg.

The first day of the river tour will end with a program tonight at Wilson Lodge in Oglebay Park, near Wheeling. Then the guests will be taken by bus to the Ft. Steuben Hotel at Steubenville, where they will spend the night.

Tomorrow's tour will begin when the group boards the Chaperon again at Brilliant. Twenty - six from the East Liverpool area will travel to Steubenville by special bus Tuesday morning to join the final leg of the tour.

The Chaperon is scheduled to dock about 3:30 tomorrow afternoon at the wharf at the foot of Broadway, where the guests will board special buses that will take them to Greater Pittsburgh Airport, Steubenville or Wheeling.

The tour got under way officially Sunday afternoon when the guests from outside the area boarded special planes at Greater Pittsburgh Airport to fly to the Marietta-Parkersburg Airport.

Three from East Liverpool are making the full three-day swing. They are T. Fred Edwards, president, and E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager, of the Chamber of Commerce, and Lawrence W. Black, a member of the Chamber's industrial development committee.

The tour guests spent Sunday night at the Lafayette Hotel in Marietta. They were guests there last night at a reception at which the principal speaker was Capt. Fred Way Jr. of Sewickley, who spoke on Ohio River lore. Earlier, the guests inspected the sternwheeler W. P. Snyder Jr., tied up at Marietta, and gave interviews to the press.

Calliope music awakened the guests at 7 this morning, preparing them to board the Chaperon

6 Killed, 20 Wounded In Trusteeship Area

DOUALA, Cameroons (AP) — Officials could give no explanation today for an attack by an armed band which killed 6 persons and wounded 20 in this United Nations trusteeship territory administered by the French.

Three of the dead and four of the wounded were Europeans. Two of some 30 rioters were killed, two wounded and several captured by police.

Parks, Pools Crowded

Relief From Heat Awaited Tuesday

Temperatures are scheduled to soar into the mid-90's for the second consecutive day, but showers scheduled tonight will be the forerunner of real relief from the heat wave promised Tuesday by the Ohio weatherman.

But cool weather seemed far away for a district sweltering in tropic temperatures, aggravated by high humidity that made the moisture stand out on foreheads and iced tea glasses.

The temperature went to a sizzling 94 at 6 p. m. Sunday at Dam 8, near Newell, the highest mark of the year.

The heat sent the largest crowds in years to park, pools and picnic spots amid a general migration in search of a temperature that was just a couple of degrees less than suffocating.

Today's high will range from 90 to 95, accompanied by high humidity, the weatherman said. But scattered showers are scheduled late today and tonight to drive the mercury down toward a normal range, he said.

The overnight low will be 63-68. Tuesday will be cloudy and cooler, the forecaster promised.

At noon Sunday, the mercury had climbed to 87. By 2 p. m., it had reached 90 and between 4 and 5 in the afternoon it jumped to 93. After hanging at 94 for just an hour, the mercury fell back to 93 at 7 last night. It dropped off to 86 at 9 p. m. and fell to 78 at midnight.

The mercury slid back slowly after midnight, reaching its low of 76 at 4 this morning and staying there until 7.

Thompson Park's picnic areas and pool were jammed yesterday, as were the facilities at Lake Marwin. Every other resort and picnic spot in the area reported some of the heaviest crowds in history.

Attendance at Hancock County's Tomlinson Run State Park zoomed to a new high for the season Sunday with 8,000 visitors, N. T. Holbrock, park supervisor, reported.

The figure included some 1,800 who used facilities at the park's swimming pool.

The all - time high attendance for Tomlinson Run was set during the July 4th holiday in 1958, when 10,000 visited the 1,353-acre recreational site.

At East Palestine, a record attendance of over 2,000 swimmers at the City Park was posted Sunday, Thomas Quilter, park director, announced. At 8 last night, the 2,000th ticket was sold — the first time such a number has been issued in one day since the pool was built in 1940, Quilter said.

Cabinet Decision Awaited

Ben-Gurion May Quit Post In Fight Over Arms Deal

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's coalition Cabinet decides today whether to approve an arms deal with West Germany unanimously or accept the resignation of Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion.

Ben-Gurion told leaders of his Socialist Labor party—the Mapai—he would resign if left-wing "opposition from within" his Cabinet failed to approve the sale of an estimated 250,000 grenade throwers to West Germany.

A special Cabinet meeting was called to vote on the sale, but it was not expected that opponents of dealing with Germany — the Achduth Avodah and Mapam parties — would reverse themselves.

Ben-Gurion said he would try to form a new government without members of the two parties. Without them his government would control only 50 of the 120 seats in Parliament. The Mapai itself has only 40 seats. But if a prime minister resigns, Israeli law permits the president to ask him to remain in office as head of a caretaker government until the next election. That will come in November.

Last Friday the Cabinet approved, apparently by a split vote, the sale of the grenade throwers to the Bonn government. Most of the machines reportedly have been delivered.

The Tel Aviv newspaper Maariv quoted Ben-Gurion as saying the sale was necessary for Israel's defense.

Ben-Gurion said Egypt, leader of Arab opposition to Israel, would soon receive Soviet MIG19 bombers, superior to Israel's bombers.

Opposition to the arms sale was generally based on the question of whether Israel should do business with Germany less than two decades after the Nazi extermination of millions of Jews.

'Satchmo' Discharged From Hospital In Italy

SPOLETO, Italy (AP) —Trumpeter Louis Armstrong was discharged from Spoleto Hospital today, pronounced recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The famed jazz musician left for Rome, telling hospital attendants he planned to do some sightseeing. Physicians warned him to take it easy.

Loss Estimate At Store Seen Nearly $8,000

Police Press Search For 2 Who Escaped In Market Stickup

Police still were without any trace of two armed bandits who fled with an estimated $8,000 in cash after a daring, well - planned robbery of the Thorofare Market on Pennsylvania Ave. Friday night.

Store officials declined to comment on the amount taken, but reports from unofficial but reliable sources placed the loot at nearly $8,000.

The market staff reportedly told police it was more than $1,000, but David Jenkins of Glenmoor, store manager who was not present during the holdup, said the figure was wrong.

He declined to reveal the actual amount, saying the company's insurance firm claimed more holdups might be encouraged if the figure were known.

The two unshaven bandits wearing dark glasses and flashing pistols forced Frank Arcuri, assistant manager, and Don Jewell, a clerk, to open the safe and empty it of cash shortly before the 9 p. m. closing time.

The rest of the store staff apparently was unaware of the stickup until the two started to leave the store.

The bandits fled in a car stolen in East Liverpool June 20. It was found later in the Smiths Ferry area, setting off a search by the posse through the nearby wooded areas.

Police theorized the pair either changed cars or possibly fled in a boat.

Nearly 50 law enforcement officers set up a network of road blocks throughout the tri-state area in an effort to entrap the fleeing bandits but the pair apparently planned their moves well, escaping before all the barriers could be set up.

Atlas Firings Halted For 'Corrective Work'

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — There will be a delay of "not less than 60 days" in getting the Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile ready for combat use, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy says.

McElroy spoke at a news conference Saturday during the defense secretaries conference, an annual meeting of the nation's top military and civilian Defense Department officials. The conference ended Sunday with a meeting of military commanders.

McElroy said test firings of the Atlas have been halted by the Air Force "while some corrective work is being done."

Tragedy Strikes In Georgia As Wooden Trestle Gives Way

By PERRY MULLEN

MELDRIM, Ga. (AP) — Rescue teams renewed dragging operations in the Ogeechee River today searching for more victims of a freak butane gas explosion that already apparently has claimed 19 lives. Many other persons were burned, at least 10 critically.

The blast occurred about 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Two railroad tanker cars spewed flaming death on some 175 fun-seekers in a recreation area beneath a 30-foot river trestle which the Seaboard Air Line train was crossing.

No one could say whether all bodies had been recovered, but Coroner Harold M. Smith said reports that dozens were unaccounted for were greatly overdrawn.

Smith said at the time he had accounted for 17 dead.

Since then two children died of burns in a Savannah hospital. They were listed as Wayne Smith, 3, and Terry Lane, 9.

A complete casualty list was not available but 14 dead have been identified. Some bodies were so badly burned that identification was difficult.

The railroad said the explosion of one butane tanker set off a second loaded with 10,000 gallons of the cooking and heating fuel. Two trainmen were injured in the blast and the pileup of freight cars near the end of the long train.

A second but lesser explosion came after rescuers reached the scene near this East Georgia town about 18 miles northwest of Savannah.

Most of the 124 cars in the Seaboard Air Line Railroad freight had cleared the 30-foot high trestle before the crash at 3:30 p.m. None fell in the water, but several piled up on the bank and burned through the night. Some of the cars were telescoped. Flat cars dangled from a 75-foot long break at the end of the 250-yard span.

First reports said the journal on one of the cars apparently broke. Some observers thought the trestle gave way.

Sparks caused by the wreck may have ignited the gas, turning the area into an inferno, or the escaping gas may have been ignited by a riverbank campfire.

Deadline Now Midnight July 14

New Steel Talks Are Set With Strike Date Delayed

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel industry contract negotiations are recessed until Wednesday. A strike deadline has been postponed for two weeks, until midnight July 14.

President Eisenhower's intervention Saturday paved the way for the postponement. The strike had been scheduled for Tuesday night, barring a sudden settlement, which nobody expected.

David J. McDonald, head of the United Steelworkers, scheduled meetings today with his 33-man executive board and 171-member international wage policy committee. Both sessions were expected to be routine.

The industry position against granting any labor cost increases still stands. This was made clear in a statement by R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, and by Thomas Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp.

Patton said on a nationwide television broadcast Sunday night that his firm is unwilling to grant any labor cost increases without compensating price increases. Asked about record 1959 progit reports, Patton said the long-range expectation is what must be considered.

McDonald called Cooper's restatement of concern over inflation "a rehash of the same old mishmash." The union is insisting on sizable gains in wages and other worker benefits. Steelworkers now earn an average $3.10 an hour.

Pittsburgh Workers Hope Against Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh steelworkers are still hopeful that a threatened steel strike may be averted now that the present contract has been extended until July 14.

The contract was due to expire at midnight Tuesday, but president David J. McDonald of the United Steelworkers announced an extension of the pact Saturday.

Gene Lis, a maintenance worker in one of the Pittsburgh mills, said: "I hope they don't go out. We were sort of hoping for the extension. Now that they have two more weeks to talk, maybe there won't even be a strike."

Albert Eiter, another worker, had this to say:

"Nobody wants a strike. Most of the guys in the mill—most working men anywhere for that matter—can't afford to strike. All I hope is that this postponement will give them enough time to agree to a new contract."

Champ Denies That He'll Quit After 2 Fights

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson, the new heavyweight boxing champion of the world, denied a Swedish report today that he planned to retire after two more fights.

"I expect to keep fighting for the next 10 years," the 26-year-old Swede said shortly before departing by air for a Florida vacation.

In Goteborg, Dr. Gosta Karlsson, Johansson's personal physician and adviser, said upon arriving from New York that the champion would limit himself to two title defenses and then quit.

Johansson does not wish to risk serious ring injury, the doctor added.

But Johansson quickly spiked retirement talk.

"Why should I stop now that I am on top," he told The Associated Press. "That statement in Goteborg is all wrong. I'll keep fighting for the next 10 years at least."

"I cannot understand why that statement was made," the champion said, referring to Karlsson's comments.

Soviet Deputy Premier

Jet Brings Kozlov To U.S. For Start Of Exhibition

NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov arrived Sunday to preside at the opening of the Soviet cultural and scientific exhibition.

President Eisenhower will fly here today to pay a short visit to the exhibition and presumably will meet Kozlov briefly. Vice President Richard M. Nixon is already here to take part in the opening ceremonies at the New York Coliseum.

The show opens to the public Tuesday.

The affable, gray-haired Kozlov —called the No. 3 man in the Kremlin—will go to Washington Tuesday to talk with Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Kozlov arrived in the world's biggest airliner, a Soviet propjet TU114, which set a record for flying time between New York and Moscow.

It was the first nonstop flight between the two cities. The flying time was 11 hours and 6 minutes for the 5,092-mile trip. That's an average speed of 460 miles an hour.

Kozlov is a square-faced man of 50, with a ready smile and a loud voice. He smiled often and made several jokes after his arrival.

During a three-hour boat ride around Manhattan, the view of the skyline prompted him to say "those who created this city certainly chose a very good site."

Kozlov's two-week stay in the United States is expected to include visits to San Francisco, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

Kozlov was noncommital in his comments. He said that the fact that the Soviet Union was opening an exhibition here and the United States was opening one in Moscow "is a great achievement and a step forward toward the improvement of relations between our countries."

Voters Attack Stanton Bonds In Court Fight

Twenty - seven voters of Stanton Local School District have filed suit in Common Pleas Court in Steubenville against the Stanton Board of Education and the Jefferson County Board of Elections, contesting the June 2 election which resulted in the passage of a $498,000 bond issue for building improvements.

The dissenters have asked that the election be declared void and that the school Board and Election Board be restrained from proceeding further with the bond issue and its related matters.

The petitioners claim that each voted against the issue, which appeared to have carried by a margin of 21 votes over the necessary 60 per cent affirmative poll needed for enactment.

They charge that the issue did not carry by a 60 per cent affirmative vote because persons unqualified to vote were permitted to vote and the illegal votes were counted for the issue.

David J. McDonald, head of the United Steelworkers, scheduled meetings today with his 33-man executive board and 171-member international wage policy committee. Both sessions were expected to be routine.

The industry position against granting any labor cost increases still stands. This was made clear in a statement by R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, and by Thomas Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp.

Patton said on a nationwide television broadcast Sunday night that his firm is unwilling to grant any labor cost increases without compensating price increases. Asked about record 1959 progit reports, Patton said the long-range expectation is what must be considered.

McDonald called Cooper's restatement of concern over inflation "a rehash of the same old mishmash." The union is insisting on sizable gains in wages and other worker benefits. Steelworkers now earn an average $3.10 an hour.

Pittsburgh Workers Hope Against Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh steelworkers are still hopeful that a threatened steel strike may be averted now that the present contract has been extended until July 14.

The contract was due to expire at midnight Tuesday, but president David J. McDonald of the United Steelworkers announced an extension of the pact Saturday.

Gene Lis, a maintenance worker in one of the Pittsburgh mills, said: "I hope they don't go out. We were sort of hoping for the extension. Now that they have two more weeks to talk, maybe there won't even be a strike."

Albert Eiter, another worker, had this to say:

"Nobody wants a strike. Most of the guys in the mill—most working men anywhere for that matter—can't afford to strike. All I hope is that this postponement will give them enough time to agree to a new contract."

Champ Denies That He'll Quit After 2 Fights

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson, the new heavyweight boxing champion of the world, denied a Swedish report today that he planned to retire after two more fights.

"I expect to keep fighting for the next 10 years," the 26-year-old Swede said shortly before departing by air for a Florida vacation.

In Goteborg, Dr. Gosta Karlsson, Johansson's personal physician and adviser, said upon arriving from New York that the champion would limit himself to two title defenses and then quit.

Johansson does not wish to risk serious ring injury, the doctor added.

But Johansson quickly spiked retirement talk.

"Why should I stop now that I am on top," he told The Associated Press. "That statement in Goteborg is all wrong. I'll keep fighting for the next 10 years at least."

"I cannot understand why that statement was made," the champion said, referring to Karlsson's comments.

Soviet Deputy Premier

Jet Brings Kozlov To U.S. For Start Of Exhibition

NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov arrived Sunday to preside at the opening of the Soviet cultural and scientific exhibition.

President Eisenhower will fly here today to pay a short visit to the exhibition and presumably will meet Kozlov briefly. Vice President Richard M. Nixon is already here to take part in the opening ceremonies at the New York Coliseum.

The show opens to the public Tuesday.

The affable, gray-haired Kozlov—called the No. 3 man in the Kremlin—will go to Washington Tuesday to talk with Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Kozlov arrived in the world's biggest airliner, a Soviet propjet TU114, which set a record for flying time between New York and Moscow.

It was the first nonstop flight between the two cities. The flying time was 11 hours and 6 minutes for the 5,092-mile trip. That's an average speed of 460 miles an hour.

Kozlov is a square-faced man of 50, with a ready smile and a loud voice. He smiled often and made several jokes after his arrival.

During a three-hour boat ride around Manhattan, the view of the skyline prompted him to say "those who created this city certainly chose a very good site."

Kozlov's two-week stay in the United States is expected to include visits to San Francisco, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

Kozlov was noncommital in his comments. He said that the fact that the Soviet Union was opening an exhibition here and the United States was opening one in Moscow "is a great achievement and a step forward toward the improvement of relations between our countries."

Appeal Backfires

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Guillermo Osorio Sosa, sentenced to four years in prison for unpremeditated murder, appealed his case. A higher court decided Sunday that Osorio's crime was premeditated and boosted his sentence to 20 years.

Voters Attack Stanton Bonds In Court Fight

Twenty - seven voters of Stanton Local School District have filed suit in Common Pleas Court in Steubenville against the Stanton Board of Education and the Jefferson County Board of Elections, contesting the June 2 election which resulted in the passage of a $498,000 bond issue for building improvements.

The dissenters have asked that the election be declared void and that the school Board and Election Board be restrained from proceeding further with the bond issue and its related matters.

The petitioners claim that each voted against the issue, which appeared to have carried by a margin of 21 votes over the necessary 60 per cent affirmative poll needed for enactment.

They charge that the issue did not carry by a 60 per cent affirmative vote because persons unqualified to vote were permitted to vote and the illegal votes were counted for the issue.

Notice Local 9. No meeting Fri. July 3, due to holiday. By order of Pres. Ad.

Committee Reports To President

3 Immediate Steps Urged To Help Control Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Cabinet committee has reported to President Eisenhower that Congress must take three immediate steps to control inflation.

The committee, headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon and made up mostly of Cabinet members, said in its first report that the country's economy is at a critical juncture." Congress, it said, must take these minimum actions promptly:

1. "Make it clear that the federal government intends to use all appropriate means to protect the buying power of the dollar," and recognize "reasonable price stability as an explicit goal of federal economic policy."

2. Balance the budget by refraining from going beyond the expenditures provided in the President's budget, both this year and in years to come; and reduce the national debt.

3. Remove the interest ceiling on government bonds. Otherwise the Treasury will have to issue short-term bonds "equivalent to money." There is very little difference between this and "just cranking up the printing presses and rolling out greenbacks," the report said.

Signers of the interim report, in addition to Nixon, were Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson; Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield; Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson; Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss; Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers; and W. Allen Wallis, special assistant to the President.

Cited East End Driver Given Fine, Jail Term

An East End motorist drew the standard penalty today in Municipal Court after pleading guilty to a drunk driving charge.

Charles F. Bulla, 55, of 1235 Pennsylvania Ave. was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail by Judge George L. Brokaw, who also suspended his operator's permit for six months. Bulla was arrested at 2:50 a. m. Sunday at Ohio and Akron Aves., police said.

Dorothy M. Hoskins of Alliance was fined $5 and costs by Judge Brokaw on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at Dresden Ave. and Webber Way Sunday afternoon.

Chester A. Thornton Jr. of Cleveland forfeited $16 on a charge of speeding early Sunday on W. 8th St.

water with a big boom, and after that you could hear children screaming and yelling," David Parker, one of the injured, said. "It was awful after it happened not to be able to save the children, but there was just nothing to do."

The scene of the explosion is five miles or more from a paved highway, and about two miles from Meldrim. The area is reached by a bumpy, dusty one-lane road which is little more than a logging trail.

The freight was en route from Montgomery, Ala., to Savannah.

Witnesses said several cars started tumbling off the trestle and gas began shooting out of a tank car. Butane is transported under pressure as a liquid, but becomes a vapor when exposed to the atmosphere.

Survivors said the gas spread like a ground fog over the river, then flashed into flame with a tremendous explosion. This ignited a second car loaded with 10,000 gallons of butane. The impact of the double explosion wrecked several cars on the banks.

Within seconds the area became a screaming mass of humanity. Sobbing fathers searched for their families. Injured persons yelled with pain as they struggled to escape the fire in woods along the bank.

George Hodges Jr., 21, of near Meldrim said "the train made a funny bump, bump sound when it came across the trestle and I stopped swimming and looked at it. Then some of the cars fell into the water and we began to get scared.

"When I saw the gas coming out of a tank car I grabbed my wife and ran. We heard the explosion, but we didn't look back until we got safely back in the woods.

"When we looked back we saw a great sheet of fire sweeping over the water and into the woods. It burned everything it touched. When it first went off it sounded just like a bomb. We went back and tried to help some of the people who weren't killed. They were all burned, charred black. It was horrible."

Curious spectators jammed U. S. 80 which led to the disaster scene. Ambulances were unable to plow through the traffic jam. Helicopters from surrounding air bases were pressed into service, carrying the injured to Savannah.

Railroad officials said their preliminary investigation indicated that none of the cars jumped the track until after the explosions.

The Savannah Morning News said a journal on a car near the end of the train apparently broke, sending several box cars and a butane tanker off the trestle.

Sheriff Bill Harris backed up this theory. He said the explosion may have been caused by a hot box which ignited the butane.

Harris said complete identification of the dead could not be expected before Tuesday.

The force of the blasts and fire destroyed a house a city block away and left the area around the trestle a mass of gray ashes.

The recreation area, used principally by persons living in the Meldrim area, was filled nearly to capacity Sunday as the fun-seekers tried to find ways to beat the 96-degree heat.

Cited Motorist Waits Hearing

A city motorist is due for a hearing Tuesday morning in Municipal Court for leaving the scene of an accident, one of three mishaps reported by police over the weekend.

Charles D. Morrill, 65, of Shadyside Ave. pleaded not guilty to the charge today when arraigned before Judge George L. Brokaw.

According to police, Morrill was headed north at Market and 5th Sts. Saturday at 10:40 p. m. when he struck a station wagon operated by Alfred Siravo, 43, of Baltimore.

Siravo told police Morrill continued north until he managed to stop him a block away at 6th and Market Sts.

A crash at 11:01 a. m. Sunday on Virginia Ave. near Pennsylvania Ave. involved an eastbound sedan driven by Robert Lee Smith Jr., 18, of 806 Dewey Ave. and a parked 1959 sedan owned by William C. Burson, 1536 Globe St., police said.

The third mishap occurred at 11 p. m. Saturday on Pennsylvania Ave. near Mulberry St. It involved a stopped car operated by Jay C. Mason Jr., 27, of 1073 Mapletree St. and an eastbound car driven by David McFaul, 17, of 422 Grove Alley.

Clogged Main Cuts Lisbon's Water Supply

LISBON — Following two water main breaks and a blockage of a main supply line near the pumping station Sunday, emergency water restrictions were in effect throughout the village today as crews worked to clear the clogged line.

Car-washing, lawn - watering and water pumping at the Van-Fossan Swimming Pool have been suspended until full water service can be restored, probably about Tuesday or Wednesday, a spokesman for the Board of Public Affairs said this morning.

The reservoir, south of town, which normally has over 10 feet of water in supply, drained down to 18 inches after a large loss of water in breaks at the Hood Chemical Co. Friday and the Fairgrounds Thursday night.

The reservoir is being filled again from Wells north of the village and now has about nine feet of water, but the supply to the reservoir is restricted partially by the clog in one of the well mains.

The Civil Defense tank trucks are standing by to aid in event of fire.

Conservation measures will be in effect until the full water supply from the wells is restored, a spokesman stated.

Everything Was Slung By Traditional Hash

TUCSON, Arix. (AP) — Tucson police were called to investigate a fight at a restaurant.

They said a young girl told them her boyfriend had dumped a plateful of spaghetti on her head.

The boyfriend admitted it, but claimed self defense. He said the girl first hit him in the face with a large pizza.

for breakfast. The boat shoved off at 8. Shortly before noon, Dr. Paul Craig of Ohio State University spoke on "Resources of the Ohio Valley" and Lt. Col. Harold Beaty of the Huntington District Corps of Engineers described the flood control and navigation work in the Ohio.

In mid-afternoon, the guests were to inspect the new Olin Mathieson and Ormet plants at Omal.

The group is scheduled to arrive at Wilson Lodge at 6 tonight. After a banquet there, Dr. Patrick Gainer, a member of the faculty at West Virginia University, will speak on West Virginia mountain lore. Ralph Betts of Barnesville, UOVDC president, also will speak.

The group is scheduled to arrive at the Ft. Steuben about 10 tonight. In the tour tomorrow, Dr. Craig will speak again and Col. W. W. Smith of the Pittsburgh Corps of Engineers will explain the new Stratton "super dam."

Beware Of The Easy Way Out

Every state with a claim on federal highway money is part of a steamroller lobby to roll money out of Congress. In some states, like Ohio, the steamroller is being pressured by special necessity, because huge state programs are geared to the expectation of getting federal funds in sufficient amounts to keep road-building in motion for years to come.

Congress, however, never is lucky enough to have to dodge only one steamroller at a time. Its pay-as-you-go policy for the federal highway program was undermined last year by pressure for a stepped-up spending rate to offset industrial unemployment. It is threatened this year by political reluctance to authorize a cent-and-a-half increase in federal gasoline taxes.

The federal tax boost is being opposed by everybody who doesn't want to pay more for gasoline — by consumers, by state officials who want gasoline taxes to be reserved to them and by pressure blocs opposed to still further taxation of automobiles. Congress, being composed of politicians, is in danger of taking the easy way out and going into debt for either the highway program, or for some other program that might lose its funds to the highway program in one of those fast shuffles politicians love to make.

Why would going into debt be the easy way out? The answer does no credit to popular intelligence, whether given in Washington, a state capital, or a local government.

It is the fact the American people have been conditioned by private and public practices to flee from reality by going into debt to conceal from themselves the harsh fact they are either unwilling or unable to pay for what they want. It is the financial equivalent of the form of insanity that causes the victim to flee from reality.

The cure would not be pleasant. Certainly it would not be politically popular, which accounts for the fact politicians never mention it.

Every citizen who squawks about paying taxes to cover the cost of what he demands from government would quit demanding so he could quit squawking.

There would be no more superhighways, no more public buildings, no more government capital spending of any kind until the money was in fund. Everything would be cash on the barrelhead. This could be done by declaring a national moratorium on going into public debt until every unit and level of government had accumulated enough surplus to act as its own banker. That might take upward of a decade.

During the decade any citizen who demanded anything from government he was not getting — if it entailed spending more money than was in fund — would be made to stand in a public place and say 1,000 times, "I tried to run away from reality, I tried to run away from reality, I tried to run away from reality."

VFW Does It Again

It again is a pleasure to extend congratulations to the drill team of VFW Post 66.

For the fifth time in a row the local squad has finished first in state competition. The achievement fits in well with all the other honors, including national recognition, which have been received in recent years.

The victories may be getting somewhat monotonous to the opposition, but so far as East Liverpool itself is concerned, the more the merrier.

Until someone better comes along, keep bringing home the trophies, fellows!

'There Ought To Be A Law'

The proposal before the Ohio Legislature to tighten control of political campaign spending contains one particularly sharp tooth. This is unusual in a situation usually dealt with as toothlessly as possible by legislators who do depend, after all, on campaign spending for their own survival.

The tooth is a requirement that all campaign contributions and expenditures, including those of the candidate, must be made only through a duly-appointed campaign manager. The manager thereupon becomes the official source of information about all money spent.

Moreover, if anyone spends money in a candidate's behalf — in an amount and in a way requiring a report — and fails to report it, that person is in line for a fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,000.

This is a sharp tooth.

YEARS OF DISCUSSION of the problem of controlling campaign spending and many earnest experiments in controlling it have shown that candidates and the people who work for candidates are as hard to keep track of as a flock of baby quail in a pile of leaves. They scuttle and scurry. They appear and disappear. They find more ways to unshackle themselves than Houdini dreamed of.

The instant a legal limit is set on expenditures, they turn all the resources of their fertile minds and searing ambitions to getting around it. Consequently, laws to control campaign spending have turned out to be jokes. The only people who pay attention in them are greenhorns who haven't learned the ropes.

But there is one thing these people fear —the disclosure of gross sums. Publicity can hit them where it hurts. But there can be no publicity about their total spending unless someone strikes a total and reveals it to the press. The Ohio proposal would make this information available. It never has been available before.

As to the idea that actual money, limits can be set which would be realistic, there is room for genuine doubt. The trouble with such laws always has been that they were written in generalities but had to be applied to specific contests. Two candidates for identical offices may be confronted with entirely different problems. One might get by on a few dollars, while the other might need several thousand dollars.

THE NECESSITY of keeping candidates and their friends from buying their way into power came to attention first in the era of big business domination of politics, particularly in regard to Senate elections.

Today, the weight of the problem has shifted from big business to big unions, which have access to large sums of money that can be used for political purposes on the decision of a few men.

Every fresh instance of election - buying stirs the cry. "There ought to be a law." There have been many laws. They haven't had sharp teeth. But a law - making all important campaign spending the responsibility of one person, with stiff penalties for funny business, would have sharp enough teeth to fight money - bagging political campaigners where it would hurt.

They couldn't stand the pain of publicity.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Preceding the razing of one of the most famous "saloons" in America, the customers threw a dinner for Toots Shor, colorful, rollicking "Man Farthest North From the Shrinking Violet" the other night. It was one banquet for which all hands had to train hard, with much roadwork and intensive practice. Now, many days later, the communique reads, "Some of our fliers are still missing."

Toots Shor owes success to the fact he is essentially a showman. He applied "The show must go on" to the bar and restaurant business. His slogan has been "All the world's a clambake and all the people merely guests."

A down-to-earth character devoid of chestiness and a top performer in a sort of conviviality "spectacular," he benefited from the sports page and the amusement world publicity. He seemed to be a one-man welcoming committee who, under a medical exam, would prove to be quintuplets in a two-piece suit.

Contributing vastly to his fame and fortune was the plain fact he brought back to the saloon trade something that had largely disappeared in the last quarter-century, the beaming, merry-looking proprietor who went all out to make the customers feel they were really wanted around the joint.

The drama topping much of what can be found in books and movies is found in the case of Joe Crowley, one of Yale football "greats," freed, after a year's trial in Tokyo, on charges he killed his brother-in-law, son of the famous "Tad" Jones. The case has everything — the crowded Yale Bowl, the cheers of the fans, the epic football battles, the chance meeting of a star player with the daughter of the coach, the love story, its romantic course, the marriage as a social event of the day, the rise of Crowley to a partnership in the Jones Oil Co.; and ultimate stark tragedy in the Orient. The death of Tad Jones, Jr., occurred after a hectic night of merrymaking on a business trip to Tokyo. The feeling is that no American court would have held Crowley more than few days or weeks but Japanese held him for more than a year. Crowley was on Yale teams from 1930 through 1932 with such men as Albie Booth, Bob Lassiter, Hester Barres, Kempton Dunn, Hoot Ellis and R. B. Parker.

Economical Purpose, Political Value

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The President's Cabinet committee on price stability for economic growth may serve an economic purpose. It also has a very useful political value for the Republican party.

This group, appointed by President Eisenhower last Jan. 31, produced a report Sunday after months of meditation. It cautioned against the dangers of inflation and made some recommendations for fighting it.

What it proposed was what Eisenhower himself already had proposed to Congress earlier in the year.

This was hardly unusual. The President's committee, made up of his own hand-picked, right-hand men, would hardly have made recommendations contrary to his own.

The group, headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon, is composed of members of his Cabinet, plus his top economic adviser Raymond J. Saulnier, plus one outside economist, W. Allen Wallis.

Wallis himself described the report as "no bombshell." He is dean of the Business School of the University of Chicago and is the Cabinet committee's executive director.

It is questionable whether any proposals by this group could be considered as objective and non-political as recommendations by a committee of outside economists.

Eisenhower, ever since the 1958 election campaign in which the Democrats in Congress won one of their biggest victories, has hammered away at the dangers of inflation and big spending that would unbalance the budget.

He resumed the theme the day after the elections and has pursued it steadily. At the beginning of this Congress the Democrats sounded as if they contemplated much bigger programs than Eisenhower had in mind.

Either they came around to his thinking or his anti-inflation crusade made the congressional Democrats more self-conscious. Whatever the reason, they have been trimming their programs more or less to meet his desires.

As Eisenhower pointed out in a foreword to the committee's report, what it recommends is what he has already suggested. Nevertheless, the report serves a purpose.

By echoing Eisenhower, it provides just that much more publicity for his ideas; it gives him the benefit of the Cabinet's public approval, although he hardly needed that; and it is added pressure on the Democrats to follow Eisenhower.

If inflation gets out of hand, the repeated Republican warnings against it will give them a political issue in the presidential elections of 1960. The Democrats, of course, will have something to say about Republican anti-inflation practices as opposed to theory.

By that time the voter—caught up in the economic arguments of both sides—should be completely confused.

Briefly, the presidential committee called for balancing the budget, removing the interest ceiling on government bonds, and making price stability "an explicit goal of federal economic policy."

The committee so closely followed the presidential line that it lifted the quoted phrase in the preceding paragraph right out of the President's economic report to Congress last January.

Like the President, the Cabinet is against price controls as such, pointing out that in time this would lead to wage controls, too.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the report is not what it said but what it promised the committee would look into in later reports.

For instance, it will explore proposals to use the federal government's antitrust powers against monopolies in both labor and management, as well as the breaking down of wage bargaining into smaller units.

The committee mentioned other ideas it will examine, too, some of which may make campaign issues in the 1960 elections when, or so it seems now, Nixon will be a sturdy contender.

Prince Phillip

By Truman Twill

My thoughts these days turn often to Prince Philip, who is tagging along with his missus on a duty tour of the northern part of North America.

When Philip got into this interesting line of work, he knew he was going to get around. But he would have had to have been hopped up high to realize how much he was going to get around.

The poor guy is like the school kid who wrote on the bottom of a report he had been assigned to make on hippopotamuses: "This is a great deal more about hippopotamuses than I cared to know."

It is nothing new, however, for my thoughts to turn to Prince Philip. I began to brood about him when Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary, eldest daughter of King George VI and a lady who had been tapped for destiny, said yes to his proposal of marriage away back in the '40s before she became Elizabeth II, by the Grace of God, Queen of this realm and her other realms and territories, Head of the Commonwealth and Defender of the Faith.

I figured then that here was a young fellow getting into as nice a line of work as I could imagine and that if the same kind of chance had come my way I could have fielded it flawlessly. Even when the prince turned up the other day reading the Scripture lesson for a church service during the Canadian tour I did not change my mind.

This is the kind of work I was cut out for — consorting.

I could inspect troops, stand in the background with head erect, make little jokes to show my human side and tell my missus what word she was groping for and couldn't remember while dedicating stuff.

I could be a royal confidante without throwing my weight or betraying confidences. I could pursue a genteel, respectable hobby, like polo — even polo, I suppose, once I had learned to ride the silly horse.

I could peer into excavations and be sympathetic to veterans, stride along discreetly a few steps to the rear of my spouse, baby-sit with the kids and keep a straight face through all the pomp and circumstance that keep the British from forgetting their hard-working royalty is worth every shilling it costs them in its stabilizing effect on their politics.

To be sure, I am not as handsome as Prince Philip. But very few prince-consorts are, and if I grew a beard like Queen Victoria's Albert no one would notice how unroyal and unprepossessing I looked.

It's what upstairs that counts in these situations, and I have had no doubt — ever — that my views on being a prince consort would blend harmoniously with the set-up.

This is pointed out in complete respect, moreover, because I believe that behind every queen there needs to be a man — preferably a spouse, because I have no confidence in the kind of advisers who hang around palaces.

It is, in my opinion, a job well worth doing and something a man could be proud of. True, it is non-competitive. The hours are irregular. It is possible a fellow would not feel he was being challenged to get ahead or get out.

But the work is respectable. It is important. It is one of the service trades, which grow in popularity all the time. There are enough fringe benefits to keep off the cold winds of insecurity and adversity. And a fellow gets to see the world.

My thoughts turn often to Prince Philip. I hope he knows when he is well off.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Second period of the Columbiana County Boy Scout Camp at Camp Eagleton on the Lisbon-Salem Rd. opened with an enrollment of 75 boys.

More than 130 were converted during a two-week revival at the Newell Church of the Nazarene.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Junior Chamber of Commerce prepared to launch its campaign to erect street markers here.

The Grant St. Civic Association dedicated its new playground with an ice cream festival and program.

Dr. E. W. Miskall of Jackson St. left for Harvard University to take post-graduate work.

TEN YEARS AGO — Dan McCue was named president of the East Liverpool Association of Life Underwriters, succeeding C. P. Deemer.

Mrs. John Rumberger of Wellsville was received as a new member of the East Liverpool Girl Scout Council.

In The Heavens

Scientists listening to the heavens with radio telescopes report the sun roars in bursts, while the moon rustles softly.

The Milky Way—the galaxy to which the sun and its planets belong — hisses steadily. All the sounds resemble the rushing "hash" that irritates radio listeners sometimes, but to scientists it is the music of the spheres.

The sounds from space have given astronomers a wholly new tool for learning about the cosmos. No one knew the noise existed until 1931 when a telephone engineer made the startling discovery that some radio static originated in the Milky Way, about 26,000 light-years from the earth.

A wave of discovery followed. Astronomers found that Mars, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn also send out radio waves. And there are sources of radio waves that are invisible with optical telescopes. Some 2,000 such "stars" have been located. Their nature is unknown.

A powerful transmitter is the Crab Nebula, a star that exploded violently 900 years ago and is now a rapidly expanding blob of gas. Even more spectacular is Cygnus A, the scene of a stupendous collision of galaxies, each a mighty system of stars and gas. The stars are bypassing each other with minor disturbances, but the gases are meeting violently and producing radio waves.

Summit Substitute

By David Lawrence

Special Ambassadors Could Hold Talks

There's a way out of the dilemma that has arisen over the holding of a summit conference between the East and West. It's by appointing a special ambassador to represent the President of the United States. He could sit indefinitely either with the Soviet foreign minister or any special ambassador that Nikita Khrushchev might appoint.

David Lawrence

The conference could take up all subjects where the foreign ministers recently left off. The sessions could go on for weeks or months if necessary. If talk can solve anything, this would afford every opportunity for exhaustive discussions.

Whenever the new conference reached agreement on any substantial points this could be immediately referred to the heads of state for final approval.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower himself just a few days ago paved the way for such a conference when he said:

"There is developing in the world sort of an idea that heads of government can take themselves away from their normal posts and go and do a lot of things that cannot be otherwise accomplished.

"Now, the foreign ministers of free countries are people who go to conferences clothed with a very great deal of authority. The governments involved normally try to establish limits within which their foreign minister can negotiate. He communicates with his own government every night. There are exchanges of telegrams and cables to keep him informed and to keep the government informed so that from the standpoint of traditional diplomacy the foreign minister or his ambassadors or the government's ambassadors provide the mechanism through which these agreements are supposed to be obtained.

"Now, everybody knows that, when you are dealing in a dictatorship, there is only one man, finally, that can make the decision, a firm decision, a final decision. Therefore, there has grown up what I believe to be a false doctrine that we should revamp our entire diplomatic procedures in order to go to a summit meeting every 30 days or so.

"Now, from my viewpoint, the dictator can give his foreign minister just as much flexibility in dealing with these troublesome and tough questions as can a democracy. Therefore, I think, to assume that foreign ministers have now become useless, that they are no good and to throw them away and make every single head of government or head of state spend his time in work that has been the function of specialists in this line is a step backward in diplomacy. This is like Alexander and Napoleon meeting on a raft in a river and settling the fate of the then world.

"You can't do that. And, to my mind, if these foreign ministers' meetings cannot prepare the ground and at least sow some of the seed for accord, then I see no use whatsoever for trying to have a harvest when there is no planting and no tilling.'

THIS IS SOUND doctrine. It is an effective approach to the problem of negotiation. For the business of big governments should not be disrupted while the heads of the departments of foreign affairs spend all their time in Geneva or some other remote place as matters in their respective fields involving other governments and equally important subjects are neglected.

The United States government already has tried out the special ambassador technique. At Geneva, for instance, right now James J. Wadsworth is serving effectively as special ambassador at the conference which is negotiating on the complex problem of suspending nuclear tests.

Mr. Wadsworth has been at it steadily for more than six months. He is well informed because he concentrates every day on a single subject. He has become a specialist in his field and is relied on by the secretary of state for guidance and advice step by step in carrying on the difficult and delicate negotiations.

A specialist on the problem of West Berlin could be appointed ambassador and when the conference with the representatives of the Soviet government as well as the British and French governments reached a definitive stage, the foreign ministers could come to the meeting. If sufficient progress has been made, even a summit meeting could then be held.

IT WOULD BE a waste of time for President Eisenhower to go to a summit meeting unless adequate preparation is made. British officials privately agree with that position, though for internal political reasons they keep agitating publicly for an immediate summit meeting even without any preliminary progress.

The sooner special ambassadors are appointed, the more quickly will the world learn whether there is a sincere desire at Moscow to reach agreement or merely to use the summit idea for propaganda purposes.

Monuments Everywhere

By Raymond Moley

The District of Columbia is the American, equivalent of the Roman Pantheon, wherein were reminders of all the gods worshipped in the provinces of the empire. Our gods and demigods of politics are commemorated on every side in and near our national capital. Monuments everywhere — to the great, to the near-great and to those who have friends or organizations with money to spend on marble and granite in human form, on wind-swept pavilions and towering piles to which thousands of pilgrims repair annually.

THERE ARE also much more expensive monuments, to the dusky goddess Lobby. Capacious office buildings mark the importance of organizations which hold that propinquity breeds power: Jimmy Hoffa's teamsters, John L. Lewis' miners, the AFL-CIO, the National Education Association, and the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association in its new million-dollar building.

These remind the duly elected representatives of the Republic that they need not think much, nor ponder the bills before them. All they need is to know where to turn. To note an immortal saying in Washington: "It isn't what you know, it's who you know."

Some priests of the goddess Lobby, however, lift their sights above dead reminders in marble, granite, steel, and concrete. They crave living monuments.

One such is Clyde T. Ellis, boss of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. His power is already so great that Congress refuses to stop the practice of lending money at 2 per cent to co-operatives — money for which the government must pay more than 4 per cent.

The dream of an Ellis monument was published recently in an organization for which he is a major spokesman. It is the Potomac River Development Association, housed for a time, appropriately enough, in the Perpetual Building.

This organization has the usual complement of chairman, vice chairman, secretary and public relations experts.

The old leisurely Potomac would be harnessed and turned to domestic rather than aesthetic enjoyment. Its water is to be cleansed for such inhabitants of the District as are still interested in water. Hydroelectric power is to be generated to light the darkness and turn the appliances of bureaucratic residency.

To quote the poetic brochure: "We want widespread recreation facilities extending from the Washington area to the headwaters, including safe swimming, canoeing, boating, fishing, water fowl hunting, camping, picnicking, hiking, nature study, etc.

"We encourage and will support the development of park facilities and re-establishment of historic landmarks, as an integral part of the necessary comprehensive development."

THERE MIGHT BE some advantages in bringing together a TVA and its parent Congress.

Members of Congress whose capacity to rule anything has been thrown into doubt by the bungling government of the District of Columbia, might inspect a federal TVA without expenditures on traveling.

But above all, they might, by approving the creation of this Potomac "Paradise," be paying tribute at a cost of a few billions to the imagination and genius of a man who has been able to get a great nation to lend money at 2 per cent which cost twice as much.

Toots Shor owes success to the fact he is essentially a showman. He applied "The show must go on" to the bar and restaurant business. His slogan has been "All the world's a clambake and all the people merely guests."

A down-to-earth character devoid of chestiness and a top performer in a sort of conviviality "spectacular," he benefited from the sports page and the amusement world publicity. He seemed to be a one-man welcoming committee who, under a medical exam, would prove to be quintuplets in a two-piece suit.

Contributing vastly to his fame and fortune was the plain fact he brought back to the saloon trade something that had largely disappeared in the last quarter-century, the beaming, merry-looking proprietor who went all out to make the customers feel they were really wanted around the joint.

The drama topping much of what can be found in books and movies is found in the case of Joe Crowley, one of Yale football "greats," freed, after a year's trial in Tokyo, on charges he killed his brother-in-law, son of the famous "Tad" Jones. The case has everything — the crowded Yale Bowl, the cheers of the fans, the epic football battles, the chance meeting of a star player with the daughter of the coach, the love story, its romantic course, the marriage as a social event of the day, the rise of Crowley to a partnership in the Jones Oil Co.; and ultimate stark tragedy in the Orient. The death of Tad Jones, Jr., occurred after a hectic night of merrymaking on a business trip to Tokyo. The feeling is that no American court would have held Crowley more than few days or weeks but Japanese held him for more than a year. Crowley was on Yale teams from 1930 through 1932 with such men as Albie Booth, Bob Lassiter, Hester Barres, Kempton Dunn, Hoot Ellis and R. B. Parker.

Economical Purpose, Political Value

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The President's Cabinet committee on price stability for economic growth may serve an economic purpose. It also has a very useful political value for the Republican party.

This group, appointed by President Eisenhower last Jan. 31, produced a report Sunday after months of meditation. It cautioned against the dangers of inflation and made some recommendations for fighting it.

What it proposed was what Eisenhower himself already had proposed to Congress earlier in the year.

This was hardly unusual. The President's committee, made up of his own hand-picked, right-hand men, would hardly have made recommendations contrary to his own.

The group, headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon, is composed of members of his Cabinet, plus his top economic adviser Raymond J. Saulnier, plus one outside economist, W. Allen Wallis.

Wallis himself described the report as "no bombshell." He is dean of the Business School of the University of Chicago and is the Cabinet committee's executive director.

It is questionable whether any proposals by this group could be considered as objective and nonpolitical as recommendations by a committee of outside economists.

Eisenhower, ever since the 1958 election campaign in which the Democrats in Congress won one of their biggest victories, has hammered away at the dangers of inflation and big spending that would unbalance the budget.

He resumed the theme the day after the elections and has purused it steadily. At the beginning of this Congress the Democrats sounded as if they contemplated much bigger programs than Eisenhower had in mind.

Either they came around to his thinking or his anti-inflation crusade made the congressional Democrats more self-conscious. Whatever the reason, they have been trimming their programs more or less to meet his desires.

As Eisenhower pointed out in a foreword to the committee's report, what it recommends is what he has already suggested. Nevertheless, the report serves a purpose.

By echoing Eisenhower, it provides just that much more publicity for his ideas; it gives him the benefit of the Cabinet's public approval, although he hardly needed that; and it is added pressure on the Democrats to follow Eisenhower.

If inflation gets out of hand, the repeated Republican warnings against it will give them a political issue in the presidential elections of 1960. The Democrats, of course, will have something to say about Republican anti-inflation practices as opposed to theory.

By that time the voter—caught up in the economic arguments of both sides—should be completely confused.

Briefly, the presidential committee called for balancing the budget, removing the interest ceiling on government bonds, and making price stability "an explicit goal of federal economic policy."

The committee so closely followed the presidential line that it lifted the quoted phrase in the preceding paragraph right out of the President's economic report to Congress last January.

Like the President, the Cabinet is against price controls as such, pointing out that in time this would lead to wage controls, too.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the report is not what it said but what it promised the committee would look into in later reports.

For instance, it will explore proposals to use the federal government's antitrust powers against monopolies in both labor and management, as well as the breaking down of wage bargaining into smaller units.

The committee mentioned other ideas it will examine, too, some of which may make campaign issues in the 1960 elections when, or so it seems now, Nixon will be a sturdy contender.

Prince Phillip

By Truman Twill

My thoughts these days turn often to Prince Philip, who is tagging along with his missus on a duty tour of the northern part of North America.

When Philip got into this interesting line of work, he knew he was going to get around. But he would have had to have been hopped up high to realize how much he was going to get around.

The poor guy is like the school kid who wrote on the bottom of a report he had been assigned to make on hippopotamuses: "This is a great deal more about hippopotamuses than I cared to know."

It is nothing new, however, for my thoughts to turn to Prince Philip. I began to brood about him when Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary, eldest daughter of King George VI and a lady who had been tapped for destiny, said yes to his proposal of marriage away back in the '40s before she became Elizabeth II, by the Grace of God, Queen of this realm and her other realms and territories, Head of the Commonwealth and Defender of the Faith.

I figured then that here was a young fellow getting into as nice a line of work as I could imagine and that if the same kind of chance had come my way I could have fielded it flawlessly. Even when the prince turned up the other day reading the Scripture lesson for a church service during the Canadian tour I did not change my mind.

This is the kind of work I was cut out for — consorting.

I could inspect troops, stand in the background with head erect, make little jokes to show my human side and tell my missus what word she was groping for and couldn't remember while dedicating stuff.

I could be a royal confidante without throwing my weight or betraying confidences. I could pursue a genteel, respectable hobby, like polo — even polo, I suppose, once I had learned to ride the silly horse.

I could peer into excavations and be sympathetic to veterans, stride along discreetly a few steps to the rear of my spouse, baby-sit with the kids and keep a straight face through all the pomp and circumstance that keep the British from forgetting their hard-working royalty is worth every shilling it costs them in its stabilizing effect on their politics.

To be sure, I am not as handsome as Prince Philip. But very few prince-consorts are, and if I grew a beard like Queen Victoria's Albert no one would notice how unroyal and unprepossessing I looked.

It's what upstairs that counts in these situations, and I have had no doubt — ever — that my views on being a prince consort would blend harmoniously with the setup.

This is pointed out in complete respect, moreover, because I believe that behind every queen there needs to be a man — preferably a spouse, because I have no confidence in the kind of advisers who hang around palaces.

It is, in my opinion, a job well worth doing and something a man could be proud of. True, it is noncompetitive. The hours are irregular. It is possible a fellow would not feel he was being challenged to get ahead or get out.

But the work is respectable. It is important. It is one of the service trades, which grow in popularity all the time. There are enough fringe benefits to keep off the cold winds of insecurity and adversity. And a fellow gets to see the world.

My thoughts turn often to Prince Philip. I hope he knows when he is well off.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Second period of the Columbiana County Boy Scout Camp at Camp Eagleton on the Lisbon-Salem Rd. opened with an enrollment of 75 boys.

More than 130 were converted during a two-week revival at the Newell Church of the Nazarene.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Junior Chamber of Commerce prepared to launch its campaign to erect street markers here.

The Grant St. Civic Association dedicated its new playground with an ice cream festival and program.

Dr. E. W. Miskall of Jackson St. left for Harvard University to take post-graduate work.

TEN YEARS AGO — Dan McCue was named president of the East Liverpool Association of Life Underwriters, succeeding C. P. Deemer.

Mrs. John Rumberger of Wellsville was received as a new member of the East Liverpool Girl Scout Council.

Rub petroleum jelly on hinges and the knob of a door before painting. Then, when finished, any stray paint on these parts can be easily removed.

In The Heavens

Scientists listening to the heavens with radio telescopes report the sun roars in bursts, while the moon rustles softly.

The Milky Way—the galaxy to which the sun and its planets belong — hisses steadily. All the sounds resemble the rushing "hash" that irritates radio listeners sometimes, but to scientists it is the music of the spheres.

The sounds from space have given astronomers a wholly new tool for learning about the cosmos. No one knew the noise existed until 1931 when a telephone engineer made the startling discovery that some radio static originated in the Milky Way, about 26,000 light-years from the earth.

A wave of discovery followed. Astronomers found that Mars, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn also send out radio waves. And there are sources of radio waves that are invisible with optical telescopes. Some 2,000 such "stars" have been located. Their nature is unknown.

A powerful transmitter is the Crab Nebula, a star that exploded violently 900 years ago and is now a rapidly expanding blob of gas. Even more spectacular is Cygnus A, the scene of a stupendous collision of galaxies, each a mighty system of stars and gas. The stars are bypassing each other with minor disturbances, but the gases are meeting violently and producing radio waves.

Summit Substitute

By David Lawrence

Special Ambassadors Could Hold Talks

There's a way out of the dilemma that has arisen over the holding of a summit conference between the East and West. It's by appointing a special ambassador to represent the President of the United States. He could sit indefinitely either with the Soviet foreign minister or any special ambassador that Nikita Khrushchev might appoint.

David Lawrence

The conference could take up all subjects where the foreign ministers recently left off. The sessions could go on for weeks or months if necessary. If talk can solve anything, this would afford every opportunity for exhaustive discussions.

Whenever the new conference reached agreement on any substantial points this could be immediately referred to the heads of state for final approval.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower himself just a few days ago paved the way for such a conference when he said:

"There is developing in the world sort of an idea that heads of government can take themselves away from their normal posts and go and do a lot of things that cannot be otherwise accomplished.

"Now, the foreign ministers of free countries are people who go to conferences clothed with a very great deal of authority. The governments involved normally try to establish limits within which their foreign minister can negotiate. He communicates with his own government every night. There are exchanges of telegrams and cables to keep him informed and to keep the government informed so that from the standpoint of traditional diplomacy the foreign minister or his ambassadors or the government's ambassadors provide the mechanism through which these agreements are supposed to be obtained.

"Now, everybody knows that, when you are dealing in a dictatorship, there is only one man, finally, that can make the decision, a firm decision, a final decision. Therefore, there has grown up what I believe to be a false doctrine that we should revamp our entire diplomatic procedures in order to go to a summit meeting every 30 days or so.

"Now, from my viewpoint, the dictator can give his foreign minister just as much flexibility in dealing with these troublesome and tough questions as can a democracy. Therefore, I think, to assume that foreign ministers have now become useless, that they are no good and to throw them away and make every single head of government or head of state spend his time in work that has been the function of specialists in this line is a step backward in diplomacy. This is like Alexander and Napoleon meeting on a raft in a river and settling the fate of the then world.

"You can't do that. And, to my mind, if these foreign ministers' meetings cannot prepare the ground and at least sow some of the seed for accord, then I see no use whatsoever for trying to have a harvest when there is no planting and no tilling.'

THIS IS SOUND doctrine. It is an effective approach to the problem of negotiation. For the business of big governments should not be disrupted while the heads of the departments of foreign affairs spend all their time in Geneva or some other remote place as matters in their respective fields involving other governments and equally important subjects are neglected.

The United States government already has tried out the special ambassador technique. At Geneva, for instance, right now James J. Wadsworth is serving effectively as special ambassador at the conference which is negotiating on the complex problem of suspending nuclear tests.

Mr. Wadsworth has been at it steadily for more than six months. He is well informed because he concentrates every day on a single subject. He has become a specialist in his field and is relied on by the secretary of state for guidance and advice step by step in carrying on the difficult and delicate negotiations.

A specialist on the problem of West Berlin could be appointed ambassador and when the conference with the representatives of the Soviet government as well as the British and French governments reached a definitive stage, the foreign ministers could come to the meeting. If sufficient progress has been made, even a summit meeting could then be held.

IT WOULD BE a waste of time for President Eisenhower to go to a summit meeting unless adequate preparation is made. British officials privately agree with that position, though for internal political reasons they keep agitating publicly for an immediate summit meeting even without any preliminary progress.

The sooner special ambassadors are appointed, the more quickly will the world learn whether there is a sincere desire at Moscow to reach agreement or merely to use the summit idea for propaganda purposes.

Monuments Everywhere

By Raymond Moley

The District of Columbia is the American equivalent of the Roman Pantheon, wherein were reminders of all the gods worshipped in the provinces of the empire. Our gods and demigods of politics are commemorated on every side in and near our national capital. Monuments everywhere — to the great, to the near-great and to those who have friends or organizations with money to spend on marble and granite in human form, on wind-swept pavilions and towering piles to which thousands of pilgrims repair annually.

THERE ARE also much more expensive monuments, to the dusky goddess Lobby. Capacious office buildings mark the importance of organizations which hold that propinquity breeds power: Jimmy Hoffa's teamsters, John L. Lewis' miners, the AFL-CIO, the National Education Association, and the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association in its new million-dollar building.

These remind the duly elected representatives of the Republic that they need not think much, nor ponder the bills before them. All they need is to know where to turn. To note an immortal saying in Washington: "It isn't what you know, it's who you know."

Some priests of the goddess Lobby, however, lift their sights above dead reminders in marble, granite, steel, and concrete. They crave living monuments.

One such is Clyde T. Ellis, boss of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. His power is already so great that Congress refuses to stop the practice of lending money at 2 per cent to co-operatives — money for which the government must pay more than 4 per cent.

The dream of an Ellis monument was published recently in an organization for which he is a major spokesman. It is the Potomac River Development Association, housed for a time, appropriately enough, in the Perpetual Building.

This organization has the usual complement of chairman, vice chairman, secretary and public relations experts.

The old leisurely Potomac would be harnessed and turned to domestic rather than aesthetic enjoyment. Its water is to be cleansed for such inhabitants of the District as are still interested in water. Hydroelectric power is to be generated to light the darkness and turn the appliances of bureaucratic resident.

To quote the poetic brochure: "We want widespread recreation facilities extending from the Washington area to the headwaters, including safe swimming, canoeing, boating, fishing, water fowl hunting, camping, picnicking, hiking, nature study, etc.

"We encourage and will support the development of park facilities and re-establishment of historic landmarks, as an integral part of the necessary comprehensive development."

THERE MIGHT BE some advantages in bringing together a TVA and its parent Congress.

Members of Congress whose capacity to rule anything has been thrown into doubt by the bungling government of the District of Columbia, might inspect a federal TVA without expenditures on traveling.

But above all, they might, by approving the creation of this Potomac "Paradise," be paying tribute at a cost of a few billions to the imagination and genius of a man who has been able to get a great nation to lend money at 2 per cent which cost twice as much.

Hawaiian Vote Seen Victory By Democrats

HONOLULU (AP) — Democrats jubilantly claimed today their heavy vote in Hawaii's primary means victory for them in the islands' first state elections next month.

They contended that the big Democratic vote was the forerunner of a sweep that would send three of their fold to Congress and elect a Democratic governor and Legislature.

Republicans were quick to answer that GOP candidates ran unopposed in the nominating primary Saturday while Democrats engaged in vote-drawing contests. They said the Democratic outpouring was expected.

Some GOP leaders nevertheless conceded that the party would be the underdog in the Aloha State's first election July 28.

Both parties turned to campaigning in the wake of the primary and a simultaneous statehood plebiscite in which Hawaiians voted approval of statehood by a whopping 17 to 1 margin.

The 132,938 yes votes so dwarfed the 7,854 votes against statehood that it exceeded even the most optimistic predictions.

The primary voting produced three candidates of Japanese or Chinese ancestry out of the six nominated for Hawaii's two Senate seats and one in the House of Representatives. At least one of the trio appears certain to go to Congress.

Wellsville Man Fined For Refuse Dumping

A Wellsville man was fined Saturday by Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville for dumping rubbish along a highway.

Walter W. Sloan, 1325½ Main St., pleaded guilty and was fined $25. He was cited Wednesday while dumping rubbish along the Old Irondale Rd. The charge was filed by Yellow Creek Constable Walter Johnson.

City authorities have been receiving complaints of Wellsville residents dumping their rubbish along the rural roads. Sloan is the first to have been cited formally.

Hawaiian Vote Seen Victory By Democrats

HONOLULU (AP) — Democrats jubilantly claimed today their heavy vote in Hawaii's primary means victory for them in the islands' first state elections next month.

They contended that the big Democratic vote was the forerunner of a sweep that would send three of their fold to Congress and elect a Democratic governor and Legislature.

Republicans were quick to answer that GOP candidates ran unopposed in the nominating primary Saturday while Democrats engaged in vote-drawing contests. They said the Democratic outpouring was expected.

Some GOP leaders nevertheless conceded that the party would be the underdog in the Aloha State's first election July 28.

Both parties turned to campaigning in the wake of the primary and a simultaneous statehood plebiscite in which Hawaiians voted approval of statehood by a whopping 17 to 1 margin.

The 132,938 yes votes so dwarfed the 7,854 votes against statehood that it exceeded even the most optimistic predictions.

The primary voting produced three candidates of Japanese or Chinese ancestry out of the six nominated for Hawaii's two Senate seats and one in the House of Representatives. At least one of the trio appears certain to go to Congress.

Wellsville Man Fined For Refuse Dumping

A Wellsville man was fined Saturday by Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville for dumping rubbish along a highway.

Walter W. Sloan, 1325½ Main St., pleaded guilty and was fined $25. He was cited Wednesday while dumping rubbish along the Old Irondale Rd. The charge was filed by Yellow Creek Constable Walter Johnson.

City authorities have been receiving complaints of Wellsville residents dumping their rubbish along the rural roads. Sloan is the first to have been cited formally.

Officers Nab Midland Boy For Car Theft

A series of coincidences landed a Midland youth in jail Sunday night for auto theft after he and his East Liverpool girl friend were apprehended by police while fleeing on foot from Potters Alley, where the wife of the auto owner spotted them in the stalled car.

The 15-year-old boy is to appear before Chris Pusey, county juvenile officer, Tuesday morning, but the girl was released after telling police the youth claimed the car belonged to a relative.

Ironically, Mrs. Ralph Lilburn was at the Bus Terminal about 8:30 last night, waiting to start a homeward bus trip after a weekend visit with her husband, when she spotted the pair in the stalled auto, in Potters Alley. Lilburn employed at Waterford Park, is staying in Chester.

Screaming "Stop! Get Out! That's our car!" Mrs. Lilburn approached the car and told the boy and girl to get out and said she planned to call police.

The young couple started to run, fleeing down Diamond and Peach Alleys to E. 6th St. and then west to Jackson and W. 7th St., where they were apprehended by Patrolman Jerry Adkins and Paul Carter.

The youth told police he hitchhiked to East Liverpool, arriving some 45 minutes early for his date, and started to walk around town.

He spotted the 1956 sedan with the keys in it on E. 5th St. near Crook Alley and decided to see if he could drive it. The youth told officers he drove around and then headed toward Ambrose Ave., parking near the intersection, and walked to his girl's home, where he went with the family on a picnic.

Returning to a relative's home in LaCroft last night, the boy told officers he hitch-hiked back to town, walked to the parking spot and then drove back to LaCroft and picked up the car.

He and his girl friend, stopped at her home for a few minutes and then drove downtown, headed south on Walnut St. His car stalled near the Bus Terminal, where Mrs. Lilburn spotted it.

2 Youngsters Treated For Accident Injuries

Two youths were treated for minor injuries over the weekend at Osteopathic Hospital.

An employe of Fitzpatrick Industries, he was married to Lela Flowers, who died in February. Services were held at the VanDyke Funeral Home. Burial was in Glenview Cemetery.

Man Fined And Jailed For Drunken Driving

A Toronto man was fined for drunken driving and two other motorists were fined for traffic violations filed by the State Patrol at hearings Saturday night before Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville.

Donald W. Radcliff of Toronto was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail. He was arrested Friday night on Main St., Wellsville, police said.

Clarence E. Beaver of East Liverpool R. D. 2 was fined $10 for parking on the highway. He was arrested June 20 on Route 30.

Paul D. Miller, also of East Liverpool R. D. 2, was fined $15 and costs for driving left of center.

New Assistant Named For Beaver Highways

BEAVER — Paul Hurni of Hopewell Township has been named acting assistant superintendent of the Beaver County division of the State Highway Department, George Werner, Beaver County Democratic chairman, said today.

Another acting superintendent is Ben Bartle of Franklin Township. Both fill vacant positions.

Werner said that by order of Park Martin, secretary of the State Highway Department, no rental equipment is being used in Beaver County. Equipment on hand is being repaired and readied for use and new state - owned equipment is being shipped in, Martin said.

Officers Nab Midland Boy For Car Theft

A series of coincidences landed a Midland youth in jail Sunday night for auto theft after he and his East Liverpool girl friend were apprehended by police while fleeing on foot from Potters Alley, where the wife of the auto owner spotted them in the stalled car.

The 15-year-old boy is to appear before Chris Pusey, county juvenile officer, Tuesday morning, but the girl was released after telling police the youth claimed the car belonged to a relative.

Ironically, Mrs. Ralph Lilburn was at the Bus Terminal about 8:30 last night, waiting to start a homeward bus trip after a weekend visit with her husband, when she spotted the pair in the stalled auto, in Potters Alley. Lilburn employed at Waterford Park, is staying in Chester.

Screaming "Stop! Get Out! That's our car!" Mrs. Lilburn approached the car and told the boy and girl to get out and said she planned to call police.

The young couple started to run, fleeing down Diamond and Peach Alleys to E. 6th St. and then west to Jackson and W. 7th St., where they were apprehended by Patrolman Jerry Adkins and Paul Carter.

The youth told police he hitchhiked to East Liverpool, arriving some 45 minutes early for his date, and started to walk around town.

He spotted the 1956 sedan with the keys in it on E. 5th St. near Crook Alley and decided to see if he could drive it. The youth told officers he drove around and then headed toward Ambrose Ave., parking near the intersection, and walked to his girl's home, where he went with the family on a picnic.

Returning to a relative's home in LaCroft last night, the boy told officers he hitch-hiked back to town, walked to the parking spot and then drove back to LaCroft and picked up the car.

He and his girl friend, stopped at her home for a few minutes and then drove downtown, headed south on Walnut St. His car stalled near the Bus Terminal, where Mrs. Lilburn spotted it.

2 Youngsters Treated For Accident Injuries

Two youths were treated for minor injuries over the weekend at Osteopathic Hospital.

Robert Kenneth Oliver, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kenneth Oliver of 1st St., Newell, was treated for a laceration of the right foot received on a bottle when playing in his bare feet.

Edward Griffin, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Griffin, 125 Market St., was treated for a laceration of the head received in a scuffle with another youth.

Experts' Advice Now Reversed

You read and hear a good deal about "the ruling class in America," the teenagers. Indeed parents have been told by some advisers that they have been scared of their adolescent children and have abdicated authority. Some experts urge that parents allow pre-teen children free rein. Now that these children are teenagers the same experts urge parents to exercise more control. Told that they should climb back on the throne of authority, parents are shamed as cowards when they allow their teenage children to shackle them with chains.

By Garry Meyers

In defense of these parents, consider the following points.

WHEN THE child, now in junior or senior high school, was in the nursery, parents believed and followed all the advice they had read and heard from the rank and file of parent counselors. This advice was interpreted to mean that restraint built all sorts of frustrations in the young child.

Indeed some parents supposed that if the child were subjected to home discipline, including some old-fashioned spanking, he might become a juvenile delinquent. The youngster was not even to hear the word No, nor be made to do anything he didn't feel like doing.

Now that this youngster is 12, 14 or 17, having practiced all these years in doing almost as he pleased, his parents are told to crack down on him and show him who is boss.

Most parents find this advice impossible. Having abdicated, how are they to climb back on the throne of authority?

Naturally, many parents are puzzled and feel helpless.

IN FAIRNESS to these parents, they deserve a word of apology from those who led them astray. These parents need to be shown workable ways to hold the few controls they still have.

Not expecting to accomplish much with force at this late date, these parents must rely on friendly persuasion to control the child.

Child experts ought to prevail on parents to begin in the child's early years to teach him the meaning of No. If parents are shown effective ways of doing so, we may hope for a new crop of teenagers — teenagers equipped with desirable self-control and practiced in good citizenship.

My bulletins, "How to Teach Child Meaning of No" and "How Juvenile Delinquency Can Be Curbed," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

They also contend that the proposals were illegally and improperly submitted and that the ballot did not properly appraise the voters of the issue and the purpose for which they voted, that is, specifically: building and equipping a school and inside toilets and improving another building in Hammondsvlle.

The group claims that the ballot failed to specify the amount of the bond issue to be used for improvement of the Hammondsville School or the amount to be used for building and equipping a new building.

Coupled on the ballot for the $498,000 bond issue were proposals for a new elementary school in the Empire area and a proposal for installation of inside toilet facilities in the Hammondsville school.

The issue passed by a vote of 702 to 432, although a recount of four precincts — Brush Creek, Irondale, Empire and Saline—resulted in a gain of one vote against the bond issue.

The recount was held June 16 by the Election Board after the board was petitioned for the action. John Boley of Toronto R. D. 2 was chairman of the petitioners asking for a recount.

Members of the Stanton Board of Education named defendants in the suit are Lawrence Rudder, McKinley Crook, Dr. W. S. Banfield, Stanley Baker and Kenneth Burgett.

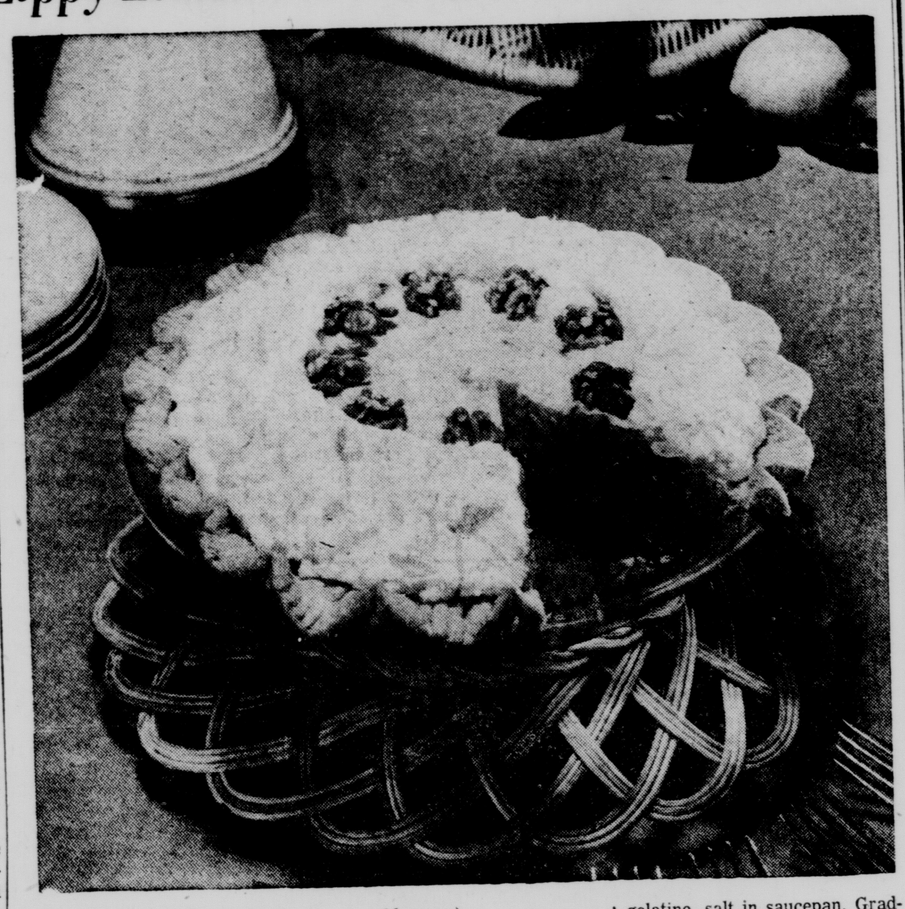
Members of the Election Board named defendants are Phoebe Welsh, Hugo Alexander, Robert J. Hocker and Samuel Gaylord.

The petition contesting the election was filed by Atty. Lee VanTilburg and George Mazaris in behalf of the following persons: Minnie Hooper, Edith Ketchum, James Hooper and Harry Springer, all of Hammondsville; Charles Cronin of Hammondsville R. D. 1, John Rodgers and Anna Wickham of Irondale; Elmer Mellet of Stratton.

Charles Taylor, John Boley, William Furbee, Rosie DeVaux, Juanita Grimm, James Wise, Patricia Grimm, Robert Patterson, Ruth Deruelle, Elsa Buchanan, Hazel Buchanan, Ronald Buchanan, Nedra Buchanan, Wesley Glenn, Evelyn Byers, Walter W. Byers, Virl Stevens, A. H. DeVaux and Charles Nixon, all of Toronto R. D. 2.

The bond issue, with a levy of 2.4 mills, was for a 23-year period. The new building was to be constructed in the Empire area and serve some 300 riverfront students. It was designed by Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect.

Zippy Lemon Pie Features Texture Contrast



Looking for a totally - different dessert? If you are, try "Mystery Lemon Pie."

Except for the name, there really isn't any mystery at all. The pie is a perfect combination of a creamy lemon meringue and a light lemon chiffon.

Mystery Lemon Pie

9-inch-baked-pie-shell
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 envelope unflavored gelatine (1 tablespoon)
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups water
¼ cup butter
2 tablespoons grated lemon juice
4 to 6 drops yellow food coloring, if desired
1 packet meringue mix

Make 9" baked pie shell as directed on pie crust mix package except before mixing, add grated peel of ½ lemon.

Combine sugar, cornstarch, gelatine, salt in saucepan. Gradually stir in water. Add butter. Bring to rolling boil, stirring constantly; boil one minute. Remove from heat, stir in lemon peel, juice, food coloring.

Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. Stir until smooth. Prepare pie meringue as directed on packet.

Fold gently into lemon filling. Pile filling into baked pie shell. Chill about three hours or until set.

Rice Stages Comeback, India Figures Disclose

NEW DELHI (AP) — The production of rice, a mainstay in the diet of many Indians, has bounced back from a poor year to set a record in the latest 12-month period.

The yield per acre rose about 7 per cent above the average for the last five years to 29,700,000 long tons. The previous high had been 28,300,000 tons in the 1956-57 crop year.

The record crop would provide enough rice for every Indian to eat 166 pounds a year, or less than half a pound a day.

They Prefer Filter Tips

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — A pair of cardinals came up with a new use for filter cigarettes. The two birds used the soft, cellulose fillings to build nests. University of Arizona ornithologists said the birds didn't touch butts of non-filter cigarettes in the area.

Michigan requires a special license for hunting with a slingshot.

Cotton-Pickin' Texan

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP)— The nation's first bale of cotton for 1959 brought Jack Armstrong of Mission, Tex., $2.75 a pound at auction Friday night. The $1,289 auction price was coupled with a $1,500 cash bonus from the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce.

The issue passed by a vote of 702 to 432, although a recount of four precincts — Brush Creek, Irondale, Empire and Saline—resulted in a gain of one vote against the bond issue.

The recount was held June 16 by the Election Board after the board was petitioned for the action. John Boley of Toronto R. D. 2 was chairman of the petitioners asking for a recount.

Members of the Stanton Board of Education named defendants in the suit are Lawrence Rudder, McKinley Crook, Dr. W. S. Banfield, Stanley Baker and Kenneth Burgett.

Members of the Election Board named defendants are Phoebe Welsh, Hugo Alexander, Robert J. Hocker and Samuel Gaylord.

The petition contesting the election was filed by Atty. Lee VanTilburg and George Mazaris in behalf of the following persons: Minnie Hooper, Edith Ketchum, James Hooper and Harry Springer, all of Hammondsville; Charles Cronin of Hammondsville R. D. 1, John Rodgers and Anna Wickham of Irondale; Elmer Mellet of Stratton.

Charles Taylor, John Boley, William Furbee, Rosie DeVaux, Juanita Grimm, James Wise, Patricia Grimm, Robert Patterson, Ruth Deruelle, Elsa Buchanan, Hazel Buchanan, Ronald Buchanan, Nedra Buchanan, Wesley Glenn, Evelyn Byers, Walter W. Byers, Virl Stevens, A. H. DeVaux and Charles Nixon, all of Toronto R. D. 2.

The bond issue, with a levy of 2.4 mills, was for a 23-year period. The new building was to be constructed in the Empire area and serve some 300 riverfront students. It was designed by Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect.

Zippy Lemon Pie Features Texture Contrast

Looking for a totally - different dessert? If you are, try "Mystery Lemon Pie."

Except for the name, there really isn't any mystery at all. The pie is a perfect combination of a creamy lemon meringue and a light lemon chiffon.

Mystery Lemon Pie

9-inch-baked-pie-shell
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 envelope unflavored gelatine (1 tablespoon)
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups water
¼ cup butter
2 tablespoons grated lemon juice
4 to 6 drops yellow food coloring, if desired
1 packet meringue mix

Make 9" baked pie shell as directed on pie crust mix package except before mixing, add grated peel of ½ lemon.

Combine sugar, cornstarch, gelatine, salt in saucepan. Gradually stir in water. Add butter. Bring to rolling boil, stirring constantly; boil one minute. Remove from heat, stir in lemon peel, juice, food coloring.

Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. Stir until smooth. Prepare pie meringue as directed on packet.

Fold gently into lemon filling. Pile filling into baked pie shell. Chill about three hours or until set.

Rice Stages Comeback, India Figures Disclose

NEW DELHI (AP) — The production of rice, a mainstay in the diet of many Indians, has bounced back from a poor year to set a record in the latest 12-month period.

The yield per acre rose about 7 per cent above the average for the last five years to 29,700,000 long tons. The previous high had been 28,300,000 tons in the 1956-57 crop year.

The record crop would provide enough rice for every Indian to eat 166 pounds a year, or less than half a pound a day.

Cotton-Pickin' Texan

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP)— The nation's first bale of cotton for 1959 brought Jack Armstrong of Mission, Tex., $2.75 a pound at auction Friday night. The $1,289 auction price was coupled with a $1,500 cash bonus from the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce.

They Prefer Filter Tips

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — A pair of cardinals came up with a new use for filter cigarettes. The two birds used the soft, cellulose fillings to build nests. University of Arizona ornithologists said the birds didn't touch butts of non-filter cigarettes in the area.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: We've been married 23 years and have a lovely family of five children. A situation has cropped up that threatens to ruin it all.

My husband and I started to play bridge with his brother and his wife. These two are experts. They never say one mean thing to each other no matter what happens in the game.

My husband is always bidding no trump, whether he has it or not. He thinks I should do the same and this is where trouble starts. I don't believe in bidding no trump unless I have four suits covered.

The other evening he opened the bidding with one no trump and I failed to raise him, even though I did have four suits covered. When I put my hand down the fireworks started. He took the cards and flushed them down the toilet. Then we drove 21 miles home, and he didn't say one word.

I'm at my wit's end. Shall I refuse to play cards with him or suggest to my sister-in-law that they let us win a few games so life will run smoothly for awhile? I'm sure they'd cooperate, as they are very lovely people.—CARD BLIND.

Dear Blind: When the score pad of a bridge game becomes a battlefield, it's time to toss in the deck permanently. Suggesting that the other couple throw the game so "life will be livable for awhile" puts you and your husband in a most unattractive position.

Your husband seems to have a fix on beating this couple which is darned near sick. Refuse to play cards with him and suggest that he work out his aggressions bowling, on the golf course or mowing the lawn.

Do-It-Yourself Job

Dear Ann: My husband's family is ruining our 18-month-old boy. Whenever I say, "Don't touch the books, Donnie" my mother-in-law says, "Don't pick on him so much. He's just playing."

They constantly ask him, "Who do you love most, your Mommy or your Daddy?" This burns me up. I've suggested to my husband that he speak to his folks about this but he says he doesn't want to start any trouble in the family.

When my in-laws are in the house Donnie's bedtime doesn't mean a thing. They won't let me put him in bed and he goes from one lap to the next until he finally falls asleep on the floor. What can I do when I get no cooperation from my husband?—IGNORED.

Dear Ignored: When you get no cooperation from your husband you do the job yourself.

Tell your in-laws there will be no more questions such as: "Who do you love most?" And don't smile when you say it.

When you tell Donnie not to touch the books, let him know you mean it. And when bedtime comes put him in bed no matter whose lap you have to take him from. If you use the authority that is yours you won't have any problem.

High Cost Of Living

Dear Ann: I was dating a fine guy for eight months. I don't know what was the matter with me but I said a couple things about his sister which were not true and the stories got back to him. I apologized every way I knew how but he never called me after that.

I'm dying to get back with him and I've tried everything but nothing works. Can you help me?—MISS BOTHERED AND BEWILDERED.

Dear Miss B.: Sorry, but it looks as if the boy has had it and you are out. Your only chance is to leave him along. If there's a spark he may rekindle it. If you try any more you'll put it out. (Big price for a lying tongue, wasn't it?)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Crash At Calcutta Hurts City Woman

A city woman was injured in a collision between cars driven by her husband and an East End woman at Calcutta Sunday night at 6:50, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Mrs. Catherine Menough, 51, of 514 College St. was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the forehead and left arm received in the crash of the cars driven by her husband, Ernest Menough, 44, and Esther M. Wilson, 33, of 532 Palissey St.

The patrol said Menough was headed west on County Rd. 430 when the woman, headed north on County Rd. 428, pulled in front of his car. Damage was moderate, officers said.

Joseph Leonelli, 42, of New Castle was fined $10 and costs early today by Mayor Paul Merwin for reckless operation after his car left Route 170 on Pancake Hill near Negley and overturned shortly before midnight. The patrol said his 1957 sedan was demolished.

Bishop Names District Head Of Methodists

The Rev. Charles Stoneburner, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Ashtabula, was named superintendent of the Steubenville District of the Methodist Church Saturday night at Lakeside by Bishop Hazen G. Warner as the denomination prepared to conclude its 21st annual Northeast Ohio Conference.

Rev. Stoneburner succeeds the Rev. Paul M. Ward, who was named superintendent of the Youngstown District.

The appointments were among 138 announced by Bishop Werner on the eve of the conference's concluding session. Seven other pastorates were filled, most of them first appointments. They include:

The Rev. Dwight L. Gamble, to East Rochester from Mt. Pleasant; the Rev. Charles A. Richardson Jr. to Franklin Square; the Rev. John G. Millhorn, to Irondale; the new Daniel L. Hudson, to New Garden; the Rev. Kenneth L. Bowser, as associate pastor at Salem; the Rev. Clarence A. Gumler, to Toronto Riverview from Cadiz, and the Rev. John E. Capper, to Winona.

The Rev. Carl G. Beighley of the Calvary Methodist Church was ordained an elder — the final step before completing his ordination as a minister.

All East Liverpool area churches were represented at the conference, but there was no change in the pastorates of any city church.

A Chance To Speak Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Interviewers will visit more than 3,700 homes to gather suggestions for five things most needed to improve Chicago.

"This is a golden opportunity for the city dweller to express his ideas of what the city should be like," says Clyde W. Hart, director of the National Opinion Research Center, an agency affiliated with the University of Chicago.

Returning over the weekend from the annual two-week fishing trip to Ontario, Canada, were Mayor Karl Lindner, George Boals, Matt Russell, Jay Carter, Jay Carter Jr., William Smith and Sam McClelland. John Lindner of Cleveland, father of the mayor, accompanied them.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: We've been married 23 years and have a lovely family of five children. A situation has cropped up that threatens to ruin it all.

My husband and I started to play bridge with his brother and his wife. These two are experts. They never say one mean thing to each other no matter what happens in the game.

My husband is always bidding no trump, whether he has it or not. He thinks I should do the same and this is where trouble starts. I don't believe in bidding no trump unless I have four suits covered.

The other evening he opened the bidding with one no trump and I failed to raise him, even though I did have four suits covered. When I put my hand down the fireworks started. He took the cards and flushed them down the toilet. Then we drove 21 miles home, and he didn't say one word.

I'm at my wit's end. Shall I refuse to play cards with him or suggest to my sister-in-law that they let us win a few games so life will run smoothly for awhile? I'm sure they'd cooperate, as they are very lovely people.—CARD BLIND.

Dear Blind: When the score pad of a bridge game becomes a battlefield, it's time to toss in the deck permanently. Suggesting that the other couple throw the game so "life will be livable for awhile" puts you and your husband in a most unattractive position.

Your husband seems to have a fix on beating this couple which is darned near sick. Refuse to play cards with him and suggest that he work out his aggressions bowling, on the golf course or mowing the lawn.

Do-It-Yourself Job

Dear Ann: My husband's family is ruining our 18-month-old boy. Whenever I say, "Don't touch the books, Donnie" my mother-in-law says, "Don't pick on him so much. He's just playing."

They constantly ask him, "Who do you love most, your Mommy or your Daddy?" This burns me up. I've suggested to my husband that he speak to his folks about this but he says he doesn't want to start any trouble in the family.

When my in-laws are in the house Donnie's bedtime doesn't mean a thing. They won't let me put him in bed and he goes from one lap to the next until he finally falls asleep on the floor. What can I do when I get no cooperation from my husband?—IGNORED.

Dear Ignored: When you get no cooperation from your husband you do the job yourself.

Tell your in-laws there will be no more questions such as: "Who do you love most?" And don't smile when you say it.

When you tell Donnie not to touch the books, let him know you mean it. And when bedtime comes put him in bed no matter whose lap you have to take him from. If you use the authority that is yours you won't have any problem.

High Cost Of Living

Dear Ann: I was dating a fine guy for eight months. I don't know what was the matter with me but I said a couple things about his sister which were not true and the stories got back to him. I apologized every way I knew how but he never called me after that.

I'm dying to get back with him and I've tried everything but nothing works. Can you help me?—MISS BOTHERED AND BEWILDERED.

Dear Miss B.: Sorry, but it looks as if the boy has had it and you are out. Your only chance is to leave him along. If there's a spark he may rekindle it. If you try any more you'll put it out. (Big price for a lying tongue, wasn't it?)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Crash At Calcutta Hurts City Woman

A city woman was injured in a collision between cars driven by her husband and an East End woman at Calcutta Sunday night at 6:50, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Mrs. Catherine Menough, 51, of 514 College St. was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the forehead and left arm received in the crash of the cars driven by her husband, Ernest Menough, 44, and Esther M. Wilson, 33, of 532 Palissey St.

The patrol said Menough was headed west on County Rd. 430 when the woman, headed north on County Rd. 428, pulled in front of his car. Damage was moderate, officers said.

Joseph Leonelli, 42, of New Castle was fined $10 and costs early today by Mayor Paul Merwin for reckless operation after his car left Route 170 on Pancake Hill near Negley and overturned shortly before midnight. The patrol said his 1957 sedan was demolished.

Bishop Names District Head Of Methodists

The Rev. Charles Stoneburner, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Ashtabula, was named superintendent of the Steubenville District of the Methodist Church Saturday night at Lakeside by Bishop Hazen G. Warner as the denomination prepared to conclude its 21st annual Northeast Ohio Conference.

Rev. Stoneburner succeeds the Rev. Paul M. Ward, who was named superintendent of the Youngstown District.

The appointments were among 138 announced by Bishop Werner on the eve of the conference's concluding session. Seven other pastorates were filled, most of them first appointments. They include:

The Rev. Dwight L. Gamble, to East Rochester from Mt. Pleasant; the Rev. Charles A. Richardson Jr. to Franklin Square; the Rev. John G. Millhorn, to Irondale; the new Daniel L. Hudson, to New Garden; the Rev. Kenneth L. Bowser, as associate pastor at Salem; the Rev. Clarence A. Gumler, to Toronto Riverview from Cadiz, and the Rev. John E. Capper, to Winona.

The Rev. Carl G. Beighley of the Calvary Methodist Church was ordained an elder — the final step before completing his ordination as a minister.

All East Liverpool area churches were represented at the conference, but there was no change in the pastorates of any city church.

A Chance To Speak Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Interviewers will visit more than 3,700 homes to gather suggestions for five things most needed to improve Chicago.

"This is a golden opportunity for the city dweller to express his ideas of what the city should be like," says Clyde W. Hart, director of the National Opinion Research Center, an agency affiliated with the University of Chicago.

Kaycee Group Lists Winners For Art Show

The 15 winners in a field of 98 entries in an art show sponsored by Midland Knights of Columbus Council 2005 were announced Sunday night when the exhibit opened officially at the Kaycee Home.

John Cooney of Port Carbon, state Kaycee deputy, launched the show after the council's 40th anniversary banquet at Deramo's Restaurant, at which Anthony Martell received the "Knight of the Year" award. About 125 attended.

Jesse W. Badger, director of art education for New Castle public schools, was judge of the show. Winners will receive prizes July 4 at 2 p. m. in the K. of C. Hall.

Judged best in the show was "Spring Rain," a painting by Margaret T. Beeken of Beaver. Local winners included Hans Hacker of East Liverpool with "Horn Switch," first in oil; John McIntire of Wellsville, second honorable mention in oil; Mary M. Falicia of Midland with an honorable mention in still life; Larry Novak of Midland, second in water colors, and Aileen Hough of Industry with "Asters," first in water colors.

Other winners included Harold Fessler of Homeworth, with "Jean," best portrait; Tony J. Transport of Aliquippa, first in still life with "Still Life"; Lina Hackett of Rochester, second in still life.

In oil, John Scrafonae of Aliquippa was second. First honorable mention went to Paul A. McElory of Ellwood City. Honorable mention in water colors went to Foster J. McBride of Damascus an second to Jean Tabler Walton of Aliquippa. McBride had the best religious picture.

Michael Santini of California, Pa., with "Last Refrain," was first in Division II and Donald Zindren of Freedom, with "River Life," was second. This class is for entrants 12-18.

Entries from other towns included Chester, Alliance, Beaver Falls, Ohio View, Sewickley, Center Township, Darlington, Monaca, Warren and West Bridgewater.

The exhibit, which opened informally Wednesday, will be open to the public through July 11. Pictures will be exhibited from 7 to 9 p. m. daily; from 12 to 9 p. m. on July 4, and from 1 to 8 p. m. on Sundays.

Martell was presented his award by Ralph Bernabie, activities chairman, at the dinner. He is a past deputy grand knight and is a member of the borough's Planning Commission. He is a committeeman of Presentation Catholic Church.

A Lincoln High School graduate, he attended Duquesne University, majoring in business. He is associated with A. Martell Clothing Store. He, his wife and one child reside at 77 Hillcrest Manor.

Burgess Eli G. Corak welcomed guests at the dinner. Cooney spoke, along with Emeric Davis, council member and 49th district deputy. Dr. Frank J. Benedict was toastmaster. Fr. Robert Garland, assistant pastor of Presentation Church, gave the invocation and benediction.

Trustees Approve Money Transfer

A move to transfer some $2,000 from the Liverpool Township general fund to the road and bridge fund was approved by trustees at a meeting Friday night.

The trustees authorized Clerk Simon Hall to make arrangements with County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw to start legal proceedings to transfer the money, to be used on township roads.

County crews are slated to start this week on blacktopping certain road sections of the township in the annual road program. About 7,500 gallons of oil already have by laid, marking the near completion of the oil program.

The trustees also approved street numbers for houses in the LaCroft area between 7th and 2nd Aves., clearing the way for improved postal delivery to the area.

Salaries of $10 a month for Constables Richard Barnes and Clifford Owens also were approved for the remainder of the year. The next meeting will be July 10.

The District of Columbia is governed by three ministers appointed by the president.

Before New Bookkeeping Year

Legislative Chiefs Push Key Bills

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Legislative leaders put on the pressure today for enactment of key administration bills before the state starts a new bookkeeping year Wednesday.

Senators wheeled the $1,808,787,410 general appropriations measure into position for a vote on the floor.

The bill to pay for state operations in the next two years carried 40 million dollars more than when it cleared the House May 19.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has told the Democrat-controlled Legislature he doesn't want to operate "for one minute" of the new fiscal year without the spending law.

Across the Capitol, the House called for a floor vote on the last of DiSalle's major proposals to boost taxes more than a third of a billion dollars. The Senate measure to hike sales taxes nearly 40 million dollars in two years underwent extensive changes in the House Taxation Committee.

Democrat Leaders agreed to resist any floor amendments to get speedy action. Each house must approve changes by the other for final passage.

The House scheduled action for Tuesday on revision of the state's ancient blue laws to permit concession stands at state parks and county fairs to operate on Sundays. They were ordered closed this Sunday in the wake of an attorney general's ruling upholding the statutes banning unnecessary activities on the Sabbath. A long list of exemptions, in addition to those already provided, also will be sought.

Other House proposals up for a vote Tuesday provide for a uniform commercial code, designation of the north-south freeway as "Gold Star Mothers Memorial Highway" and statewide registration of watercraft. The House considered the registration measure last month but returned it to committee for revision.

DiSalle has urged the Senate to act promptly on a House-passed measure providing an average 10 per cent increase in benefits for some 250,000 members of the three state retirement systems. He said action before Wednesday would eliminate legal questions about the increase for state employes over 70 who are required by law to retire this fiscal year.

The big budget bill includes a Senate increase of more than 18 million dollars to continue poor relief subsidies on the present basis, instead of turning those operations over to the counties.

Other increases include 8½ million dollars for state employe pay increases, 4¼ million more for old age subsidies, two million for relief of disabled workers and 1¼ million for Ohio State University Hospital.

Biggest item in the spending budget is a general fund of $1,110,100,424 for regular operations. Other funds include nearly 679 million dollars for highways, almost 29 million for highway safety, some 22½ million for the liquor monopoly system and nearly eight million for wildlife operations.

DiSalle said enactment of the appropriations measure as it stands would leave him 30 to 40 million dollars short of anticipated revenues, even with the sales tax increase. He said cuts would be made accordingly but leasers expected most would apply to capital improvement appropriations.

Cuyahoga County's big Democrat delegation succeeded in having the sales tax shifted to start on 31-cent purchases, instead of 16 cents. They now start at 41 cents. The measure retains the tax stamps, despite objections by DiSalle but their use would end for automobile sales. Stamp redemptions would be cut from 3 to 2 per cent of face value.

State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson, whose 422 agents sell a large volume of sales tax stamps, estimated that redemptions of more than five million dollars last year by charitable and other organizations would be cut about in half.

Collection of the sales tax on new and used cars also would be shifted to county clerks of courts under the proposal. They already collect the tax on casual sale of automobiles by individuals.

Altogether, the House had 14 bills on today's calendar for floor action. A handful of them were left over from last week.

Marker Trail Spurs Hunt For Remains Of 9 Airmen

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—Discovery of a marker trail pointing north over the Libyan Desert has spurred the search for the remains of nine crewmen of a U. S. bomber which crashed in World War II.

The trail was found by a U. S. Army mortuary team which has searched across some 200 square miles of sand in the past three weeks. The team's next objective is the remains of about 10 persons several miles beyond the end of the trail.

The search was launched after a team of British geologists found the slightly damaged B24 Liberator on hard-packed sand. The bomber, identified as the "Lady Be Good" from Bengasi, apparently had made an unmanned belly landing on its return from a bombing raid against Naples, Italy, April 3, 1943.

The logbook recounting the flight, flight gear, fatigue clothing and full water jugs were still in their original places inside the plane. It was believed the plane was damaged in the raid the crew parachuted into the desert, then perished in an attempt to walk to civilization.

The mortuary team found the marker trail about 20 miles north of the plane. It ran another 24 miles northward, ending at a crossing of old desert tracks.

The trail was made of boots, parachutes and other flight equipment weighted down with small stones and pointing carefully north. After more than 16 years in the hot, dry Libyan Desert, the gear was virtually intact.

The tracks at the crossing were made by five Italian vehicles which tried to cross the desert during the war. Three were abandoned and two made it to the coast.

Reports from Bengasi said the remains of about 10 persons lie near the abandoned vehicles. It had been assumed they were Italian soldiers, but the mortuary crew said they could be the American bomber crewmen who are still carried on U.S. records as missing in action.

"It is possible, the team theorizes, that the missing airmen—by conserving their energies and walking only at night—could have followed the route (of the Italian cars) until they reached the abandoned vehicles where last hope faded," an Air Force official said.

Middle-Aged Termed Jury System Backbone

PEORIA, ILL. (AP) — Middleaged women are becoming the backbone of the jury system in Peoria.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Addy, chief clerk of the Peoria County Jury Commission, says women whose children are grown make the most "stable" selections.

Men seldom can afford to make the financial sacrifice at $7.50 a day. Younger women with children cannot give the time, she says.

The average precipitation per second of snow and rain in the world is about 16 million tons.

Testimonial Arranged For Fr. Arthur M. Nist

Cardinal Mercier General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, will honor Fr. Arthur M. Nist of St. Ann Catholic Church in East End with a testimonial dinner Wednesday.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator, said the event will begin at 6:30 in the Travelers Hotel. It is an informal affair, he said.

Fr. Nist is concluding his first year as faithful friar of the assembly. District priests will be guests. The assembly includes members from the city, Wellsville, Salineville, Lisbon and East Palestine.

Fire Damages Lodge Kitchen

Flames, spreading from an overheated refrigerator motor in a lodge kitchen at the IOOF Building on Carolina Ave., Chester, caused some $800 damage this morning around 1:45.

The blaze was confined to the third floor lodge kitchen of the building of the International Order of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias, Fire Chief Raymond Gibbs reported.

Fifteen men and two trucks responded to the alarm, turned in by Lee Haney, a fireman who resides in a second floor apartment of the structure, which houses the Chester News Depot and the Monongehela Power Co. offices at 5th St.

The flames and smoke first were noticed by Mr. and Mrs. James Bonessi, who reside in an apartment above their grocery store adjacent to the IOOF building. They called to Mrs. Esther Hayes, who resides in a second floor apartment of the IOOF building. She in turn notified Haney.

Chief Gibbs said the fire stemmed from the motor of a used refrigerator which probably was overheated or defective. The interior of the 10-by-15-foot kitchen was badly damaged, woodwork was charred and the heat was so intense it melted the legs off a gas stove and the faucet washers, Gibbs said.

The loss is insured, he added. Two lines of hose were laid to hydrants, but were not used, firemen extinguishing the flames with a booster hose.

Before New Bookkeeping Year

Legislative Chiefs Push Key Bills

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Legislative leaders put on the pressure today for enactment of key administration bills before the state starts a new bookkeeping year Wednesday.

Senators wheeled the $1,808,787,410 general appropriations measure into position for a vote on the floor.

The bill to pay for state operations in the next two years carried 40 million dollars more than when it cleared the House May 19.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has told the Democrat-controlled Legislature he doesn't want to operate "for one minute" of the new fiscal year without the spending law.

Across the Capitol, the House called for a floor vote on the last of DiSalle's major proposals to boost taxes more than a third of a billion dollars. The Senate measure to hike sales taxes nearly 40 million dollars in two years underwent extensive changes in the House Taxation Committee.

Democrat Leaders agreed to resist any floor amendments to get speedy action. Each house must approve changes by the other for final passage.

The House scheduled action for Tuesday on revision of the state's ancient blue laws to permit concession stands at state parks and county fairs to operate on Sundays. They were ordered closed this Sunday in the wake of an attorney general's ruling upholding the statutes banning unnecessary activities on the Sabbath. A long list of exemptions, in addition to those already provided, also will be sought.

Other House proposals up for a vote Tuesday provide for a uniform commercial code, designation of the north-south freeway as "Gold Star Mothers Memorial Highway" and statewide registration of watercraft. The House considered the registration measure last month but returned it to committee for revision.

DiSalle has urged the Senate to act promptly on a House-passed measure providing an average 10 per cent increase in benefits for some 250,000 members of the three state retirement systems. He said action before Wednesday would eliminate legal questions about the increase for state employes over 70 who are required by law to retire this fiscal year.

The big budget bill includes a Senate increase of more than 18 million dollars to continue poor relief subsidies on the present basis, instead of turning those operations over to the counties.

Other increases include 8½ million dollars for state employe pay increases, 4¼ million more for old age subsidies, two million for relief of disabled workers and 1¼ million for Ohio State University Hospital.

Biggest item in the spending budget is a general fund of $1,110,100,424 for regular operations. Other funds include nearly 679 million dollars for highways, almost 29 million for highway safety, some 22½ million for the liquor monopoly system and nearly eight million for wildlife operations.

DiSalle said enactment of the appropriations measure as it stands would leave him 30 to 40 million dollars short of anticipated revenues, even with the sales tax increase. He said cuts would be made accordingly but leasers expected most would apply to capital improvement appropriations.

Cuyahoga County's big Democrat delegation succeeded in having the sales tax shifted to start on 31-cent purchases, instead of 16 cents. They now start at 41 cents. The measure retains the tax stamps, despite objections by DiSalle but their use would end for automobile sales. Stamp redemptions would be cut from 3 to 2 per cent of face value.

State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson, whose 422 agents sell a large volume of sales tax stamps, estimated that redemptions of more than five million dollars last year by charitable and other organizations would be cut about in half.

Collection of the sales tax on new and used cars also would be shifted to county clerks of courts under the proposal. They already collect the tax on casual sale of automobiles by individuals.

Altogether, the House had 14 bills on today's calendar for floor action. A handful of them were left over from last week.

West Berlin Vote Still Set Despite Russian Protests

By HERB ALTSCHULL

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany pushed ahead today with plans for a presidential election in isolated Berlin despite Soviet warnings such a move will be viewed as a provocative act.

Officials remained alert as Communist East German officials said they would look on the election 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain with "great seriousness." But there was no expectation of any real trouble when the Electoral College meets Wednesday.

The U. S. State Department brushed aside Soviet notes to the Western Big Three protesting the holding of the election in West Berlin. Officials in Washington termed the notes a new effort to meddle in Germany's internal affairs.

The Soviet note to the United States said the Soviet Union considered holding the elections in Berlin "a new attempt to use the current abnormal situation in the city in order to inflame even more the situation in Germany."

State Department press officer Lincoln White said the decision to hold the election in Berlin "merely represents a continuation of a tradition begun with the presidential election in Berlin in July 1954." That election was held in Berlin without Red protest.

The Soviet Union and East Germany insist West Berlin is a part of East Germany. The State Department holds that the Red-girdled city is "held in trust by the principal Allied powers as the capital of a reunited Germany."

The 1,038-member Electoral College will choose a successor to 75-year-old President Theodor Heuss, who is ineligible to run for a third five-year term.

The Western Allies and the Soviets meanwhile continued preparations to resume the foreign ministers' conference on Berlin July 13.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was expected to contact the U. S., French and West-German foreign ministers this week on a British plan to redraft Western proposals on Berlin in an attempt to break the East-West deadlock and pave the way for a summit meeting.

Prime Minister Harold MacMillan was reported convinced that enough had transpired before the foreign ministers' talks recessed in Geneva nine days ago to justify a summit parley.

200 Line River Banks To See National Boating Week Show

About 200 lined the Ohio River bank to view the water and boating show held Sunday afternoon at the Broadway wharf by Flotilla 7 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary in conjunction with the East Liverpool Yacht Club and the Wellsville Boat Club.

The show was held to mark the observance of National Boating week, which started Saturday and will conclude Sunday.

Niles Blackmore, auxiliary training officer, opened the program with a brief talk on boating safety and "rules of the road." He also urged that pleasure craft show courtesy to towboats.

A parade of boats was held, with about 20 participating. The boats paraded past the wharf area in a single line.

A water ballet on skis was presented by Charlene Hall of East Palestine and Patty DeMarco and Annette Fuceinto of Steubenville. They executed the forward swan, knee bend and heel tuck.

Emmett Ketchum and Wayne Ketchum of Wellsville performed on saucers behind speed boats. They rode on chairs on the saucers and sat on the backs of the chairs.

Charles Franz of Freedom performed on banana skis, turning completely around while traveling at high speed. Bernard Thomas of Calcutta did a head stand on a disc. Chip DeMarco of Steubenville performed on 14-inch skis and then skied in his bare feet. DeMarco and John Irwin of Wellsville, did a series of criss-crosses on the skis.

Harold Moore was general chairman. Irwin was in charge of the ski show.

Several boaters had their craft inspected by the auxiliary. Herman Miller was master of ceremonies. The Yacht Club will meet Tuesday night at 7:30.

200 Line River Banks To See National Boating Week Show

About 200 lined the Ohio River bank to view the water and boating show held Sunday afternoon at the Broadway wharf by Flotilla 7 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary in conjunction with the East Liverpool Yacht Club and the Wellsville Boat Club.

The show was held to mark the observance of National Boating week, which started Saturday and will conclude Sunday.

Niles Blackmore, auxiliary training officer, opened the program with a brief talk on boating safety and "rules of the road." He also urged that pleasure craft show courtesy to towboats.

A parade of boats was held, with about 20 participating. The boats paraded past the wharf area in a single line.

A water ballet on skis was presented by Charlene Hall of East Palestine and Patty DeMarco and Annette Fuceinto of Steubenville. They executed the forward swan, knee bend and heel tuck.

Emmett Ketchum and Wayne Ketchum of Wellsville performed on saucers behind speed boats. They rode on chairs on the saucers and sat on the backs of the chairs.

Charles Franz of Freedom performed on banana skis, turning completely around while traveling at high speed. Bernard Thomas of Calcutta did a head stand on a disc. Chip DeMarco of Steubenville performed on 14-inch skis and then skied in his bare feet. DeMarco and John Irwin of Wellsville, did a series of criss-crosses on the skis.

Harold Moore was general chairman. Irwin was in charge of the ski show.

Several boaters had their craft inspected by the auxiliary. Herman Miller was master of ceremonies. The Yacht Club will meet Tuesday night at 7:30.

Queen Turns Attention To Racing And Theater

By RELMAN MORIN

TORONTO (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II breaks her arduous routine of formal ceremonies and receiving lines this week for two of her favorite diversions, horse racing and the theater.

Canada's top racing event, the Queen's Plate, will be run in Toronto Tuesday with the monarch and Prince Philip watching.

At nearby Stratford the Shakespearean Festival Company gives a command performance of "As You Like It" for the royal couple Thursday.

Elizabeth and her husband were due in Toronto this morning after a three-day cruise up the St. Lawrence River aboard the royal yacht Britannia.

The couple went ashore for two hours Sunday at Kingston and attended services at the United Church in the late afternoon. It was the first time the Queen had attended religious services other than Anglican on Canadian soil. Canada's United Church was formed in 1925 in a merger of Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists.

The Rev. Richard H. N. Davidson preached an 11-minute sermon. He prayed for guidance for the royal couple and the strength for them to carry out their "heavy duties." He also offered a prayer for Elizabeth's two children, Prince Charles and Princess Anne.

He noted that the Queen and President Eisenhower had dedicated the St. Lawrence Seaway Friday and that she saw part of the gigantic St. Lawrence power project Saturday. The preacher said man's works are futile and useless unless employed for the betterment of all mankind.

Tens of thousands took to the rivers and lakes of Ohio over the weekend, seeking relief from the stifling heat.

Five of them are never going home again.

They drowned, and they account for nearly one-third of all violent deaths recorded in Ohio this weekend.

An Associated Press count shows 16 persons met accidental death in Ohio between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday. Besides the drownings, seven died in traffic accidents, two youths died in a fire, a man was killed in a fall from a tree and a 7-month-old boy suffocated in a plastic clothing bag.

The fatalities:

Friday night

Frank Korosa, 46, Akron, drowned when he fell from a Cleveland pier.

Mitchell Harris, 37, Cleveland, believed drowned in a fall from a motorboat in East Sandusky Bay.

Saturday

Charles L. Caldwell, 23, Columbus, when his car plunged down an embankment along Ohio 7 about eight miles south of Gallipolis.

Mrs. Sue Parker, 62, Franklin, Warren County; Mrs. Kathleen Reels, 22, Algood, Tenn., and her daughter, Cindy, 8 months, in a headon auto collision on U.S. 25 south of Franklin.

Mrs. George M. Honoshofsky, 42, Elyria, in a two-car crash at a curve a mile north of that city.

James Henry Adams Jr., 7 months, apparently suffocated when his head became entangled in a plastic clothing bag in his Lima home.

Ference L. Schumacher, 21, Cleveland, drowned in Lake Erie when he jumped from a motorboat into the water for a swim.

Louis Gehring, 43, Fairfax, a Cincinnati suburb, drowned when waves from New Richmond Dam on the Ohio River rocked a motorboat and threw him overboard.

Kathy Roades, 7, Canton, when she ran into the path of a car just north of that city.

Sunday

John Juan Torres, 21, Brownsville, Tex., and Joe Bentancur, 18, of Holgate, in a fire at Torres' one-room shanty behind a cannery at Port Clinton.

Charles Ballard Jr., 37, London, Ohio, when his car crashed into a railroad viaduct on U.S. 40 West Jefferson.

Willard Odale, 18, Princeton, W. Va., drowned when apparently struck by cramps while swimming at Jay Lake near Ravenna.

Tom Henderson, 24, Berea, when he fell 60 feet from a maple tree he was trimming in that community.

Clerk Starts Duties

LISBON — Mrs. Vernonica Ready of Leetonia has assumed a clerk's position in Juvenile Court. Mrs. Ready replaces Mrs. Jack Marshall of Lisbon R. D. 5, who resigned June 1. Mrs. Ready formerly was employed at Allen's Shoe Store in Columbiana.

Drowns In Plunge

CASTILE, N.Y. (AP)—Two 13-year-old girls on a church picnic slipped on loose rock Sunday at the top of a 100-foot gorge. Susan Metz plunged down the cliff and was drowned in the Genesee River. Susan Rutecki caught a tree branch and was pulled to safety by a park worker as the branch began to break.

Perfect Dress Size Offers Reducing Goal

"Oh, my dear, that's too small. I'll try to find a size 20 for you." That remark made by a saleslady in a fitting room startled one overweight into determined action. This reducer wrote in response to the column asking dieters to specify what helped them to get started.

Ida Jean Kain

"A jolt served to galvanize me into reducing action. It happened when I went to a smart dress shop to buy a new formal. I'm tall, 5 foot 8 and have carried far too many pounds for far too many years. I tried on size 18, my size for years. When that was obviously too small I just stood in front of those mirrors feeling sorry for myself.

"Just then the saleslady burst into the fitting room to see how I was making out. When she suggested size 20 — that did it! I shall be forever grateful to her. I took off the dress, put my own dress back on and left.

"THE GOOD NEWS is that I now wear size 14. I'll have to curb calories the rest of my life, but it's worth it. I, too, regret the years I've lost, but I am thankful that my 40s will be enjoyed more than my 30s.

"I also have an exercise posture couch which is relaxing and has helped straighten my posture. But the most important part of reducing is the dieting. I feel that setting my goal for a smaller dress size did the trick for me. Hope this will help someone else."

Congratulations! You refused to settle for a larger size and your reward is a perfect size and a shapely figure. Thanks for sharing.

Another reducer, who used the dress size incentive in quite a different way, writes:

"I have always taken pride in my appearance, but in my middle fifties, I found myself slipping. My weight went up to 180 pounds, and I felt bulky and uncomfortable. So this is the way I got started on my reducing: "I bought six outfits, one suit and five different type of dresses, all a size too small.

"I regarded this expenditure as an investment, and I was determined to wear the clothes with ease by spring. Four months ago, when I rashly purchased the smaller size dresses, it looked hopeless. As of now, I have lost 16 pounds and the new wardrobe fits perfectly.

"I used to hate to dress up and go out, but now I hurry in the morning and get my work done so I can go out.

MY HUSBAND is always telling me how beautiful I look. Just to hear that and know he is sincere is sheer heaven. I will never again become overweight, now that I have changed my food habits. I don't miss the sweets and extras."

There you are, friends. Refuse to settle for a larger size dress and you will be the winner.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Perfect Dress Size Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Action Slated Today On Tax Extension Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress acts today on a compromise corporation-excise tax extension bill to avert a three-billion-dollar drop in tax revenues for the next year.

The House acts first and the Senate must follow quickly if present tax rates are to be continued beyond Tuesday midnight.

It was the sixth time that Congress has been called on to continue increased tax rates voted initially in 1951 to finance the Korean fighting.

The bill extends for another year the Korean wartime 52 per cent income tax rate on corporation profits. It postpones a scheduled drop to 47 per cent.

It also continues for a year Korean excise, or sales, tax rates on automobiles, auto parts and accessories, cigarettes, liquor, wine and beer.

Double Fine Handed Triple-State Driver

A California woman driving a car with a Kentucky license and an expired Louisiana driver's permit was fined a total of $30 and costs at a hearing before Squire Eugene Allison of Chester Saturday.

Benat J. Deming of Chula Vista, Calif., was cited on Route 66 by Hancock County Deputy Sheriff Edward Frankovich Saturday, and was later fined $10 and costs for driving without a valid license and $20 and costs for speeding.

Tag Day Nets $240

EAST PALESTINE — A Campfire Girls' tag day held Saturday by members of the youth organization netted $240, George Hoaglin, project chairman, said. Funds are used for the summer program at the City Park.

Reset a picture frame nail that has become loose in a plastered wall by wrapping a narrow strip of cloth spirally around the shank of the nail and dip into some glue. Replace the nail in its hole and allow the glue to dry for a day or so before rehanging the picture.

Milk 'Goes Through' Despite Man's Illness

ELIZABETH, N. J. (AP) — When Henry Schaper acquired the milk route owned by his father, he knew that faithful service makes good customers.

So for 18 years, Henry has worked seven days a week without a vacation. And he has no immediate plans for a change.

About three years ago, however, Henry became ill and was forced to take two weeks off. But the Schapers carried on.

Henry's wife, assisted by a neighbor and their son Charles, now 14, covered the 20 to 30 mile route by truck each day at 5 a. m. until the father could return to work.

Walkouts Cut Steel's Output

CLEVELAND (AP) — Wildcat strikes lowered steel production in the Pittsburgh and Cleveland districts sharply last week, and the rate for the entire industry declined 2½ points to 90 per cent of capacity.

"Steel" magazine, reporting this today, said that even if a United Steelworkers' strike does not materialize July 1, the production rate may be expected to continue downward. Operations will average 65 per cent during the third quarter, the weekly metalworking journal said. Second - quarter production has averaged about 93 per cent of capacity.

Because of the work stoppage involving 6,000 at Jones & Laughlin's Southside plant, the Pittsburgh district was down 15 points last week to 82 per cent of capacity. The Cleveland district, affected by a walkout of 2,800 at Republic Steel's strip mill, declined eight points last week to 86 per cent of capacity. Both of these wildcat strikes had ended by Thursday.

"Steel" said more foreign steel has come into Chicago this year than in all of 1958, and the flow will increase sharply in event of a strike. Speculators have stockpiled some 50,000 tons of imported steel in the Houston area, "Steel" reported. And Japanese mills are offerng West Coast users 500 tons a month during any strike, provided the purchaser contracts for that amount over a period of at least six months.

The journal's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting scrap held unchanged last week at $36.50 a gross ton.

'Interest On Interest' Draws Patnam Attack

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Inflation and the recent increase in the national debt ceiling were blamed Sunday by Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex) on a high interest policy instituted in 1953.

Patman, member of the House Banking and Currency Committee, said:

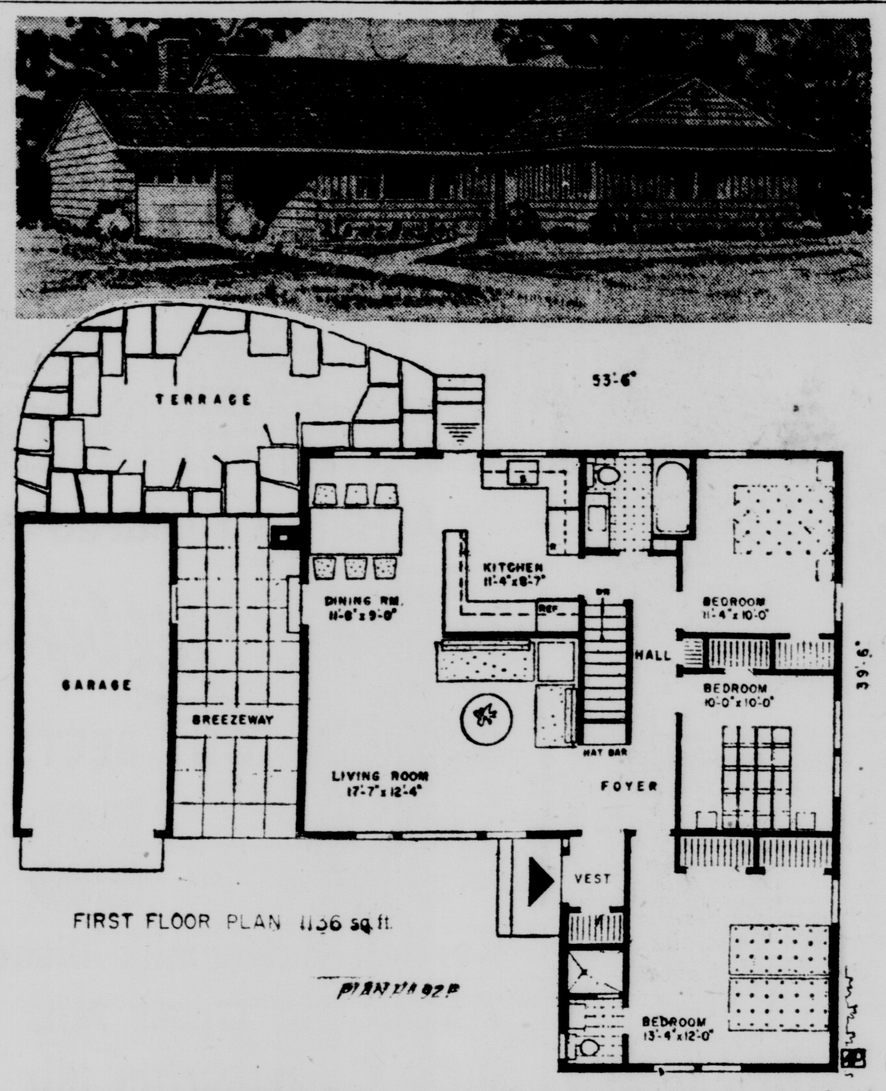
"If the administration in 1953 had not increased interest rates they would not have asked Congress to increase the national debt limit six times, as they have.

"And Congress has increased it six times. We've been paying interest on interest."

Home-Delivered Mail Leaves Villagers Cold

RAHNS, Pa. (AP)—The folks in this rural southeastern Pennsylvania hamlet gave home-delivered mail a try. They didn't like it.

Eighty-nine of the 118 residents have signed a petition asking the Post Office Department to go back to the old system of delivering mail to the branch post office in the village store.



BEAUTY WITH A BREEZEWAY. This compact three-bedroom home has a garage connected with a cool breezeway to the dining room and kitchen. The home covers 1,136 square feet and is HA92P by Architect Samuel Paul 89-51, 164th St., Jamaica 32, N. Y.

Question: We are planning to repaint our house, inside and out. We read somehwere about paints that retard flames. Can these be purchased now or are they something for the future? Can you tell us something about them?

Answer: Fire retardant paints are now being sold in large quantities, although some retail dealers may not have them in stock at present. These paints work in one of three ways, and most of them employ more than one of these properties.

Some of the paints release vapors such as carbon dioxide and nitrogen, which do not support combustion. Some swell and form a honeycombed insulating layer which holds back fire. And some form a glazed surface which prevents the under layer from reaching the point of ignition.

There also are other technical considerations which these paints must meet to qualify as fire retardant. If you decide to use fire retardant paints, do not neglect the usual safety precautions in your home. Remember that these paints slow down fires; they do not prevent them.

QUESTION: The wallpaper in our dining room is dirty in spots but otherwise in good condition. When the paper was bought a couple of years ago, we were told that it was not washable. Can the soiled areas be cleaned without water?

Answer: If the paper is only slightly soiled, cleaning it with semi-stale bread will be sufficient. Rub large pieces of this bread, from which the curst has been removed, over the surface of the paper. Working wide, sweeping strokes, overlapping the cleaned portions. As the bread becomes soiled, fold under to a clean section.

Where the bread treatment will not accomplish the job, buy one of the wallpaper cleaners — a substance similar to putty. Dirt adheres to it when the cleaner is lightly rubbed against the paper. Since this is the cause, the mass must be constantly kneaded in the hand so the fresh, clean parts are brought out. After cleaning, the paper should be brushed very lightly to remove all very tiny pieces of the cleaner that might have clung to the paper.

QUESTION: I expect to put down a hardwood floor in our attic. I have done a lot of carpentry work, so anticipate no trouble in that direction. But is there anything particular I should know about the handling of this material?

Answer: Here are four precautions which the manufacturers of hardwood suggest to builders:

(1) Do not lay hardwood floors until plastering, cement and tile work are thoroughly dried and woodwork and trim installed. (2) The room should not be damp, cold or unheated. Summer months are no exception, particularly in areas where high humidity occurs. (3) Turn on the heating system and open doors and windows so that excess moisture can escape. Large fans also help in driving out damp air. (4) Turn on the heat at least 10 days prior to laying the flooring. Keep the heat on at all times if there is a suspicion that the house or building is not reasonaboy dry.

Mount Union Adds Three To Faculty

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Mount Union College has announced the addition of three professors to its faculty for the 1959-60 school year.

Dr. Earl Louis Russell Jr., associate professor of English, replaces Phillip P. Stevick, who is taking a leave of absence for doctoral study at Ohio State.

John R. Reid, visiting assistant professor of geology, replaces Dr. William A. Rice, who will be teaching at the University of Illinois while on a leave of absence.

Succeeding Dr. Arthur F. Engelbert, who left at midyear to become Dean of Washburn University, Topeka, Kan., is Rinehart E. Kyler, assistant professor of modern languages.

A native of Cleveland, Dr. Russell is a graduate of Adelbert College of Western Reserve University, has his master's degree from Columbia and his doctorate from Western Reserve. He is presently at Marietta College.

Reid earned his master's degree at the University of Michigan, where he has almost completed his doctorate while teaching, and did his undergraduate work at Tufts.

Born in Breslau, Germany, Kyler is a graduate of Luther College and Yale, finishing the oral field exam for a doctorate at the latter school. He has been an instructor at the College of Wooster since 1956.

Wednesday Services To Be Held For Actor

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Funeral services for actor George Reeves will be held Wednesday in the Wayside Chapel of Gates, Kingsley and Gates Mortuary.

Reeves died in his home of a bullet wound in the head June 16. Police said it was suicide.

'Help' Groups Available For Home Owners

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Everybody wants to do something for the home owner — at a price, of course.

Organizations are springing up all over the country to make it easy for the home owner to get prompt, reliable services of all kinds at fair, prevailing prices. It works like this:

The home owner is assured quick attention 24 hours a day, seven days a week. When something goes wrong in the house, he calls a central telephone number and explains his problem.

From there on it is up to the organization to see that a skilled plumber, electrician, carpenter or other serviceman does the job promptly, efficiently and at a reasonable price. This includes emergency service at odd hours, which might be necessary, for instance, when a pipe bursts in the middle of the night.

The home owner pays the organization a certain annual fee. One charges "dues" of $10 for the first year and $5 annually thereafter. Another charges $12 a year. The serviceman pays the organization a certain percentage of the bill, usually 10 per cent.

What does the home owner get for his annual fee? And why should the serviceman give 10 per cent of his bill to somebody else?

The organizations (they have such names as the Allied Homeowners Assn. and the National Home Owners Club) say that the customer no longer has to take pot-luck when it comes to finding the right craftsmen to do the job.

All repairmen are screened, all must conform to reasonable price schedules and all must agree to return to check the work if a member is dissatisfied.

An organization man personally inspects the larger jobs to be certain everything has been done properly. All this in addition to the obvious advantage of getting quick service at any hour of the day or night.

It is said that the servicemen are glad to pay the 10 per cent commission. They are assured of a large volume of business from organization members without solicitation costs or waste of time.

And they are guaranteed payment. The failure of a contractor to live up to organization standards means that his name is removed from the list.

One of the outfits has come up with an addition to its program. It is offering a special vacationtime house watcher service. It even includes watering indoor plants.

Bomb Shelter Picked For Honeymoon Spot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A couple who will wed Sunday will spend a sheltered honeymoon—in an underground bomb shelter — for the greater glory of civil defense and shelter-manufacturers.

Then they'll have a more orthodox wedding trip at the expense of bomb shelter manufacturers who induced them to spend their first two weeks together 10 feet below North Miami.

Kelley Geiger, 25, a University of Miami Russian major, and Nancy Bellmyre, 23, a dance band singer, plan to climb down through the hatch of the 8-by-14 foot steel and concrete shelter after their wedding and reception.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prevent having moss on the lawn?

A. If you detect any moss on the lawn, it is a bad sign. It indicates either a sour or impoverished soil. For sour soil, apply some hydrated lime and for impoverished soil use a good quality of fertilizer. Practically any soil, however, is benefitted by an application of lime followed a week or two later by fertilizer. Do not apply both of these too close together.

Q. How can I keep the hands from perspiring while sewing?

A. When one is troubled by hands that perspire while sewing, thereby soiling the material, this can be alleviated by bathing the hands in warm water and alcohol.

Q. How can I remove brown stains from aluminum?

A. Remove heavy brown stains from aluminum and enameled cooking utensils by using steel wool and a good, mild, cleansing powder.

Walkouts Cut Steel's Output

CLEVELAND (AP) — Wildcat strikes lowered steel production in the Pittsburgh and Cleveland districts sharply last week, and the rate for the entire industry declined 2½ points to 90 per cent of capacity.

"Steel" magazine, reporting this today, said that even if a United Steelworkers' strike does not materialize July 1, the production rate may be expected to continue downward. Operations will average 65 per cent during the third quarter, the weekly metalworking journal said. Second - quarter production has averaged about 93 per cent of capacity.

Because of the work stoppage involving 6,000 at Jones & Laughlin's Southside plant, the Pittsburgh district was down 15 points last week to 82 per cent of capacity. The Cleveland district, affected by a walkout of 2,800 at Republic Steel's strip mill, declined eight points last week to 86 per cent of capacity. Both of these wildcat strikes had ended by Thursday.

"Steel" said more foreign steel has come into Chicago this year than in all of 1958, and the flow will increase sharply in event of a strike. Speculators have stockpiled some 50,000 tons of imported steel in the Houston area, "Steel" reported. And Japanese mills are offerng West Coast users 500 tons a month during any strike, provided the purchaser contracts for that amount over a period of at least six months.

The journal's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting scrap held unchanged last week at $36.50 a gross ton.

'Interest On Interest' Draws Patnam Attack

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Inflation and the recent increase in the national debt ceiling were blamed Sunday by Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex) on a high interest policy instituted in 1953.

Patman, member of the House Banking and Currency Committee, said:

"If the administration in 1953 had not increased interest rates they would not have asked Congress to increase the national debt limit six times, as they have.

"And Congress has increased it six times. We've been paying interest on interest."

Home-Delivered Mail Leaves Villagers Cold

RAHNS, Pa. (AP)—The folks in this rural southeastern Pennsylvania hamlet gave home-delivered mail a try. They didn't like it.

Eighty-nine of the 118 residents have signed a petition asking the Post Office Department to go back to the old system of delivering mail to the branch post office in the village store.

Questions And Answers Offer More Helpful Tips

Question: We are planning to repaint our house, inside and out. We read somehwere about paints that retard flames. Can these be purchased now or are they something for the future? Can you tell us something about them?

Answer: Fire retardant paints are now being sold in large quantities, although some retail dealers may not have them in stock at present. These paints work in one of three ways, and most of them employ more than one of these properties.

Some of the paints release vapors such as carbon dioxide and nitrogen, which do not support combustion. Some swell and form a honeycombed insulating layer which holds back fire. And some form a glazed surface which prevents the under layer from reaching the point of ignition.

There also are other technical considerations which these paints must meet to qualify as fire retardant. If you decide to use fire retardant paints, do not neglect the usual safety precautions in your home. Remember that these paints slow down fires; they do not prevent them.

QUESTION: The wallpaper in our dining room is dirty in spots but otherwise in good condition. When the paper was bought a couple of years ago, we were told that it was not washable. Can the soiled areas be cleaned without water?

Answer: If the paper is only slightly soiled, cleaning it with semi-stale bread will be sufficient. Rub large pieces of this bread, from which the curst has been removed, over the surface of the paper. Working wide, sweeping strokes, overlapping the cleaned portions. As the bread becomes soiled, fold under to a clean section.

Where the bread treatment will not accomplish the job, buy one of the wallpaper cleaners — a substance similar to putty. Dirt adheres to it when the cleaner is lightly rubbed against the paper. Since this is the cause, the mass must be constantly kneaded in the hand so the fresh, clean parts are brought out. After cleaning, the paper should be brushed very lightly to remove all very tiny pieces of the cleaner that might have clung to the paper.

QUESTION: I expect to put down a hardwood floor in our attic. I have done a lot of carpentry work, so anticipate no trouble in that direction. But is there anything particular I should know about the handling of this material?

Answer: Here are four precautions which the manufacturers of hardwood suggest to builders:

(1) Do not lay hardwood floors until plastering, cement and tile work are thoroughly dried and woodwork and trim installed. (2) The room should not be damp, cold or unheated. Summer months are no exception, particularly in areas where high humidity occurs. (3) Turn on the heating system and open doors and windows so that excess moisture can escape. Large fans also help in driving out damp air. (4) Turn on the heat at least 10 days prior to laying the flooring. Keep the heat on at all times if there is a suspicion that the house or building is not reasonaboy dry.

Mount Union Adds Three To Faculty

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Mount Union College has announced the addition of three professors to its faculty for the 1959-60 school year.

Dr. Earl Louis Russell Jr., associate professor of English, replaces Phillip P. Stevick, who is taking a leave of absence for doctoral study at Ohio State.

John R. Reid, visiting assistant professor of geology, replaces Dr. William A. Rice, who will be teaching at the University of Illinois while on a leave of absence.

Succeeding Dr. Arthur F. Engelbert, who left at midyear to become Dean of Washburn University, Topeka, Kan., is Rinehart E. Kyler, assistant professor of modern languages.

A native of Cleveland, Dr. Russell is a graduate of Adelbert College of Western Reserve University, has his master's degree from Columbia and his doctorate from Western Reserve. He is presently at Marietta College.

Reid earned his master's degree at the University of Michigan, where he has almost completed his doctorate while teaching, and did his undergraduate work at Tufts.

Born in Breslau, Germany, Kyler is a graduate of Luther College and Yale, finishing the oral field exam for a doctorate at the latter school. He has been an instructor at the College of Wooster since 1956.

'Help' Groups Available For Home Owners

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Everybody wants to do something for the home owner — at a price, of course.

Organizations are springing up all over the country to make it easy for the home owner to get prompt, reliable services of all kinds at fair, prevailing prices. It works like this:

The home owner is assured quick attention 24 hours a day, seven days a week. When something goes wrong in the house, he calls a central telephone number and explains his problem.

From there on it is up to the organization to see that a skilled plumber, electrician, carpenter or other serviceman does the job promptly, efficiently and at a reasonable price. This includes emergency service at odd hours, which might be necessary, for instance, when a pipe bursts in the middle of the night.

The home owner pays the organization a certain annual fee. One charges "dues" of $10 for the first year and $5 annually thereafter. Another charges $12 a year. The serviceman pays the organization a certain percentage of the bill, usually 10 per cent.

What does the home owner get for his annual fee? And why should the serviceman give 10 per cent of his bill to somebody else?

The organizations (they have such names as the Allied Homeowners Assn. and the National Home Owners Club) say that the customer no longer has to take pot-luck when it comes to finding the right craftsmen to do the job.

All repairmen are screened, all must conform to reasonable price schedules and all must agree to return to check the work if a member is dissatisfied.

An organization man personally inspects the larger jobs to be certain everything has been done properly. All this in addition to the obvious advantage of getting quick service at any hour of the day or night.

It is said that the servicemen are glad to pay the 10 per cent commission. They are assured of a large volume of business from organization members without solicitation costs or waste of time.

And they are guaranteed payment. The failure of a contractor to live up to organization standards means that his name is removed from the list.

One of the outfits has come up with an addition to its program. It is offering a special vacationtime house watcher service. It even includes watering indoor plants.

Bomb Shelter Picked For Honeymoon Spot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A couple who will wed Sunday will spend a sheltered honeymoon—in an underground bomb shelter — for the greater glory of civil defense and shelter-manufacturers.

Then they'll have a more orthodox wedding trip at the expense of bomb shelter manufacturers who induced them to spend their first two weeks together 10 feet below North Miami.

Kelley Geiger, 25, a University of Miami Russian major, and Nancy Bellmyre, 23, a dance band singer, plan to climb down through the hatch of the 8-by-14 foot steel and concrete shelter after their wedding and reception.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prevent having moss on the lawn?

A. If you detect any moss on the lawn, it is a bad sign. It indicates either a sour or impoverished soil. For sour soil, apply some hydrated lime and for impoverished soil use a good quality of fertilizer. Practically any soil, however, is benefitted by an application of lime followed a week or two later by fertilizer. Do not apply both of these too close together.

Q. How can I keep the hands from perspiring while sewing?

A. When one is troubled by hands that perspire while sewing, thereby soiling the material, this can be alleviated by bathing the hands in warm water and alcohol.

Q. How can I remove brown stains from aluminum?

A. Remove heavy brown stains from aluminum and enameled cooking utensils by using steel wool and a good, mild, cleansing powder.

Husbands Will Get In On The Act

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

This year, there will be some changes made.

Three years ago, a group of businessmen announced plans for a confab between the United States housewife and one of the giants of American industry, home building. The session was called the Women's Housing Congress.

The women were asked by manufacturers, contractors and home builders to give their ideas on the way houses should be designed, built, operated and serviced.

Pop was asked to do nothing but stay at home and mind the kids while his spouse went to Washington to sound off like a Congressman during an election campaign.

The hosts and guests at the Women's Housing Congress agreed everything was fine. Delegates passed out ideas by the carload. The industry soaked up the suggestions, promised new houses, new products — and more Women's Housing Congresses.

FOR THREE years, Pop read how Mom and the housing people were planning to let him live. Many of the women's suggestions were put into effect. Plans for houses built in line with the desires of the Women's Housing Congress were drawn up and sold.

It appeared that the women would continue indefinitely to dictate how houses should be built and what should go into them.

But nobody suddenly discovered that it might be a good idea to cater to the tastes of the man of the house. And so, this year, for the first time, Pop has been invited to attend.

The men will not be at the annual parley in Washington merely as a husbands' auxiliary. They will be there on equal status. In fact, this year, the whole thing—to be held Sept. 15-17 — will be known as the Family Conference on Housing instead of the Women's Housing Congress.

HUSBANDS and wives from approximately 50 cities throughout the United States will be sent to the capital by the local chapters of the National Association of Home Builders.

In Washington they will be the guests of a dozen or more industry organizations who originally formed the Women's Housing Congress, Inc., to sponsor the earlier meetings.

As usual, each industry will submit questions to be discussed, this time by members of both sexes.

At the moment, the big problem is — should the couples sit at the same table during the talks or should the males be allowed the freedom of speech they often can enjoy only out of earshot of their wives?

Shelves Offer Way To Meet Space Needs

AP Newsfeatures

If you aren't getting enough mileage out of your small kitchen appliances, it couuld be that you haven't organized them.

One reason why such items as hot dog cookers, waffle irons, sandwich grills and portable roasters are relegated to the basement "for special occasions" may be that they are not strategically placed for immediate use.

Mom doesn't feel like cleaning out a cabinet every time she wants to reach a blender or a hibachi. These things should be at her fingertips.

The only trouble is that the kitchen probably was built before the advent of these time savers, and there just aren't enough shelves to go around.

Now is the time to solve the problem and put these useful articles to work. Examine all the floor space and air space available, and see where you can put some shelves to house your small appliances.

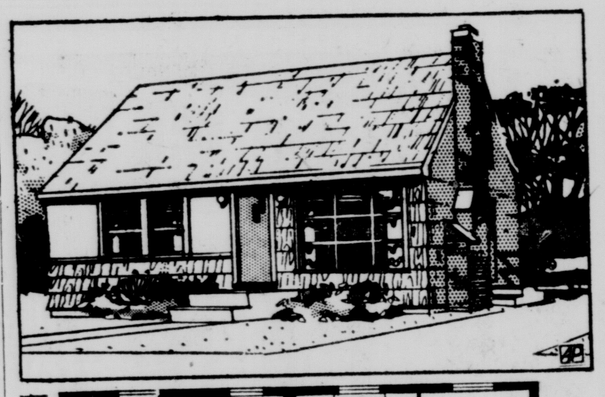
Is there room for a portable unit with three or more shelves?

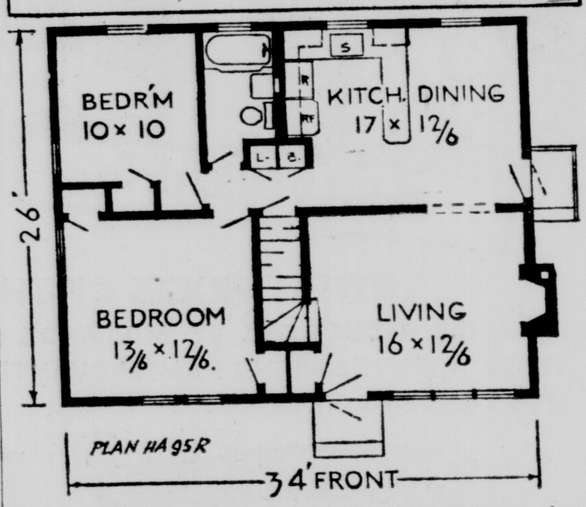
Is there wall space for the number of shelves you need?

Is there some way you could suspend a cabinet from the ceiling?

Is there a useful cabinet in another room — den, library, living room — where these articles could be put in their private niche to be removed without strain and stress when they are needed?

Another thought is to examine utensil cabinets and weed out all the pot boilers and rusty frying pans that clutter those areas.





ECONOMY HOUSE. This tidy home has two bedrooms downstairs, and room for two more and a bath in an expansion attic upstairs. The square foot area of the first floor is 884 square feet. The plan is HA95R by Architect Jan Reiner, P. O. Box 96, New Port Richey, Fla.

Walkout Ends In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A 10-day strike against the Kansas City Star and the Kansas City Kansan ended Sunday when striking printers accepted two-year contracts.

The Star resumed publication today with an 18-page edition of its morning Times. The newspaper, which contained no paid advertising, summarized news events since the paper was shut down June 18 and brought readers up to date on comic strips.

Members of Local 80 of the International Typographical Union voted 285-94 to accept the contract, which replaces agreements that expired last Sept. 30.

Key issue in the strike was a union demand for higher holiday pay. The printers had sought 7½ hours of double time pay for 5 hours work on six recognized holidays. Under the new contract, they will work a 5-hour holiday at double time. Printers whose normal days off fall on any of the holidays, and who do not work, will receive 5 hours pay at straight time.

Pay increase of $3 weekly retroactive to Oct. 1, 1958, will boost the scale to $123.50 a week for day workers and $129 for night workers. A $4-a-week increase will go into effect next Oct. 1.

These Fish Pampered In Pure-Water Home

TORONTO, Canada (AP) — Some of the world's most pampered fish live in an aquarium located at a new oil refinery near here. Water in the 4,200-gallon aquarium is purer than in their native habitat.

R. J. Hull, president of Cities Service Oil Co. Ltd., says the acquarium was built to demonstrate the efficiency of what he claims is the world's most advanced water purification system.

The system, Hull says, takes water after it has been used in refining oil and returns it to Lake Ontario in a purer state than when it was removed.

Investigation Set In Fire Deaths Of Migrant Workers

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—The state fire marshal's office has been called to investigate a blaze that killed two Mexican migrant workers in a wood hut Sunday.

Firemen said when they arrived at the shack behind the Gypsum Canning Co. they found the door of the shanty locked from the outside with a peg.

The bodies of Joe Betancur, 18, of Holgate, Ohio, and John Juan Torres, 21, of Brownsville, Tex., were found in the charred ruins of the 10 by 16-foot shack.

Police Chief William Robel said the building had one door and three windows.

The said the two attended a dance Saturday night and returned to the cabin about midnight with a third man, who left later.

In A Squeeze? Why Not Try Remodeling?

CHICAGO — If you are caught in a squeeze between a growing family and a locally tight money market for new construction, don't abandon hope but instead, consider remodeling.

The magic of modernization will give you a new home at the old address. Every structurally sound house has in it many more years of usefulness as a result of a carefully-planned rehabilitation program.

The most conservative lender often will loosen the purse strings more readily for remodeling than for new construction, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau. Apparently he feels safer in loaning to someone who has built a substantial equity in a piece of property.

Projects likely to win approval for such loans are modernization of an old bathroom, installation of an additional bathroom, powder room modernization or installation of a new powder room, re-doing the kitchen and up-dating the heating system, the bureau reports.

Bathrooms and kitchens are always high up on the list of vital spots which need improvement in older houses. It is here that obsolescence as well as constant wear and tear are likely to show up.

The bureau advises owners to get the advice of an experienced plumbing and heating contractor and with his help work out a remodeling timetable for the various projects that should be done over a period of years.

Actress Terry Moore On Third Honeymoon

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Terry Moore and her third husband, wealthy socialite businessman Stuart Cramer III, began a honeymoon today aboard his yacht off the California coast.

They were married Sunday night at the Church of the Hills in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. About 100 friends of both families attended the ceremony.

Miss Moore is 29 and Cramer 34.

Prosecution Winding Up In Klumpp Trial

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Edythe Klumpp is expected to end her long stay in the witness chair today as the prosecution winds up its cross-examination.

The 41-year-old blonde divorcee is accused of the fatal shooting and beating of Mrs. Louise Bergen, 32, last Oct. 30. Mrs. Bergen's body was burned the following day at Lake Cowan in nearby Clinton County.

The state claims Mrs. Klumpp wanted to marry Mrs. Bergen's estranged husband, William, 30, with whom she had been living for several months.

The first-degree murder trial, which goes into its fourth week today, is expected to go to the jury Wednesday.

After Asst. Prisecutor Harry Schoettmer concludes his cross-examination, defense attorney William F. Hopkins said he will call two more witnesses, including Mrs. Klumpp's oldest daughter, Jill, 17.

The state will have an opportunity to call rebuttal witnesses and then final arguments will follow.

Mrs. Klumpp took the witness stand early Thursday and spent that day telling the court of her life and of the shooting which she says was an accident. The mother of four said Mrs. Bergen threatened her with a pistol and was accidentally shot in the struggle for the weapon.

Friday she stuck to her story despite a four-hour cross-examination.

After Asst. Prisecutor Harry Schoettmer concludes his cross-examination, defense attorney William F. Hopkins said he will call two more witnesses, including Mrs. Klumpp's oldest daughter, Jill, 17.

The state will have an opportunity to call rebuttal witnesses and then final arguments will follow.

Mrs. Klumpp took the witness stand early Thursday and spent that day telling the court of her life and of the shooting which she says was an accident. The mother of four said Mrs. Bergen threatened her with a pistol and was accidentally shot in the struggle for the weapon.

Friday she stuck to her story despite a four-hour cross-examination.

Gas Truck Runs Wild, Explodes Near Town

ST. MARY, Mont. (AP) — A huge gasoline truck hurtled out of control down a mountain highway for a half-mile Sunday, crashing at the edge of this resort town in a spectacular explosion.

The truck's driver, Floyd B. Cole, 28, was killed.

Both trailers of the 36-ton truck, carrying 6,850 gallons of diesel fuel, exploded as it smashed into a row of gasoline pumps.

Shelves Offer Way To Meet Space Needs

AP Newsfeatures

If you aren't getting enough mileage out of your small kitchen appliances, it couuld be that you haven't organized them.

One reason why such items as hot dog cookers, waffle irons, sandwich grills and portable roasters are relegated to the basement "for special occasions" may be that they are not strategically placed for immediate use.

Mom doesn't feel like cleaning out a cabinet every time she wants to reach a blender or a hibachi. These things should be at her fingertips.

The only trouble is that the kitchen probably was built before the advent of these time savers, and there just aren't enough shelves to go around.

Now is the time to solve the problem and put these useful articles to work. Examine all the floor space and air space available, and see where you can put some shelves to house your small appliances.

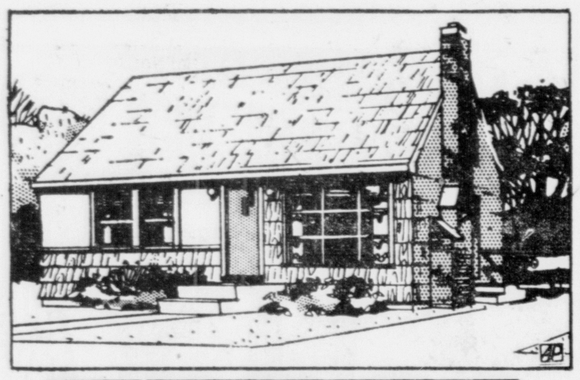
Is there room for a portable unit with three or more shelves?

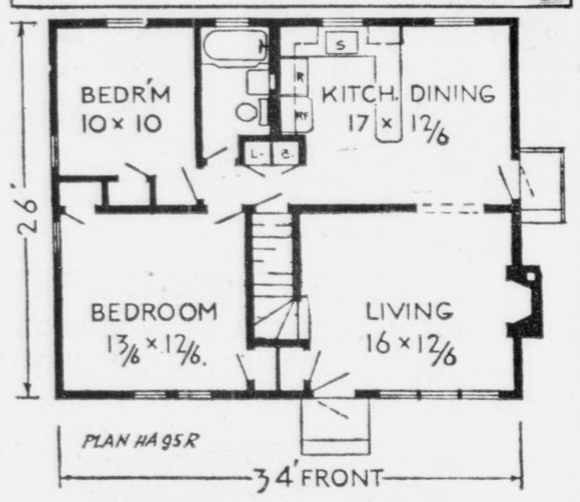
Is there wall space for the number of shelves you need?

Is there some way you could suspend a cabinet from the ceiling?

Is there a useful cabinet in another room — den, library, living room — where these articles could be put in their private niche to be removed without strain and stress when they are needed?

Another thought is to examine utensil cabinets and weed out all the pot boilers and rusty frying pans that clutter those areas.





ECONOMY HOUSE. This tidy home has two bedrooms downstairs, and room for two more and a bath in an expansion attic upstairs. The square foot area of the first floor is 884 square feet. The plan is HA95R by Architect Jan Reiner, P. O. Box 96, New Port Richey, Fla.

In A Squeeze? Why Not Try Remodeling?

CHICAGO — If you are caught in a squeeze between a growing family and a locally tight money market for new construction, don't abandon hope but instead, consider remodeling.

The magic of modernization will give you a new home at the old address. Every structurally sound house has in it many more years of usefulness as a result of a carefully-planned rehabilitation program.

The most conservative lender often will loosen the purse strings more readily for remodeling than for new construction, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau. Apparently he feels safer in loaning to someone who has built a substantial equity in a piece of property.

Projects likely to win approval for such loans are modernization of an old bathroom, installation of an additional bathroom, powder room modernization or installation of a new powder room, re-doing the kitchen and up-dating the heating system, the bureau reports.

Bathrooms and kitchens are always high up on the list of vital spots which need improvement in older houses. It is here that obsolescence as well as constant wear and tear are likely to show up.

The bureau advises owners to get the advice of an experienced plumbing and heating contractor and with his help work out a remodeling timetable for the various projects that should be done over a period of years.

Investigation Set In Fire Deaths Of Migrant Workers

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—The state fire marshal's office has been called to investigate a blaze that killed two Mexican migrant workers in a wood hut Sunday.

Firemen said when they arrived at the shack behind the Gypsum Canning Co. they found the door of the shanty locked from the outside with a peg.

The bodies of Joe Betancur, 18, of Holgate, Ohio, and John Juan Torres, 21, of Brownsville, Tex., were found in the charred ruins of the 10 by 16-foot shack.

Police Chief William Robel said the building had one door and three windows.

The said the two attended a dance Saturday night and returned to the cabin about midnight with a third man, who left later.

Walkout Ends In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A 10-day strike against the Kansas City Star and the Kansas City Kansan ended Sunday when striking printers accepted two-year contracts.

The Star resumed publication today with an 18-page edition of its morning Times. The newspaper, which contained no paid advertising, summarized news events since the paper was shut down June 18 and brought readers up to date on comic strips.

Members of Local 80 of the International Typographical Union voted 285-94 to accept the contract, which replaces agreements that expired last Sept. 30.

Key issue in the strike was a union demand for higher holiday pay. The printers had sought 7½ hours of double time pay for 5 hours work on six recognized holidays. Under the new contract, they will work a 5-hour holiday at double time. Printers whose normal days off fall on any of the holidays, and who do not work, will receive 5 hours pay at straight time.

Pay increase of $3 weekly retroactive to Oct. 1, 1958, will boost the scale to $123.50 a week for day workers and $129 for night workers. A $4-a-week increase will go into effect next Oct. 1.

These Fish Pampered In Pure-Water Home

TORONTO, Canada (AP) — Some of the world's most pampered fish live in an aquarium located at a new oil refinery near here. Water in the 4,200-gallon aquarium is purer than in their native habitat.

R. J. Hull, president of Cities Service Oil Co. Ltd., says the acquarium was built to demonstrate the efficiency of what he claims is the world's most advanced water purification system.

The system, Hull says, takes water after it has been used in refining oil and returns it to Lake Ontario in a purer state than when it was removed.

County Official Speaks To 40 At Grange Event

LISBON — Forty members attended the meeting of the West Point Grange Friday evening at the Grange Hall and William Martin, master, presided.

County Commissioner R. Max Gard was guest speaker. Two plays were presented, one by the Juvenile Grange and other by the adult members. The juvenile sextet also sang.

The next meeting will be July 10 at 8:30 p. m.

Local Government Aid Hits $444,255

A total of $444,255 was returned to Columbiana County by the state for local government funds in 1958, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported at Columbus.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, the state provided $50 million for local government funds in the state's 88 counties — the largest sum ever returned in a single year, exceeding by $1.4 million the total paid the preceding year.

The distribution of the money—which comes from state sales taxes and intangible taxes paid by financial institutions and dealers in securities — is allocated on the basis of the county tax duplicate and population. The sum the county received is distributed further on an allocation authorized by the County Budget Commission.

The distribution by the state to the county was $197,168 in sales tax funds, $242,652 in intangible taxes paid by financial institutions and $4,433 paid in intangible tax by securities dealers.

Sunshine Boys Quartet Awaited At Salineville

The Sunshine Boys, a spiritual quartet which sings over district radio and television stations, will present a program at the Salineville High School July 16 at 8 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Friendship Circle of the Presbyterian Church.

The quartet, whose headquarters is at Wheeling, also has made records and appeared in movies. Proceeds from the concert will be used for the church building fund, Mrs. Arthur Lewis said.

Citizens' Role Pointed Out In School Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"The success of our public school system is due largely to the responsibility placed upon local citizens and the school boards they elect. Any plan which further reduces their authority and responsibility will inevitably result in weakening our schools."

Charles B. Shuman of Sullivan, Ill., American Farm Bureau Federation president, made that statement today in his prepared keynote address for a federation conference that opened here Sunday night and continues through Wednesday.

Shuman said that "if we don't have well-educated people we can't expect our free choice system to work." This means that schools must have curricula that help students get a true concept of America's competitive enterprise system as well as self - government principles, he stressed.

He pointed out that educational improvements could come through increased interest by farmers on the local level. Relying on expanded federal aid to education involves increased control and "the eventual domination of the public school system by the federal government," he said.

More than 250 farm bureau leaders in the eastern half of the nation are attending the conference on the Ohio State University campus. The federation is the U. S.' largest general farm organization.

3rd Meeting Arranged In Lisbon Firm's Strike

LISBON — Another meeting will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. between union and management of the R. Thomas Works of the H. K. Porter Co. in an attempt to settle a strike that started June 6.

It will be the third meeting of the two groups with a representative of the Youngstown office of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. About 120 production and maintenance workers are idle.

The union contract expired May 31. Production ceased when Local 797, United Brick and Clay Workers, voted to strike.

Union and management spokesmen said the two former meetings showed "some progress" toward a settlement.

Seaman Graduates

LISBON — Seaman Rct. Henry E. Dillinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin M. Dillinger of R. D. 2, has graduated from boot training at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill.

Miss Amato Honored

'Queen' Crowned

Miss Frances Amato is shown receiving a crown of white carnations to reign as "queen" at the annual spring formal "Starlight Ball" sponsored by City Hospital student nurses Saturday night at the Calcutta Fire Hall. Approximately 100 attended.

Miss Amato was crowned by Miss LaWanda Sheline, 1958 queen. Her court included Miss Caroline Kelly and Miss Nancy Berkley, freshmen; Miss Nedra Baldwin and Miss Nancy Knight, juniors, and Miss Kathleen Proctor and Miss Barbara Derda, seniors. The queen received a bouquet of red roses and the attendants were given white carnation nosegays.

George Hamilton and his orchestra provided music. Guests were Miss Nell Robinson, superintendant; Mrs. Sarah Davis, director of nurses, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sloane. Mrs. Sloane is an instructor.

Mrs. Kenneth Berkley and Mrs. Eleanor Engle assisted the student committee in serving lunch.

Multi-color stars covered the walls and were suspended from the ceiling. Pink strips and stars decorated the tables. A crystal punchbowl and matching triple candelabra with lighted white tapers completed the buffet table decor.

Nigeria, in British West Africa, with 23 million persons, has the largest population in the British, French, Belgian and Portuguese colonies.

Baseball, Football Share Spotlight On Channel 11

Pittsburgh Cavalcade Salutes Bicentennial

Baseball and football share the spotlight this week with the announcement that Channel 11 will televise the All Star Baseball game and banquet plus the complete University of Pittsburgh home and away football schedule this Fall.

Next week Channel 11 televises the All Star Baseball Banquet, Monday July 6, direct from the ballroom of the Penn Sheraton Hotel in Pittsburgh. Vice President Richard Nixon will present special awards to Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams and St. Louis Cardinal first - sacker Stan Musial.

George Jessel will be toastmaster for the affair which gets underway at 10 p. m. All Star players from both leagues as well as New York Yankee manager Casey Stengel and Milwaukee Brave pilot Fred Haney will make an appearance at the pre-game banquet.

Channel 11's Mal Alberts will handle the commentary for the 60-minute presentation.

The following afternoon, NBC and WIIC will televise the colorful All Star game from Pittsburgh's Forbes Field at 12:30 p. m. Channel 11 General Manager Robert A. Mortensen cleared up a misconception by saying, "The game definitely will be on television and WIIC will be carrying it."

Moving to the gridiron sport, Channel 11 further bolstered its television sports schedule with the announcement that all University of Pittsburgh home and away football games will be carried by WIIC this Fall.

Beginning September 20 with the Pitt-Marquette game, the station will videotape the entire game for re-play the following day.

Mal Alberts will do the play-by-play accounts of the Sunday afternoon series of college football. Arrangements for the television coverage were completed through the University of Pittsburgh Director of Athletics Thomas J. Hamilton, according to WIIC General Manager Mortensen.

Mortensen said "The programs will permit those who attend the Saturday games to re-live the excitement and color of the contest the following day. Those unable to attend the games at the Stadium will now have a chance to follow the fine calibre of football played by Pitt."

So, you fans in the area who have never had the opportunity to see top-flight college football will now be able to see the Pitt Panthers in action each week-end. Pitt's schedule includes Marquette, Southern California, UCLA, Duke, West Virginia, Texas Christian, Syracuse, Boston College, Notre Dame and Penn State.

"Pittsburgh Cavalcade" Begins

The first of a series of special Bicentennial spectaculars to be presented by WIIC will explore the Bicentennial publication, "A Pittsburgh Album".

The special series, entitled "Pittsburgh Cavalcade", was conceived by WIIC Director of Productions Fritz Kleibacker. Kleibacker will also produce and direct each of the "Pittsburgh Cavalcade" telecasts.

The first program, scheduled early next month, will describe in narration and photos, the recently-published Bicentennial edition of "A Pittsburgh Album, 1758-1958". The 96-page pictorial history of Pittsburgh was co-published by WIIC, radio station WWSW and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

The initial show is being written by Daniel Marder with the music composed by the University of Pittsburgh's Colin Sterne.

Other special "Pittsburgh Cavalcade" shows on tap this year will be devoted to education, medicine, rivers, sports, music and possibly the theatre and science.

Alliance Motorist Fined $100, Jailed

LISBON — Cecil Ware, 23, of Alliance was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 3 days in jail at a hearing Sunday before Mayor John Todd on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Two others were fined a total of $80 and costs and three others forfeited $35 on traffic violations. Fined were:

George K. House, 18, of 315 Pritchard Ave., $50 and costs for no driver's license and $15 and costs for no muffler.

Richard Boston, 23, of Salineville R. D. 1, $15 and costs for no muffler.

Forfeiting were: Virgil Hoffee, 56, of Wilson, Pa., $10, and Carl E. Klude, 32, of Warren, $15, both for speeding, and Fenn J. Hillenbrand, 36, of Cleveland, $10 for passing at an intersection.

All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

County Official Speaks To 40 At Grange Event

LISBON — Forty members attended the meeting of the West Point Grange Friday evening at the Grange Hall and William Martin, master, presided.

County Commissioner R. Max Gard was guest speaker. Two plays were presented, one by the Juvenile Grange and other by the adult members. The juvenile sextet also sang.

The next meeting will be July 10 at 8:30 p. m.

Local Government Aid Hits $444,255

A total of $444,255 was returned to Columbiana County by the state for local government funds in 1958, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported at Columbus.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, the state provided $50 million for local government funds in the state's 88 counties — the largest sum ever returned in a single year, exceeding by $1.4 million the total paid the preceding year.

The distribution of the money—which comes from state sales taxes and intangible taxes paid by financial institutions and dealers in securities — is allocated on the basis of the county tax duplicate and population. The sum the county received is distributed further on an allocation authorized by the County Budget Commission.

The distribution by the state to the county was $197,168 in sales tax funds, $242,652 in intangible taxes paid by financial institutions and $4,433 paid in intangible tax by securities dealers.

Sunshine Boys Quartet Awaited At Salineville

The Sunshine Boys, a spiritual quartet which sings over district radio and television stations, will present a program at the Salineville High School July 16 at 8 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Friendship Circle of the Presbyterian Church.

The quartet, whose headquarters is at Wheeling, also has made records and appeared in movies. Proceeds from the concert will be used for the church building fund, Mrs. Arthur Lewis said.

Citizens' Role Pointed Out In School Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"The success of our public school system is due largely to the responsibility placed upon local citizens and the school boards they elect. Any plan which further reduces their authority and responsibility will inevitably result in weakening our schools."

Charles B. Shuman of Sullivan, Ill., American Farm Bureau Federation president, made that statement today in his prepared keynote address for a federation conference that opened here Sunday night and continues through Wednesday.

Shuman said that "if we don't have well-educated people we can't expect our free choice system to work." This means that schools must have curricula that help students get a true concept of America's competitive enterprise system as well as self - government principles, he stressed.

He pointed out that educational improvements could come through increased interest by farmers on the local level. Relying on expanded federal aid to education involves increased control and "the eventual domination of the public school system by the federal government," he said.

More than 250 farm bureau leaders in the eastern half of the nation are attending the conference on the Ohio State University campus. The federation is the U. S.' largest general farm organization.

3rd Meeting Arranged In Lisbon Firm's Strike

LISBON — Another meeting will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. between union and management of the R. Thomas Works of the H. K. Porter Co. in an attempt to settle a strike that started June 6.

It will be the third meeting of the two groups with a representative of the Youngstown office of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. About 120 production and maintenance workers are idle.

The union contract expired May 31. Production ceased when Local 797, United Brick and Clay Workers, voted to strike.

Union and management spokesmen said the two former meetings showed "some progress" toward a settlement.

Seaman Graduates

LISBON — Seaman Rct. Henry E. Dillinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin M. Dillinger of R. D. 2, has graduated from boot training at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill.

Miss Amato Honored

'Queen' Crowned

Miss Frances Amato is shown receiving a crown of white carnations to reign as "queen" at the annual spring formal "Starlight Ball" sponsored by City Hospital student nurses Saturday night at the Calcutta Fire Hall. Approximately 100 attended.

Miss Amato was crowned by Miss LaWanda Sheline, 1958 queen. Her court included Miss Caroline Kelly and Miss Nancy Berkley, freshmen; Miss Nedra Baldwin and Miss Nancy Knight, juniors, and Miss Kathleen Proctor and Miss Barbara Derda, seniors. The queen received a bouquet of red roses and the attendants were given white carnation nosegays.

George Hamilton and his orchestra provided music. Guests were Miss Nell Robinson, superintendant; Mrs. Sarah Davis, director of nurses, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sloane. Mrs. Sloane is an instructor.

Mrs. Kenneth Berkley and Mrs. Eleanor Engle assisted the student committee in serving lunch.

Multi-color stars covered the walls and were suspended from the ceiling. Pink strips and stars decorated the tables. A crystal punchbowl and matching triple candelabra with lighted white tapers completed the buffet table decor.

Nigeria, in British West Africa, with 23 million persons, has the largest population in the British, French, Belgian and Portuguese colonies.

Baseball, Football Share Spotlight On Channel 11

Pittsburgh Cavalcade Salutes Bicentennial

Baseball and football share the spotlight this week with the announcement that Channel 11 will televise the All Star Baseball game and banquet plus the complete University of Pittsburgh home and away football schedule this Fall.

Next week Channel 11 televises the All Star Baseball Banquet, Monday July 6, direct from the ballroom of the Penn Sheraton Hotel in Pittsburgh. Vice President Richard Nixon will present special awards to Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams and St. Louis Cardinal first - sacker Stan Musial.

George Jessel will be toastmaster for the affair which gets underway at 10 p. m. All Star players from both leagues as well as New York Yankee manager Casey Stengel and Milwaukee Brave pilot Fred Haney will make an appearance at the pre-game banquet.

Channel 11's Mal Alberts will handle the commentary for the 60-minute presentation.

The following afternoon, NBC and WIIC will televise the colorful All Star game from Pittsburgh's Forbes Field at 12:30 p. m. Channel 11 General Manager Robert A. Mortensen cleared up a misconception by saying, "The game definitely will be on television and WIIC will be carrying it."

Moving to the gridiron sport, Channel 11 further bolstered its television sports schedule with the announcement that all University of Pittsburgh home and away football games will be carried by WIIC this Fall.

Beginning September 20 with the Pitt-Marquette game, the station will videotape the entire game for re-play the following day.

Mal Alberts will do the play-by-play accounts of the Sunday afternoon series of college football. Arrangements for the television coverage were completed through the University of Pittsburgh Director of Athletics Thomas J. Hamilton, according to WIIC General Manager Mortensen.

Mortensen said "The programs will permit those who attend the Saturday games to re-live the excitement and color of the contest the following day. Those unable to attend the games at the Stadium will now have a chance to follow the fine calibre of football played by Pitt."

So, you fans in the area who have never had the opportunity to see top-flight college football will now be able to see the Pitt Panthers in action each week-end. Pitt's schedule includes Marquette, Southern California, UCLA, Duke, West Virginia, Texas Christian, Syracuse, Boston College, Notre Dame and Penn State.

"Pittsburgh Cavalcade" Begins

The first of a series of special Bicentennial spectaculars to be presented by WIIC will explore the Bicentennial publication, "A Pittsburgh Album".

The special series, entitled "Pittsburgh Cavalcade", was conceived by WIIC Director of Productions Fritz Kleibacker. Kleibacker will also produce and direct each of the "Pittsburgh Cavalcade" telecasts.

The first program, scheduled early next month, will describe in narration and photos, the recently-published Bicentennial edition of "A Pittsburgh Album, 1758-1958". The 96-page pictorial history of Pittsburgh was co-published by WIIC, radio station WWSW and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

The initial show is being written by Daniel Marder with the music composed by the University of Pittsburgh's Colin Sterne.

Other special "Pittsburgh Cavalcade" shows on tap this year will be devoted to education, medicine, rivers, sports, music and possibly the theatre and science.

4 Youngsters, Adult Hurt By Park, Pool Accidents

Four area youngsters and an adult hurt in park and pool mishaps were treated at City Hospital over the weekend, along with 11 others injured in other accidents.

Blaine Clendenning, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clendenning, 316 Grant St., was treated Sunday afternoon for a cut of the right eyelid suffered when he dove into the Thompson Park pool and hit another youth who was swimming.

Randy Bricker, 9, of Grant St., Newell, suffered a cut of the left foot when he fell at Lake Marwin yesterday afternoon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bricker.

Also hurt in a fall at the pool at Lake Marwin, Debra Smurda, 6, daughter of Mrs. Mary Smurda of Toronto, received a cut of the forehead yesterday.

Peter Hawrylak, 25, of Beaver Falls was treated Sunday for a laceration of the scalp suffered while swimming in Beaver Creek at Fredericktown.

Jeffery Corbett, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corbett, 1125 Vine St., was treated for a possible fracture of the left arm received in a fall at a park Saturday.

Donna Papendry, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Papendry, 1911 Ohio Ave., was bitten on the face by a neighbor's dog last night.

Joseph Arthur, 3, son of Mrs. Carol Arthur, 1948 Dresden Ave., received cuts of the lip and forehead in a fall from the top of a car while at play last night.

Injured in a fall while playing was Richard Robinson, 3, son of Mrs. Dorothy Robinson of Michigan Ave., who was treated yesterday for a sprained ankle.

Robert M. Marquette, 218 Pennsylvania Ave., was treated yesterday afternoon for an injury of the left wrist suffered in a fall at a bowling alley.

Struck on the head by a playmate with a croquet mallet, Cheryl Clutter, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clutter, 1706 Alpha St., received a cut of the scalp Sunday.

Robert Frye, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frye of Montana Ave., suffered a cut of the right knee while visiting an aunt yesterday.

While at work at Dairyland, Hilda Smith of Calcutta received a cut of the thumb. She was treated Sunday morning.

Sharon Yanni, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yanni of St. Clair Ave., suffered a cut of the forehead in a fall Saturday.

Daniel Bain, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bain of Weirton, was treated Saturday night for a cut of the head received in a fall out of a car onto a curb.

Jerry Hanlon, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hanlon of LaCroft, received an injury of the left foot in a fall at home Saturday.

Lucy Fulmer, 10, of McKee St. was treated Saturday for a cut of the knee suffered in a fall from a bicycle.

Rhee Makes New Bid To Sell His Successor

SEOUL (AP) — President Syngman Rhee today launched a new effort to sell National Assembly President Lee Ki-poong to the voting public as his successor.

The 84-year-old president, who has decided to run for a fourth term in 1960, recommended to his ruling Liberal party that Lee be his vice-presidential candidate again.

Montevideo is the capital of Uruguay.

Wilhelm, Burdette May Be Starters For All-Star Game

Teams Picked For July 7 Tilt At Pittsburgh

NEW YORK (AP) — Hoyt Wilhelm, Baltimore's amazing knuckleballer, and Lew Burdette, Milwaukee man of many deliveries, loomed today as the probable starting pitchers in the 26th major league All-Star game, in Pittsburgh, Tuesday, July 7.

The pitchers, as well as the alternates, will be named by last year's pennant-winning managers later in the week. Each team will have 25 players. The players picked for the July game also will play in the second All-Star game in Los Angeles, Aug. 3.

The two managers—Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees and Fred Haney of the Braves — are authorized to add three more players for the second game.

The managers had nothing to do with the selection of the eight starters, picked by the players themselves.

The only unanimous selection was Milwaukee's Henry Aaron, who joined San Francisco's Willie Mays and Los Angeles' Wally Moon in the National League outfield. Two other Braves—catcher Del Crandall and third baseman Eddie Mathews—made the N. L. team, along with first baseman Orlando Cepeda of the Giants, second baseman Johnny Temple of the Cincinnati Reds and shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs.

Cleveland and Chicago had two representatives each in the American League's lineup. Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso of Cleveland join Detroit's Al Kaline in the outfield. Shortstop Luis Aparicio and second baseman Nellie Fox of the White Sox form the keystone combination with Bill Skowron of the Yankees at first base and home run leader Harmon Killebrew of Washington at third.

Gus Triandos, Baltimore's slugging receiver, beat out Sherman Lollar and Yogi Berra, for the No. 1 catching job.

Neither Stengel nor Haney has given any indication as to which pitchers they will name. Based on their 1959 records, the following may be chosen:

McBurneys, Golden Star Win

Close One Taken By Chester Team

Chester Legion forged farther ahead with a narrow victory over Medics, Millirons romped over Golden Star and McBurneys captured its first victory to feature Little League action Saturday.

The Legion nine—the pace-setter in the National Division — whipped the Medics, 7-6, as Billy Wright and Dennis Horger teamed up to share mound duties. Chester collected all its runs in the fifth inning.

Wright started and gained credit for the Legion victory, but needed relief help from Horger in the fifth. The pair gave up nine hits as Chester recorded its fourth triumph against one defeat.

Cashdollar doubled for the winners, while Marchbanks doubled for the Medics. Marchbanks was charged with the defeat after being relieved by his battery mate, James.

Millirons clouted 15 hits in walloping Golden Star, 19-0. Millirons, tied with Travelers for the lead in the American Division, plated nine runs in the first and fourth innings to win easily.

Jim Johnson, the winning hurler, fanned 10. Bill Raimond was behind the plate. Johnson banged out two hits for the winners, including a double. Ensinger went two for three. Massey had two hits for Golden Star.

McBurneys waited until the sixth inning to break a 2-2 tie and score three runs to victimize Burbicks. Both squads got four hits, but Burbick errors in the sixth proved the margin of difference.

Leon fanned 10 and Huddleston 12 in a pitcher's battle. Goodballet hit the game's only triple.

Only 15 Yanks In British Bid

MURFIELD, Scotland (AP) — The British Open Golf Championship starts today with only 15 Americans in the field — and all of them are rated 100-1 or longer.

The American entry, even with world senior champion Willie Goggin, is one of the weakest in years.

Qualifying rounds will be played today and Tuesday with a maximum of 100 low scorers going into the championship Wednesday.

Peter Thomson, defending champion from Australia and four time winner of the British title, is favored followed by South Africans Gary Player and Bobby Lockey and British Ryder Cuppers Harry Weeton, Bernard Hunt and Christie O'Connor.

NCAA Crown Won By Houston Golfer

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Husky Dick Crawford has taken the NCAA individual golf crown back to the University of Houston where it remains for the third straight year.

The Houston sophomore, celebrating his 20th birthday, won the 62nd annual tournament Saturday by defeating San Jose State's Jack Luceti 7 and 6 in the 36-hole finals.

Crawford—only No. 4 man on the Houston team which won its fourth straight team championship—follows two previous Houston champions, Rex Baxter in 1957 and Phil Rodgers in 1958.

Bowling Group Plans To Build New Quarters

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Building a new headquarters and doubling tournament prize money are on the agenda of the Bowling Proprietors Assn. of America in the next 12 months.

The alley owners will hold the 1960 All-Star Tourney at Omaha, Neb.

Owners also voted $160,000 to build a headquarters in Chicago's Park View suburb and made tournament prize money $10,000 for men and $5,000 for women.

Daily Double Returns $504 At Waterford

Waterford Park's daily double jackpot skyrocketed into the higher figures Saturday after Friday's double returned the lowest payoff of the summer meeting—$17.20.

Streak-O-Red in the first race combined with Brown Atom—a longshot in the second — to return $504.60. The number combination was 12 and 4.

Paul Ward brought in Streak-O-Red, while Ray Belanger was astride Brown Atom. Brown Atom paid $32, $9.80 and $5.

The 6,545 fans present were treated to a thrilling seventh race with the feature being won by Boxer, with Ward again in the stirrups.

Boxer, Black Eye and Pecan finished in a pack at the wire in probably the best race of the day. Boxer paid its backers $17.40, $7.80 and $3.60.

Here are Saturday's results:

Antonelli Defeats Phillies 7 In Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Don't be surprised if the Philadelphia Phils pull a disappearing act the next time they're scheduled to face Johnny Antonelli.

The San Francisco Giant southpaw thrives on them. His 7-hitter Sunday was good for a 6-0 victory, seventh straight over the Phils. They haven't whipped him since Aug. 11, 1957, and it took a three-hitter by Jack Sanford, now a Giant, to do it. Antonelli beat the Phils earlier this month, 2-1 on another 7-hitter.

The shutout was the fifth for San Francisco over the last place Phils this season. It left the Giants in third place, two games behind league-leading Milwaukee, one game behind second place Los Angeles. It was Antonelli's 11th victory.

Antonelli's 11-4 record contrasts with an 8-5 mark at the same time last year. He's gone the distance in seven victories.

He was 16-13 last season and has had two 20 game seasons, in 1954 and 1956.

First College Squad Captures Foil Crown

LOS ANGELES (AP) — New York University broke precedent to win the men's foil team event at the National Fencing Tournament Friday night.

It was the first time in the 63-year history of the Amateur Fencing League that a college squad has won the foil team crown.

New Heavyweight Champ Will Call His Own Shots

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson's brilliant conquest of the world heavyweight championship has brought a refreshing change to boxing.

It's as welcome as a cool breeze on a hot, humid night.

Johansson Begins Brief Stay In Florida

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Ingemar Johansson, new world heavyweight boxing champion, arrives today to rest and fish South Florida waters before returning to Sweden.

Johansson, who won the heavyweight crown from Floyd Patterson in New York Friday, is to spend a few days at the home of Gustav Von Reis, a Detroit businessman and personal friend.

For the first time in years, the heavyweight champion is a man who calls his own shots, knows his own mind, makes decisions and won't tolerate dictation.

Rocky Marciano and Floyd Patterson were gripped in Svengalitrilby relationships by their managers, Al Weill and Cus D'Amato. Rocky resented and finally rebelled against his portly manager's dictatorial methods and that finally led to their break.

Patterson, up to now, has expressed gratitude and unswerving loyalty to D'Amato for guiding him to the title.

Johansson relies heavily on the opinions of Edwin Ahlquist, Swedish promoter and Dr. Gosta Karlsson, his personal physician. But Ingo has the final word.

INGEMAR JOHANSSON

His father, Jens, a 55-year-old stonecutter and street laborer, is listed as his manager in Europe. Ingemar signed his own contract in New York for the Patterson fight after the New York Athletic Commission refused to permit Harry Davidow, a close friend of D'Amato, to be his 10 per cent manager.

Johansson said he had to cut in Davidow to get his chance at the title. He was delighted when the commission took him off the spot.

Ingemar's independence and toughness are not evidenced by his casual, affable exterior.

He came up the hard way. One of six children of a humble family, Ingo quit school and went to work on street construction gangs at 15. He entered amateur boxing about the same time, and rose to his nation's amateur heavyweight championship at 17. He became the European heavyweight champion in 1956, and three years later won the world crown.

While he was moving up in the pro ranks, Ingo put his ring earnings into an earth-moving, gravel and dirt selling business. As he moved up in the pro ranks, his business grew bigger.

But always, he says, "boxing came first. That's where I got my money."

Irondale Man To Take Post At Painesville

Jack Henderson, a former three-sports star at Irondale High School, has been appointed varsity basketball coach at Harvey High School in Painesville.

A 28-year-old graduate of Kent State University, Henderson has been cutting quite a figure in the coaching ranks at the Lake County school.

In five years as reserve basketball coach, his teams won 57 games and lost only 28. In his five years at Harvey High, Anderson also has served as an assistant varsity and freshman football mentor.

However, it is as a baseball coach that he has been most successful. Since taking over as diamond mentor in 1957, Henderson's squads have compiled 53 victories and only 13 defeats.

Included in that record are three Northeastern Conference baseball titles and a string of 25 NEC victories. His teams did not taste defeat in the conference until the final NEC contest of the 1959 season.

R. B. Oldfather, superintendent of schools there, said Henderson will retain his position as faculty manager of athletics and baseball coach along with the new post. He teaches mathematics and physical education.

Henderson was a court standout for the Irons in the late 1940's under Coach Philip Runyon. He was an All-Eastern Ohio and All-Buckeye League cage selection. The league since has been disbanded.

Wilhelm, Burdette May Be Starters For All-Star Game

Teams Picked For July 7 Tilt At Pittsburgh

NEW YORK (AP) — Hoyt Wilhelm, Baltimore's amazing knuckleballer, and Lew Burdette, Milwaukee man of many deliveries, loomed today as the probable starting pitchers in the 26th major league All-Star game, in Pittsburgh, Tuesday, July 7.

The pitchers, as well as the alternates, will be named by last year's pennant-winning managers later in the week. Each team will have 25 players. The players picked for the July game also will play in the second All-Star game in Los Angeles, Aug. 3.

The two managers—Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees and Fred Haney of the Braves — are authorized to add three more players for the second game.

The managers had nothing to do with the selection of the eight starters, picked by the players themselves.

The only unanimous selection was Milwaukee's Henry Aaron, who joined San Francisco's Willie Mays and Los Angeles' Wally Moon in the National League outfield. Two other Braves—catcher Del Crandall and third baseman Eddie Mathews—made the N. L. team, along with first baseman Orlando Cepeda of the Giants, second baseman Johnny Temple of the Cincinnati Reds and shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs.

Cleveland and Chicago had two representatives each in the American League's lineup. Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso of Cleveland join Detroit's Al Kaline in the outfield. Shortstop Luis Aparicio and second baseman Nellie Fox of the White Sox form the keystone combination with Bill Skowron of the Yankees at first base and home run leader Harmon Killebrew of Washington at third.

Gus Triandos, Baltimore's slugging receiver, beat out Sherman Lollar and Yogi Berra, for the No. 1 catching job.

Neither Stengel nor Haney has given any indication as to which pitchers they will name. Based on their 1959 records, the following may be chosen:

National League—Right-handers Burdette of the Braves, Don Drysdale, Dodgers: Elroy Face, Pirates, and Don Newcombe, Reds. The left-handers may be Johnny Antonelli, Giants; Warren Spahn, Braves; Johnny Podres, Dodgers, and Wilmer Mizell, Cardinals.

McBurneys, Golden Star Win

Close One Taken By Chester Team

Chester Legion forged farther ahead with a narrow victory over Medics, Millirons romped over Golden Star and McBurneys captured its first victory to feature Little League action Saturday.

The Legion nine—the pace-setter in the National Division — whipped the Medics, 7-6, as Billy Wright and Dennis Horger teamed up to share mound duties. Chester collected all its runs in the fifth inning.

Wright started and gained credit for the Legion victory, but needed relief help from Horger in the fifth. The pair gave up nine hits as Chester recorded its fourth triumph against one defeat.

Cashdollar doubled for the winners, while Marchbanks doubled for the Medics. Marchbanks was charged with the defeat after being relieved by his battery mate, James.

Millirons clouted 15 hits in walloping Golden Star, 19-0. Millirons, tied with Travelers for the lead in the American Division, plated nine runs in the first and fourth innings to win easily.

Jim Johnson, the winning hurler, fanned 10. Bill Raimond was behind the plate. Johnson banged out two hits for the winners, including a double. Ensinger went two for three. Massey had two hits for Golden Star.

McBurneys waited until the sixth inning to break a 2-2 tie and score three runs to victimize Burbicks. Both squads got four hits, but Burbick errors in the sixth proved the margin of difference.

Leon fanned 10 and Huddleston 12 in a pitcher's battle. Goodballet hit the game's only triple.

White Sox Defeat Yankees Twice In Another Good Sunday

Indians Keep Pace In Wins Over Red Sox

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

What a difference a day makes—especially if the day is Sunday.

Ask the Chicago White Sox who have won 12 out of 17 on the first day of the week. Because of Sunday, they're in second place, only one game behind the American League-leading Cleveland Indians. Without Sunday, they'd be in sixth place with a .500 percentage.

Ask the New York Yankees who have won only seven out of 21 on that day. Because of Sunday, they're in fifth place, four games off the pace. Without Sunday, they'd be in first place with a .580 percentage.

The Sunday sign prevailed again Sunday as the White Sox inflicted a double defeat on the Yankees, 9-2 and 4-2 to capture the series, three games to one.

Despite the double victory, Chicago failed to pick up ground on the Indians, who swept a pair from Boston 5-4 and 1-0. Detroit climbed past the Yankees into fourth place with a 7-2 triumph over Baltimore and Washington climbed into sixth place with a 7-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

A pair of veteran right-handers—Early Wynn and Dick Donovan—pitched the White Sox to their two triumphs over the Yankees. Wynn went the distance, spacing nine hits in the opener for his 11th victory of the year and the 260th of his career. The Sox supported him with a four-homer barrage against Whitey Ford and Jim Coates. The four-baggers were hit by Al Smith, Sherm Lollar, Earl Battey and Bubba Phillip.

Lollar also hit a home run in the second game, a three-run blast off loser Don Larsen in the first inning. That was sufficient for Donovan to register his fifth victory although he needed help from Turk Lown in the ninth.

It was the fifth Sunday this year that the Yankees have been dealt a double defeat and the third in a row.

Sunday also has been a big day for Charlie Maxwell of Detroit. The left-handed hitting outfielder clubbed his 16th home run with a man on base in the third inning. It was the ninth time Maxwell has homered on Sunday and it helped the Tigers overcome an early Baltimore lead.

Don Mossi pitched a six-hitter for his sixth victory. The loss, charged to Milt Pappas, dropped the third-place Orioles 2½ games off the pace.

Brilliant pitching by rookie Jim Perry and Herb Score together with clutch hitting by Tito Francona and Jim Baxes featured the Indians' double victory over Boston.

Francona singled home Woody Held with the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning of the opener. Perry, who relieved starter Gary Bell after the Red Sox had tied the score, 4-4, in the top of the seventh, hurled one-hit ball to gain the decision.

Score hurled a two-hitter and was rewarded with his eighth victory when Baxes smashed a pitch by rookie left-hander Ted Wills for a home run in the seventh. Score fanned seven.

Harmon Killebrew and Jim Lemon batted in three runs apiece for Washington as Russ Kemmerer went all the way for his fifth victory.

Venturi Wins Chicago Open

CHICAGO (AP) — Ken Venturi made one of the oddest parlays in golf pay off for victory in the $57,000 Chicago Open.

He credited his garden in Daly City, Calif., a suburb of San Francisco, and the wind at Gleneagles Country Club with helping bring him the $9,000 first award Sunday.

In repeating for the tournament's crown, Venturi drilled shots through the gusty wind for a closing 66 and a 7-under-par total of 273. He made up five shots on Johnny Pott of Shreveport, the leader through the first three rounds, who closed with a 72 and 274 for runnerup swag of $4,600.

Venturi, who inserted the Los Angeles Open triumph between his 1958 Chicago Open and this one for his only victories in a year is a perfectionist.

"I had 25 putts on the last round in beating out Pott," said the 28-year-old erstwhile auto salesman. "It was the greatest putting day I've ever had.

"During the last year I've been growing various types of grass used on greens and studying them. That garden helped me a lot in learning the various grains of the grass and their effect on putts."

Venturi dropped a 25-footer for an eagle 3 on the 13th and a 12-footer for a birdie 3 on the next to solidify his Gleneagles triumph. On the 15th he holed a 7-footer to save a par 3 after being trapped. He had nine one-putt greens on the final round.

Third place and $3,000 went to Gene Littler who closed with a 68 for 276. Bo Wininger was fourth at 277 after bowing out of contention with a 72. Jim Ferree, Don Whitt and Sam Snead were next at 279. Arnold Palmer, with 75, was buried in the 281 bracket.

Olmedo Meets Chilean Star

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—The South American men's singles championship, heavily overlaid with North American overtones, will be played today on the ivy covered courts of Wimbledon.

Technically, the match will be a quarter-final in the 73rd Wimbledon Championships but when Alejandro Rodriguez Olmedo of Arequipa, Peru, meets Luis Alberto Avala of Santiago, Chile, the match assumes continental and hemisphertic proportions.

Both Olmedo and Ayala, the best two South American amateurs, have spent months playing and living in the United States.

90 Shooters Participate In Beaver Kettle's Event

Ninety shooters attended the Beaver Kettle Bowmen Invitational shoot at their Fredericktown field course Sunday.

Raleigh Bassinger of the Whitefeather Bowmen won first honors in the men's instinctive 400 class with the high score of the day, 934.

Joe Martell of the Midland Archery Club finished second with a 910. Hunter Nicholas of Wyandote Archers was 3rd with 868 and Don Chesko, also of White Feather, fourth.

Winners in the men's 325 class were: B. Cristwell, R. Morrell, J. Onuska and C. Windland.

Winners in the men's 250 class were Henry Babell, J. Cunningham B. Cacle and R. McCollum.

Winners in the men's 175 class were: E. Wendt, Junior Banfield, K. Wells, and K. Alford.

Winners in the men's 100 class were: J. Satterfield, F. Morrell, D. Campbell, and J. Thompson.

Intermediate class winner was B. Talbott Jr.

Junior class winners were F. Tepovich and Jr. McCornich.

Winners in the women's instinctive 275 class were: B. Martell of the Midland Archery Club with a 557 total.

Winners in the women's 225 class were: D. Sigley, I. Simms, B. Bowers and I. Dobbins.

Winners in the women's 175 class were: T. Simmons and H. Pronty.

Winners in the women's 125 class were: A. McCorich, E. Meggs, R. Wendt and R. Babel.

Winners in the women's 75 class were: H. Wells and B. Sturgeon.

The men's free - style event was won by Benny Martell of Midland, who shot a 56 target total of 886. E. Scarcella, also of Midland, was second with 813. Third place went to Bob Chesco of White Feather and Frank Chesko, also of White Feather, was fourth.

Trophys were awarded to all winners in all classes and 20-pin trophys were presented to 12 shooters. Those winning 20 pins were: Nicholas, Phillips, Cunningham, Center, Morrell, R. Bassinger, H. Bassinger, Froats, Haynes, Palmer, Onuska.

The 20 pins are awarded to any shooter who shoots a perfect 4 for 20 on any target 35 yards or more away.

The next shoot to be held by the Beaver Kettle Bowmen will be a 56-target round July 12 at 1 p. m. Trophys will be awarded three places in each class.

Shift To Baxes Pays Off As Tribe Wins Twin Bill

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Baxes' first major league start at second base in a surprise move by Manager Joe Gordon was a big factor in Cleveland's 1-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday. The Indians won the opener, 5-4.

Baxes hit a home run in the seventh inning to provide the margin of victory. It broke up a tight pitching duel between southpaw Herb Score, who gave up only two hits in winning his eighth game in 13 decisions, and Ted Wills, another left-hander.

The affable Baxes also was a participant in three double plays which helped prevent the Red Sox from making a serious scoring threat.

Since Billy Martin suffered a shoulder injury last Tuesday night, Gordon has been using rookie Ray Webster and veteran Granny Hamner at second base. Hamner was there in Sunday's opener, but Gordon decided against using him in the nightcap. Baxes was sent to second because Webster had not been hitting.

Tribe Brings Up Valo And Sends Back Hardy

CLEVELAND (AP) — The purchase of veteran outfielder Elmer Valo from Seattle of the Pacific Coast League was announced today by the Cleveland Indians. To make room for him on the roster, the Tribe optioned outfielder Carroll Hardy to Seattle.

Valo, 38, is a left-handed batter with a lifetime average of .285. He will be used mainly as a pinch hitter.

Score struck out seven and walked seven. His last strikeout was against Ted Williams to end the game. Williams, who hit a home run in the opener, was batting for catcher Sammy White.

The only hits off the left-hander, who had looked bad in his two previous starts, were a double by Wills in the third inning and a single by Bob Avila in the fifth.

A seventh-inning single by Tito Francona scored Woodie Held, who had doubled, with the run that provided the difference in the first game.

The Indians scored their first run in the second inning on a lead-off double by Minnie Minoso and a single by George Strickland. Then added three more in the third frame on Minoso's 12th home run of the season with two on base.

Williams' homer into the upper right field stands in the third inning gave the Red Sox their first run. They tied the score at 4-4 in the top of the seventh with a three-run rally that chased starter Gary Bell. The runs came on two walks, a double, a single and a sacrifice fly.

Jim Perry, who put down the rally and then pitched two scoreless innings, gained his second victory of the season. He has lost one.

The first-place Indians take time out from the American League pennant race tonight for a game here with the Cincinnati Redlegs, with the proceeds going for the benefit of sandlot baseball in greater Cleveland. They open a two-game series with the second-place Chicago White Sox Tuesday night.

Taylor's Hitting Helps Buffalo Win Twin Bill

By The Associated Press

Joe Taylor isn't wasting any time convincing the Buffalo Bisons they did the right thing in buying him from Charleston of the American Assn. last Friday.

He slugged four hits, including a home run, drove in three runs and scored three Sunday as the Bisons won two from the Havana Sugar Kings, 15-4 and 5-3. The double victory gave the Bisons a 2½ game lead over second place Rochester, who lost a doubleheader to Miami, 6-2 and 2-1.

Toronto inched to within four percentage points of vacating the International League cellar with a 5-3, 13-inning victory over Richmond. The second game of the scheduled doubleheader went only four innings with Richmond ahead 8-0 when Toronto's Sunday curfew called a halt. The game will be replayed from the start later in the season.

Montreal swept Columbus 2-1 and 8-2 in the other IL action.

Coach Proposes More Meets For Women Athletes

CLEVELAND (AP)—Coach Ed Temple whose Tennessee State girls ran away with the women's national AAU track championships for the fifth straight year, is not satisfied.

American women track and field stars don't get enough competition, said Temple, who will coach the U. S. women's team in a return match with the Russians in Philadelphia July 18-19. Temple was coach of the U. S. team that lost in Moscow last year.

Bemoaning the lack of competitive meets, the mentor from the Nashville, Tenn., school said:

"If they want our girls to be as good as the European and Russian women, they'll have to give us more meets to compete in."

Ten veterans of the Moscow meet will be on this year's team, including Earlene Brown, 215-pound Los Angeles mother, and Isbelle Daniels of Jakin, Ga., a member of the Tenn State squad. Both were double winners in the track championships here Sunday.

Tennessee State eclipsed the other teams, piling up a total of 132 points, 92 points better than their nearest competitor, the Spartan Athletic Club of Los Angeles.

The lowest competitive 18 - hole golf score made by a woman is believed to be the 64 posted by Patty Berg in the first round of the Richmond (Calif.) Open in April 1952. She won the tournament with a 54-hole score of 210, also a record.

White Sox Defeat Yankees Twice In Another Good Sunday

Indians Keep Pace In Wins Over Red Sox

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

What a difference a day makes—especially if the day is Sunday.

Ask the Chicago White Sox who have won 12 out of 17 on the first day of the week. Because of Sunday, they're in second place, only one game behind the American League-leading Cleveland Indians. Without Sunday, they'd be in sixth place with a .500 percentage.

Ask the New York Yankees who have won only seven out of 21 on that day. Because of Sunday, they're in fifth place, four games off the pace. Without Sunday, they'd be in first place with a .580 percentage.

The Sunday sign prevailed again Sunday as the White Sox inflicted a double defeat on the Yankees, 9-2 and 4-2 to capture the series, three games to one.

Despite the double victory, Chicago failed to pick up ground on the Indians, who swept a pair from Boston 5-4 and 1-0. Detroit climbed past the Yankees into fourth place with a 7-2 triumph over Baltimore and Washington climbed into sixth place with a 7-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Lollar also hit a home run in the second game, a three-run blast off loser Don Larsen in the first inning. That was sufficient for Donovan to register his fifth victory although he needed help from Turk Lown in the ninth.

It was the fifth Sunday this year that the Yankees have been dealt a double defeat and the third in a row.

Sunday also has been a big day for Charlie Maxwell of Detroit. The left-handed hitting outfielder clubbed his 16th home run with a man on base in the third inning. It was the ninth time Maxwell has homered on Sunday and it helped the Tigers overcome an early Baltimore lead.

Shift To Baxes Pays Off As Tribe Wins Twin Bill

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Baxes' first major league start at second base in a surprise move by Manager Joe Gordon was a big factor in Cleveland's 1-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday. The Indians won the opener, 5-4.

Baxes hit a home run in the seventh inning to provide the margin of victory. It broke up a tight pitching duel between southpaw Herb Score, who gave up only two hits in winning his eighth game in 13 decisions, and Ted Wills, another left-hander.

Joe Taylor isn't wasting any time convincing the Buffalo Bisons they did the right thing in buying him from Charleston of the American Assn. last Friday.

He slugged four hits, including a home run, drove in three runs and scored three Sunday as the Bisons won two from the Havana Sugar Kings, 15-4 and 5-3. The double victory gave the Bisons a 2½ game lead over second place Rochester, who lost a doubleheader to Miami, 6-2 and 2-1.

Toronto inched to within four percentage points of vacating the International League cellar with a 5-3, 13-inning victory over Richmond. The second game of the scheduled doubleheader went only four innings with Richmond ahead 8-0 when Toronto's Sunday curfew called a halt. The game will be replayed from the start later in the season.

Montreal swept Columbus 2-1 and 8-2 in the other IL action.

Bears have a "sweet tooth" and are very destructive to sawtimber because they strip away bark of trees to get to the early spring sap in the trees. This makes useless the lower portions of a tree trunk.

Southpaw Hurlers Set Hot Pace As Dodgers Keep Rolling

Pirates Lose More Ground In 9-4 Defeat

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sweden's Ingemar Johanssen won the world heavyweight boxing title by unleashing a murderous right hand.

Los Angeles' Dodgers are hoping to win the National League baseball championship with left hands belonging to southpaw pitchers Johnny Podres, Sandy Koufax and Danny McDevitt.

Thanks to these three left-handers, the Dodgers today are in second place, only a game behind the league-leading Milwaukee Braves, and riding a seven-game winning streak. The trio has won five of the seven games, including the last three.

Sunday it was McDevitt's turn as the Dodgers thumped the Pittsburgh Pirates for the third straight day, 9-4. Milwaukee protected its lead with a 2-1 squeaker over Chicago. Third-place San Francisco whipped Philadelphia 6-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals outslugged the Cincinnati Reds in a doubleheader, 9-7 and 11-8.

The Dodgers inflicted the 10th defeat upon three-time winner Bob Friend, pounding out 11 hits, including home runs by Gil Hodges Don Demeter and Charlie Neal. McDevitt got his fourth straight victory and seventh of the season although he needed help from ace Don Drysdale in the ninth.

Eddie Mathews' 23rd home run and Del Crandall's scoring single after first baseman Dale Long had dropped his foul popup were enough for Juan Pizarro to register his first triumph for Milwaukee.

Johnny Logan, Braves' shortstop, was lost to the team for 10 days when he was spiked on the right ankle, requiring 20 stitches.

Johnny Antonelli allowed seven hits and struck out six in registering his 11th triumph for the Giants. Willie Kirkland and Orlando Cepeda drove in two runs each. Jackie Brandt hit a home run and contributed two fine catches in left field. Richie Ashburn, the 1958 batting champion, ruined three Philadelphia threats by hitting into double plays in the first, fifth and seventh innings.

A total of 18 pitchers was batted for 53 runs and 35 hits in the Cards' sweep of Cincinnati. Six home runs were hit, four by the Reds. Cincinnati's Pete Whisenant hit two, both in the first game, when the Reds nearly overcame an 8-2 deficit.

St. Louis also nearly dissipated a big lead in the second game. The Cards built up a 9-0 lead for Dick Ricketts but the rookie righthander was knocked out in the seventh when Cincinnati tallied eight times.

Jerry Lynch got five hits in the two games for the Reds and Don Blasingame, Joe Cunningham and Dick Gray got four hits each for the Redbirds. The Reds lost catcher Ed Bailey for a week or so with a split finger.

Red Pitchers Shelled Again

CINCINNATI (AP) — It doesn't take an expert to tell in what department the Cincinnati Reds are weak.

Just take a look at the results of the National League all-star voting and if you can't tell from that, glance at the scores of Sunday's twin-loss to St. Louis—9-7 and 11-8.

Cincinnati, deeply entrenched in seventh place, had four of its players named either first or second choices for next week's all-star game. That's more than any other major league team. Johnny Temple as the top choice for second base and Roy McMillan, Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson were the second in the voting for shortstop center field and first base respectively.

If you still can't tell what's holding the Redlegs back let's turn to Sunday's onslaught.

Eighteen pitchers from both benches tried their luck on the mound and for most it was just "try," as the two teams battered the hurlers for 53 hits which included 10 doubles, 4 triples and 6 home runs.

Every member of the Cincinnati pitching staff, save Jim Brosnan, made an appearance and three of them were in both games. Don Newcombe also was in both contests but both of his roles were as a pinch hitter. Big Newk singled in a run in the first game and doubled in a run in the second.

Three errors in the first inning of the first game started the Reds off on the wrong foot and by the time the Cards were finally out they had pushed across seven unearned runs.

Home runs kept the Reds in the game as Pete Whisenant hit two and Robinson one, his 17th of the season, but a two-run deficit was as close as Cincinnati ever got.

Joe Nuxhall started for Cincinnati but never made it out of the wild first inning. It was his seventh loss. He has won three.

Gary Blaylock, the third of four St. Louis pitchers, got the victory giving him a 4-4 mark.

In the second game, Cardinal right-hander Dick Ricketts had a five-hit shutout going for six innings before the sweltering heat finally took its toll.

In the seventh, the Redlegs sent 12 men to the plate and scored all eight of their runs. But the rally fell one run short of catching St. Louis and the Cards came back in the eighth to ice the game with two more runs.

Willard Schmidt started for Cincinnati and took the loss, making his record 1-2.

Besides dropping the doubleheader, the Reds suffered another blow. Their No. 1 catcher, Ed Bailey, will be out of action for a week or 10 days. He split the middle finger on his right hand in the second game when hit by a foul tip off the bat of Cardinal catcher Ray Katt.

Cincinnati goes to Cleveland today for the rubber game of their exhibition series. The Indians won the first game 4-3 in Minneapolis and the Reds won last Monday's rain-shortened game 4-0.

First National Wins Over Coca Cola, 5-4

First National Bank scored a run in the seventh inning to break a 4-4 tie and squeeze by Coca Cola for a 5-4 victory Saturday at Glenmoor.

Wolfe, who relieved Jim Jones, was the winning pitcher. Jay Welch was charged with the defeat, taking over for Hal Ball. Ed Carpenter also saw relief duty for the losers.

Williams and Peterson each socked doubles for Coca Cola, while Glasure doubled and singled for the winning nine. Jim Jones of First National and Ball of Coca Cola each fanned 13.

Cleveland Man Takes Amputee Golf Tourney

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Stan Zakas of Cleveland won the Ohio amputee golf tournament with a score of 80-77—157.

The 37-year-old industrial worker, who lost a leg at the hip, fired the 80 at Solon last week in the first half of the competition. Sunday at Highland Golf Course he had a 5-under-par 38-39—77.

Sinclair Lewis, in 1930, was the first American to receive a Nobel Prize for literature.

'Old Timer' Triumphs In Homing Club Race

William Allison's "Old Timer" proved the best of 78 other pigeons by winning the East Liverpool Homing Club's 500-mile race from Vandalia Saturday.

"Old Timer" winged home in 9 hours, 45 minutes, 29 seconds. Pat Connor's "Blue Goose" was second in 9 hours, 51 minutes and 51 seconds. "Red Head," owned by Charles Papendry, came home third.

City League Has Forfeit

Following a rhubarb at home plate over an accused "roughing it up play," Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 was declared the winner by forfeit over Cox Construction, 5-4, in City League action Sunday at Clark Field in Newell.

Glenn Barnett, league president, said Lawrenceville was awarded the game when the Cox team refused to take the field in its half of the seventh inning.

It was the season's first defeat for the Construction nine and left Manager Bob Campbell's squad deadlocked with Irondale for first place in the standings.

Both Irondale and Cox Construction now have 5-1 records.

The two squads will battle Wednesday at Patterson Field for the league lead.

Campbell said today that all Cox Construction players are to report to Patterson Field Wednesday at 5 p. m.

Batting — Sherman Lollar, White Sox, clubbed two homers in Chicago's double victory over the Yankees. His first game homer in the sixth erased a Yankee lead and paved the way for a 9-2 victory. His second game homer came in the first inning, with two on, and paced the Sox' 4-2 triumph.

Pitching — Herb Score, Indians, hurled a two-hitter, fanned seven and won his eighth game when Jim Baxes homered in the seventh inning to give Cleveland a 1-0 triumph over Boston after the Indians won the opener 5-4.

City Woman Fined $10 For Chester Collision

An East Liverpool woman was fined Friday evening in a hearing before Mayor Burton Ward of Chester on a traffic violation.

Miss Garnet Lee Tucker, 21, of Lee St. was fined $10 and costs on a hazardous driving charge. She was cited when she turned from 2nd St. onto Carolina Ave. and hit a parked car belonging to S. W. Keenan of Rumford, R. I., the mayor said.

Police said she told them a truck was coming toward her and she chose to hit the car rather than the truck. The accident occurred about 8:15 Friday night.

Plastic Bag Warning

NEW YORK (AP)—Plastic bag warnings go out to 70,000 New Yorkers this week. They are being sent along with all city relief checks at the request of the Health Department. A number of children have suffocated by accidentally covering their faces with plastic bags or sheeting.

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP)—John Coolidge, son of the late President Calvin Coolidge, is going into the dairy business. He and two associates have taken out papers of incorporation for a plant to process milk, cheese and other products.

Friend Slain In Odd Twist To Theft Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—When an early morning noise awakened him, tavern owner Stanley Cermelj, 36, looked out and saw two men getting out of a car.

One of the men was Albert A. Siebert, 57, of North Royalton, a long-time customer at his tavern, the Ivy Inn. It looked as though the second man was attempting to rob Siebert.

That was the account police said Cermelj gave in explaining how he accidentally shot to death his friend, Siebert, Sunday.

Detectives said this is what happened:

Carmelj told his wife to call police while he got his pistol, ran out on the second-floor porch and called to the two men to get their hands up and stand by the car.

Acolph Schultz, 59, an off-duty policeman who was driving by at the time, stopped but was unable to convince Carmelj he was a policeman.

Carmelj fired once when the two men started to move, and Schultz got a passing cab driver to call police. When a police car arrived, the two men again started to move, and Cermelj fired two more, this time hitting Siebert in the chest.

The second man disappeared and has not been identified.

Cermelj was held for questioning.

Wellsville Legion Nets $271 From Poppy Sale

Emmett Daniels, commander, said today Wellsville American Legion Post 5647 collected $271.80 in its traditional Poppy Day sale Friday.

Half the proceeds will be kept by the post for relief work and the remainder will be divided between the National VFW Home at Eaton Rapids, Mich., and the national and departmental rehabilitation funds.

The department's share will supplement the regional services offices, he said.

Women's Editor Dies

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — Martha Rivers Adams, 76, women's editor of the Lynchburg News and a member of the newspaper's staff for more than 45 years, died Sunday.

Ohio Priest Shot On Chicago Street

CHICAGO (AP) — Arraignment of a man who allegedly shot an Ohio priest on a downtown Chicago street Friday has been postponed until July 9.

Clyde C. Morr, 69, became violent in a court lockup Sunday. Judge William Barth then ordered him to appear in Felony Court on the 9th.

Morr is charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

The priest, Msgr. Joseph Schneider, 51, of Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Norwood, Ohio, was shot in the left hip as he walked along the street. He was reported in good condition in Mercy Hospital.

Police seized Morr immediately after the shooting. Authorities reported Morr told them he was angry at Catholic church officials.

Morr escaped from an Illinois mental hospital in 1954 and since then had been working in Chicago as a short-order cook.

Dies From Injuries

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Boukis of Parma died Sunday in Forest City Hospital of injuries suffered Wednesday when he was struck by a car in Parma.

Beaver Will Conduct Registration For Food

Registration for surplus food in Beaver County will be held Wednesday through July 17 at 841 Corporation St., Beaver, Benedict Zupi, surplus food administrator, announced. Registration will entitle new eligible recipients to receive food in August and after July 17, it will close until August.

Distribution of food will be held Friday from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Borough Garage on Railroad Ave., Midland, for recipients residing and registered in Midland, Industry, Smiths Ferry and Ohio Township.

Applicants must have their identification cards with them and, if getting food for someone else, an excuse must be presented, Zupi said.

150 Attend Services

EAST PALESTINE — About 150 attended the first of a series of vesper services held Sunday night at the City Park by the Ministerial Association. The Rev. Howard Knittle of the Evangelical United Brethren Church was the speaker. The next service will be July 26.

Stanton Board Asks Bids On School Project

The Stanton Local Board of Education is advertising for bids for construction of an addition to the elementary school in Hammondsville.

Bids will be opened at noon July 21 by the board in Irondale High School. Funds for the project comes from a $498,000 bond issue voters approved June 2.

Plans and specifications were prepared by Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect. Inside toilets are to be installed as part of the project.

City Woman Fined $10 For Chester Collision

An East Liverpool woman was fined Friday evening in a hearing before Mayor Burton Ward of Chester on a traffic violation.

Miss Garnet Lee Tucker, 21, of Lee St. was fined $10 and costs on a hazardous driving charge. She was cited when she turned from 2nd St. onto Carolina Ave. and hit a parked car belonging to S. W. Keenan of Rumford, R. I., the mayor said.

Police said she told them a truck was coming toward her and she chose to hit the car rather than the truck. The accident occurred about 8:15 Friday night.

Plastic Bag Warning

NEW YORK (AP)—Plastic bag warnings go out to 70,000 New Yorkers this week. They are being sent along with all city relief checks at the request of the Health Department. A number of children have suffocated by accidentally covering their faces with plastic bags or sheeting.

Enters Dairy Business

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP)—John Coolidge, son of the late President Calvin Coolidge, is going into the dairy business. He and two associates have taken out papers of incorporation for a plant to process milk, cheese and other products.

Friend Slain In Odd Twist To Theft Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—When an early morning noise awakened him, tavern owner Stanley Cermelj, 36, looked out and saw two men getting out of a car.

One of the men was Albert A. Siebert, 57, of North Royalton, a long-time customer at his tavern, the Ivy Inn. It looked as though the second man was attempting to rob Siebert.

That was the account police said Cermelj gave in explaining how he accidentally shot to death his friend, Siebert, Sunday.

Detectives said this is what happened:

Carmelj told his wife to call police while he got his pistol, ran out on the second-floor porch and called to the two men to get their hands up and stand by the car.

Acolph Schultz, 59, an off-duty policeman who was driving by at the time, stopped but was unable to convince Carmelj he was a policeman.

Carmelj fired once when the two men started to move, and Schultz got a passing cab driver to call police. When a police car arrived, the two men again started to move, and Cermelj fired two more, this time hitting Siebert in the chest.

The second man disappeared and has not been identified.

Cermelj was held for questioning.

Wellsville Legion Nets $271 From Poppy Sale

Emmett Daniels, commander, said today Wellsville American Legion Post 5647 collected $271.80 in its traditional Poppy Day sale Friday.

Half the proceeds will be kept by the post for relief work and the remainder will be divided between the National VFW Home at Eaton Rapids, Mich., and the national and departmental rehabilitation funds.

The department's share will supplement the regional services offices, he said.

Women's Editor Dies

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — Martha Rivers Adams, 76, women's editor of the Lynchburg News and a member of the newspaper's staff for more than 45 years, died Sunday.

Ohio Priest Shot On Chicago Street

CHICAGO (AP) — Arraignment of a man who allegedly shot an Ohio priest on a downtown Chicago street Friday has been postponed until July 9.

Clyde C. Morr, 69, became violent in a court lockup Sunday. Judge William Barth then ordered him to appear in Felony Court on the 9th.

Morr is charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

The priest, Msgr. Joseph Schneider, 51, of Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Norwood, Ohio, was shot in the left hip as he walked along the street. He was reported in good condition in Mercy Hospital.

Police seized Morr immediately after the shooting. Authorities reported Morr told them he was angry at Catholic church officials.

Morr escaped from an Illinois mental hospital in 1954 and since then had been working in Chicago as a short-order cook.

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Boukis of Parma died Sunday in Forest City Hospital of injuries suffered Wednesday when he was struck by a car in Parma.

Beaver Will Conduct Registration For Food

Registration for surplus food in Beaver County will be held Wednesday through July 17 at 841 Corporation St., Beaver, Benedict Zupi, surplus food administrator, announced. Registration will entitle new eligible recipients to receive food in August and after July 17, it will close until August.

Distribution of food will be held Friday from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Borough Garage on Railroad Ave., Midland, for recipients residing and registered in Midland, Industry, Smiths Ferry and Ohio Township.

Applicants must have their identification cards with them and, if getting food for someone else, an excuse must be presented, Zupi said.

150 Attend Services

EAST PALESTINE — About 150 attended the first of a series of vesper services held Sunday night at the City Park by the Ministerial Association. The Rev. Howard Knittle of the Evangelical United Brethren Church was the speaker. The next service will be July 26.

Stanton Board Asks Bids On School Project

The Stanton Local Board of Education is advertising for bids for construction of an addition to the elementary school in Hammondsville.

Bids will be opened at noon July 21 by the board in Irondale High School. Funds for the project comes from a $498,000 bond issue voters approved June 2.

Plans and specifications were prepared by Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect. Inside toilets are to be installed as part of the project.

Man Admits Slaying Wife, Burying Body

ACTON, Calif. (AP) — The wife of a retired gardener saw a man stop his car near her ranch home on this lonely stretch of desert "where nothing ever happens."

"I went into the house and got my binoculars," Martha Schulze said Sunday. "I saw him bury something, but I didn't know what it was."

"Let's go up and see what he buried," Mrs. Schulze told her husband, Charles, 76.

"No," he said, "let's go shopping first. What's buried there will stay there."

When they returned from a shopping trip to nearby Palmdale, Mrs. Schulze and a neighbor walked to the spot and dug up a woman's purse and shoes. Then Mrs. Schulze called police.

The purse belonged to Ina Huebner Mosher, 38, who five months ago married Gerald Mosher, an oil field worker.

Police found Mosher, 43, asleep in a hotel room in San Fernando, a suburb of Los Angeles. Officers said Mosher told them, between sobs, that he had strangled his wife Saturday in a fit of jealousy.

Mosher told police he loaded his wife's body in his car and drove aimlessly for several hours. Then he stopped near Mrs. Schulze's home and buried the purse and shoes.

"I didn't know what I was doing," Mosher told police. Then, they said, he led them to his wife's body, dumped from the car along a private road near San Fernando.

Dialing System Set

CLEVELAND (AP) — Starting Aug. 30, Cleveland area residents will be able to dial direct on their telephones to hundreds of other cities from coast to coast. The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. has set that date for starting the long-distance dialing system here. The system will include all Cuyahoga County and parts of Lake and Geauga counties.

Fire Hits Ironton

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—A fire early Sunday destroyed a section of the old Foster Stove Co. building here, causing damage estimated at $175,000. The blaze, out of control for more than two hours, was accompanied by several explosions. Cause of the fire was not known. No one was injured.

Son Charged With Slaying 7 In Family

STETTLER, Alta. (AP) — The mass slaying of a father, mother and their five children came to light with discovery Sunday of the se en battered bodies at this quiet central Alberta town. Robert Raymond Cook, 22, son of the slain man, was charged with murder.

The victims were Raymond Cook, 53, a garage mechanic; his wife, Daisy Mae, 37; and their three sons and two daughters ranging in age from 9 to 3.

Police found a blood-stained shotgun stuffed under a mattress in the Cook's neatly kept green and white house, but the bodies were so badly battered investigators could not tell whether the victims had been shot before they were clubbed.

The bodies were found in the garage under a pile of old tires, boxes, blankets and other articles. The discovery shocked this town of 3,000, eighty miles southeast of Edmonton.

Police went to the home to inform the father that Robert Raymond had been arrested Saturday on a charge involving the father's car. When neighbors told police none of the Cooks had been seen since Thursday, the officers entered the house and found bloodstains on the floor and mattresses.

Man Admits Slaying Wife, Burying Body

ACTON, Calif. (AP) — The wife of a retired gardener saw a man stop his car near her ranch home on this lonely stretch of desert "where nothing ever happens."

"I went into the house and got my binoculars," Martha Schulze said Sunday. "I saw him bury something, but I didn't know what it was."

"Let's go up and see what he buried," Mrs. Schulze told her husband, Charles, 76.

"No," he said, "let's go shopping first. What's buried there will stay there."

When they returned from a shopping trip to nearby Palmdale, Mrs. Schulze and a neighbor walked to the spot and dug up a woman's purse and shoes. Then Mrs. Schulze called police.

The purse belonged to Ina Huebner Mosher, 38, who five months ago married Gerald Mosher, an oil field worker.

Police found Mosher, 43, asleep in a hotel room in San Fernando, a suburb of Los Angeles. Officers said Mosher told them, between sobs, that he had strangled his wife Saturday in a fit of jealousy.

Mosher told police he loaded his wife's body in his car and drove aimlessly for several hours. Then he stopped near Mrs. Schulze's home and buried the purse and shoes.

"I didn't know what I was doing," Mosher told police. Then, they said, he led them to his wife's body, dumped from the car along a private road near San Fernando.

Dialing System Set

CLEVELAND (AP) — Starting Aug. 30, Cleveland area residents will be able to dial direct on their telephones to hundreds of other cities from coast to coast. The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. has set that date for starting the long-distance dialing system here. The system will include all Cuyahoga County and parts of Lake and Geauga counties.

Fire Hits Ironton

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—A fire early Sunday destroyed a section of the old Foster Stove Co. building here, causing damage estimated at $175,000. The blaze, out of control for more than two hours, was accompanied by several explosions. Cause of the fire was not known. No one was injured.

Son Charged With Slaying 7 In Family

STETTLER, Alta. (AP) — The mass slaying of a father, mother and their five children came to light with discovery Sunday of the se en battered bodies at this quiet central Alberta town. Robert Raymond Cook, 22, son of the slain man, was charged with murder.

The victims were Raymond Cook, 53, a garage mechanic; his wife, Daisy Mae, 37; and their three sons and two daughters ranging in age from 9 to 3.

Police found a blood-stained shotgun stuffed under a mattress in the Cook's neatly kept green and white house, but the bodies were so badly battered investigators could not tell whether the victims had been shot before they were clubbed.

The bodies were found in the garage under a pile of old tires, boxes, blankets and other articles. The discovery shocked this town of 3,000, eighty miles southeast of Edmonton.

Police went to the home to inform the father that Robert Raymond had been arrested Saturday on a charge involving the father's car. When neighbors told police none of the Cooks had been seen since Thursday, the officers entered the house and found blood-stains on the floor and mattresses.

NOTICE OF HEARING
O.R.C. Sec. 3107.06 (B) (4)
Case No. 1101 Doc. A-1 Pg. 551
To: Gerald Raymond Dille
Address unknown

You are hereby notified that on the 18th day of June, 1959, a petition was filed in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, for the adoption of Craig Alan Dille who was born 13th Oct. 1958 at Salem, Ohio.

Said petition contains the allegation that you, as the father of said child have wilfully failed to properly support and maintain said child for a period of more than two years immediately preceding the filing of this petition.

If at the hearing it is found that the allegations of the petition are true your consent to the adoption of the above named child will not be required.

Hearing on said petition will be on the 21st day of July, 1959, at 9:45 o'clock A. M. in the Probate Court of Columbiana County at the Court House, Lisbon, Ohio.

Witness my signature and the seal of said Court at Lisbon, Ohio, this 18th day of June, 1959.

If You Live In West Virginia

There Will Be Some Changes Made

CHARLESTON (AP)—Thirty more enactments of the West Virginia legislature become effective next Wednesday.

Some of them will cost you money. Others are designed to provide better governmental services and benefits.

For example, you will pay $5 instead of $1 when you renew your driver's license for another four years, or obtain such a permit for the first time. A learner's permit will go from $2 to $4.

Among new benefits will be increases in weekly minimum and maximum payments under the workmen's compensation law. The $20-$33 range will be boosted to $22-$35.

MONTHLY benefits for dependent children under the same law will jump from $17.50 to $20; those for dependent parents from $50 to $60, and payments to orphaned children from $20 to $25.

After the beginning of the new fiscal year next Wednesday, only one of 199 enactments of the 1959 legislature which became law will remain to go into effect.

That is a measure raising some hunting and fishing licenses and adding new fees for sportsmen hunting deer, elk and bear — or fishing for trout. Its effective date will be next Dec. 31.

Numerous tax and other revenue acts become effective next Wednesday, including one boosting rates in 12 of 21 classifications of business and industry subject to the gross sales tax.

That measure, expected to bring in $2,700,000 in additional annual general revenue, also contains a provision to tighten up gross sales tax collections from out-of-state contractors temporarily doing business in West Virginia.

THE ACTS going into effect also will do such things as:

Impose a tax of $1.10 per $500 value, or any fraction thereof down to amounts of not less than $100, on any transfer of real property as a means for providing another $500,000 to $600,000 a year in general fund revenue.

Boost the state's pari - mutuel racing tax from 5 to 5¾ per cent.

Increase from $300,000 to $450,000 special license and other fees collected annually from utilities regulated by the Public Service Commission as a means of providing the PSC with additonal operating funds.

Attempt to tighten gasoline tax collections from out-of-state truckers by imposing a motor carrier road levy on buses and trailer trucks, to be computed on the amount of motor fuel used in West Virginia business.

Raise club and package beer licenses from $50 to $100 and from $5 to $15 a year, respectively.

Uniformed state police personnel will get $50-a-month salary increases as of July 1. The conservation director will have new authority to license and regulate motor boats using state waters.

The minimum daily fee for a voluntary patient at a state mental hospital clinic will jump from $5 to $7. The amount a county may be required to pay annually toward maintenance of a mental hospital patient will go from $100 to $150.

A PACKAGE of measures tightening the definition of a motor vehicle dealer, and the issuance and use of dealers' license plates, also will go into effect next Wednesday.

Street lighting will be added to municipal services for which a special charge may be imposed. Failure of a justice of the peace or constable to collect fees in advance in a civil case will become a misdemeanor.

Becoming effective also will be several acts revising firemen's and policemen's pension and relief fund statutes; the State Real Estate Commission article, and laws regulating barbering, beauty culture and manicurists.

Still another enactment with a July 1 effective date is one designed to cushion or prevent penalty losses in state school aid as a result of the effect of a 1958 amendment exempting bank deposits and money from taxation.

The amendment threw out of focus appraised values for Class I property in a county-by-county tax commissioner's survey used to compute local shares of school costs.

COUNTIES must have assessments of non-utility property up to 50 per cent of appraised values as set out in the survey for the present calendar year or lose proportionate amounts of state school aid as penalties.

Without the technical new act designed to compensate for effects of last year's constitutional change, some statehouse sources estimated, as many as 50 of the state's 55 counties could be penalized unfairly.

The budget act adopted by the 1959 legislature was effective from its final passage on March 16 because of the usual deficiency or emergency appropriations, but its major provisions also become operable July 1.

The enactment contained operating appropriations from general revenue of $112,733,000 for fiscal 1959-60, an increase of 4½ million over 1958-59.

Psychiatrists To Take Over In Long Case

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — Gov. Earl K. Long, refreshed after a weekend at his beloved "Pea Patch Farm," heads across state to Covington today to place himself under a term of psychiatrists.

Long is also extending his political purge, divorcing his wife, planning a special session of the Legislature and starting his campaign for re-election.

"I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can," he said of his wife, who twice committed him for psychiatric treatment. Mrs. Long has left the state.

Long plans to remain at Covington until Friday night. Then he will go to Baton Rouge for the first time since his commitment to Southeast Louisiana State (mental) Hospital at Mandeville on June 18.

The 63-year-old governor discussed his plans Sunday in a 15-minute news conference on the back porch of the frame farm house his estranged wife, Blanche, calls "Earl's shack."

"I would have got a divorce a long time ago if I hadn't been in politics," the governor said. "Without causing any scandal and no trouble I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can."

Long predicted he would be elected governor for the fourth time in the Democratic primary next December. He said he would get 60 per cent of the vote as against 51 per cent he got last time.

"If any man in Louisiana is qualified to talk about politics, it's me," Long emphasized.

Street lighting will be added to municipal services for which a special charge may be imposed. Failure of a justice of the peace or constable to collect fees in advance in a civil case will become a misdemeanor.

Becoming effective also will be several acts revising firemen's and policemen's pension and relief fund statutes; the State Real Estate Commission article, and laws regulating barbering, beauty culture and manicurists.

Still another enactment with a July 1 effective date is one designed to cushion or prevent penalty losses in state school aid as a result of the effect of a 1958 amendment exempting bank deposits and money from taxation.

The amendment threw out of focus appraised values for Class I property in a county-by-county tax commissioner's survey used to compute local shares of school costs.

COUNTIES must have assessments of non-utility property up to 50 per cent of appraised values as set out in the survey for the present calendar year or lose proportionate amounts of state school aid as penalties.

Without the technical new act designed to compensate for effects of last year's constitutional change, some statehouse sources estimated, as many as 50 of the state's 55 counties could be penalized unfairly.

The budget act adopted by the 1959 legislature was effective from its final passage on March 16 because of the usual deficiency or emergency appropriations, but its major provisions also become operable July 1.

The enactment contained operating appropriations from general revenue of $112,733,000 for fiscal 1959-60, an increase of 4½ million over 1958-59.

Psychiatrists To Take Over In Long Case

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — Gov. Earl K. Long, refreshed after a weekend at his beloved "Pea Patch Farm," heads across state to Covington today to place himself under a term of psychiatrists.

Long is also extending his political purge, divorcing his wife, planning a special session of the Legislature and starting his campaign for re-election.

"I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can," he said of his wife, who twice committed him for psychiatric treatment. Mrs. Long has left the state.

Long plans to remain at Covington until Friday night. Then he will go to Baton Rouge for the first time since his commitment to Southeast Louisiana State (mental) Hospital at Mandeville on June 18.

The 63-year-old governor discussed his plans Sunday in a 15-minute news conference on the back porch of the frame farm house his estranged wife, Blanche, calls "Earl's shack."

"I would have got a divorce a long time ago if I hadn't been in politics," the governor said. "Without causing any scandal and no trouble I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can."

Long predicted he would be elected governor for the fourth time in the Democratic primary next December. He said he would get 60 per cent of the vote as against 51 per cent he got last time.

"If any man in Louisiana is qualified to talk about politics, it's me," Long emphasized.

Men From Mars Keep Marine Planes Flying

CHERRY POINT, N.C. (AP)—Men from MARS keep planes flying at the Marine air station here. They are members of the Marine Aircraft Repair Squadron.
